Classes of accommodation to which Government servants are considered to be entitled.

22. For the purpose of calculating mileage allowance for journeys by sea or river in a steamer, Government servants are considered to be entitled to class accommodation according to the following scale:—

(a) A Government servant of the first grade.—Highest class;

(b) A Government servant of the second grade.—If there be two classes only on the steamer, the higher class;

if there be more than two classes, middle or second class.

(c) A Government servant of the third grade.—If there be two classes only on the steamer, the lower class;

if there be three classes, middle or second class;

if there be four classes, third class:

Provided that a competent authority may direct that any Government servant whose pay does not exceed Rs. 35 is entitled, for journeys generally or for particular journeys, to accommodation in the lowest class only.

(d) A Government servant of the fourth grade.—Lowest class.

NOTE.—A steam vessel of more than 90 tons gross tonnage, or one of whatever size which belongs to a regular steamer service for the conveyance of passengers at fixed fares is "a steamer" for the purpose of regulating travelling allowances.

23. The mileage allowance admissible to a Government servant of the first, second or third grade is double the fare of the class in which he is entitled to accommodation. The mileage allowance admissible to a Government servant of the fourth grade is the fare of the lowest class. Rates of mileage allowance.

In cases where the steamer company has two rates of fare, one inclusive and one exclusive of diet, the word "fare" in this rule should be held to mean fare exclusive of diet.

24. In cases of doubt or in which, owing to the arrangement of classes on a steamer, the provisions of rule 22 if strictly construed involve hardship, a competent authority may decide, for journeys generally or for particular journeys, to what class of accommodation a Government servant is entitled; and whether, if a concession is sanctioned, he should be granted the full allowance admissible for the higher class in which he is permitted to travel. Special concessions.

25. The rules in this sub-section apply to Government servants who cross a river or arm of the sea by steamer in the course of a journey, unless such crossing occurs during a railway journey and the charge for it is included in the railway fare. In the latter case, the crossing is treated as part of the railway journey. Crossing a river or arm of the sea.

26. If suitable accommodation on a Government vessel is offered to a Government servant, he is entitled to travelling allowance under rule 141 and not to mileage allowance. It is not open to him to refuse to accept such accommodation and to draw mileage allowance. Travelling by Government steamer.

Sub-section (iv).—Mileage allowance for journeys by road.

27. For the purpose of these rules, travelling by road includes travelling by sea or river in any vessel other than a steamer and travelling by canal. Definition of travelling by road.

28. (a) For journeys by road, mileage allowance is calculated at the following rates for each mile travelled :— Ordinary mileage rates.

A Government servant of the first grade—8 annas.
A Government servant of the second grade—4 annas.
A Government servant of the third grade—2 annas; and
A Government servant of the fourth grade—1 anna.

(b) When a Government servant travels within the territories administered by a local Government which has fixed special rates for Government servants under its administrative control, he must draw mileage allowance at the rate so fixed for his grade.

NOTE.—Road mileage is admissible to an officer performing journeys by motor car between places connected by rail, if any public interest is served by the road journey, which would not have been served had the officer travelled by rail, such as the savings of public time or inspection en route, etc. The necessity for such road journeys should be clearly set forth in the travelling allowance bill.

29. A competent authority may, for special reasons to be recorded, allow to a particular Government servant or class of Government servants mileage allowance at a higher rate than is prescribed in rule 28. Special concessions.

30. In calculating mileage allowance for journeys by road, fractions of a mile should be omitted from the total of a bill for any one journey but not from the various items which make up the bill. Treatment of fractions of a mile.

Section VI.—Daily allowance.

Definition.

31. A daily allowance is a uniform allowance for each day of absence from headquarters, which is intended to cover the ordinary daily charges incurred by a Government servant in consequence of such absence.

NOTE.—For absence from headquarters not exceeding 24 hours beginning and ending in different calendar days, a Government servant is restricted to one day's daily allowance, which may be exchanged for mileage, rail fare or steamer fare under the provision of rule 58.

General rule as to drawing of daily allowance.

32. Unless in any case it be otherwise expressly provided in these rules, a daily allowance may be drawn while on tour by every Government servant whose duties require that he should travel, and may not be drawn except while on tour.

Rates of daily allowance.

33. (a) Daily allowances are drawn on the following scale :—

(i) A Government servant of the first grade—Rs. 5.

(ii) A Government servant of the second grade—As. 4 for every Rs. 25 or fraction of Rs. 25 of his pay, subject to a maximum of Rs. 3.

(iii) A Government servant of the third grade—As. 2 for every Rs. 12½ or fraction of Rs. 12½ of his pay, subject to a minimum of As. 4.

(iv) A Government servant of the fourth grade—As. 3 if he travels in more than one province and As. 2 if he travels in one province only.

(b) When a Government servant travels within the territories administered by a local Government which has fixed special rates of daily allowance for Government servants under its administrative control, he must draw daily allowance at the rate so fixed for his grade.

NOTE.—Any individual Government servant who held, prior to the introduction of these rules, a post on progressive pay and was entitled to calculate his daily allowance on the maximum pay of such post, shall retain this privilege unless he is reduced to a lower post.

Special concessions.

34. A competent authority may, for reasons which should be recorded and on such conditions as it may think fit to impose, sanction for any Government servant or class of Government servants a daily allowance higher or lower than that prescribed in rule 33.

Section VII.—Actual expenses.

Actual expenses not admissible except under specific rule.

35. Unless in any case it be otherwise expressly provided in these rules, no Government servant is entitled to be provided with means of conveyance by or at the expense of Government, or to draw as travelling allowance the actual cost or part of the actual cost of travelling.

CHAPTER III.—Travelling Allowance admissible for different classes of journey.

Section VIII.—General.

Travelling allowance calculated with reference to the purpose of the journey.

36. The travelling allowance admissible to a Government servant for any journey is calculated with reference to the purpose of the journey in accordance with the rules laid down in sections IX to XX.

37. Unless in any case it be otherwise expressly provided in these rules, a Government servant making a journey for any purpose is not entitled to recover from Government the cost of transporting his family or his personal luggage, conveyances, tents and camp equipage.

Recovery of cost of transporting personal luggage etc.

Higher rates for journeys in expensive localities.

39. When a Government servant of a grade lower than the first grade is required by the order of a superior authority to travel by special means of conveyance, the cost of which exceeds the amount of the daily allowance or mileage allowance admissible to him under the ordinary rules, he may draw the actual cost of travelling in lieu of such daily or mileage allowance. The bill for the actual cost must be supported by a certificate, signed by the superior authority and countersigned by the controlling officer, that the use of the special means of conveyance was absolutely necessary and specifying the circumstances which rendered it necessary.

Journeys by special conveyance.

NOTE.—It is not intended that any general orders should be given or that any general practice should prevail allowing a certain class of officials actual expenses for all journeys performed. The fact that travelling in any particular locality is unusually expensive does not warrant the indiscriminate use of this rule.

40. A Government servant of the fourth grade, when travelling by steamer, may draw, in addition to mileage allowance, daily allowance at double the rate ordinarily admissible to him; provided that, whatever be the nature of other journeys which may be combined with the steamer journey, no further daily allowance may be drawn [illegible] any day for which this double allowance is drawn.

A Government servant of the fourth grade travelling by steamer.

Section IX.—Journey on Tour.

Sub-section (I).—General Rules.

41. The headquarters of a Government servant shall be in such place as a competent authority may prescribe.

Definition of headquarters.

42. A competent authority may define the limits of the sphere of duty of any Government servant.

Limits of sphere of duty.

43. A Government servant is on tour when absent on duty from his headquarters either within or, with proper sanction, beyond his sphere of duty. For the purposes of this section, a journey to a hill station is not treated as a journey on tour.

Definition of tour.

NOTE.—A Superintendent or Assistant Superintendent of Police is not held to be on tour when he visits a police-station unless—

(a) he travels not less than twenty miles in one day, or

(b) he is absent from his headquarters for two or more consecutive nights and visits two or more police-stations or posts.

This note applies only to visits paid to police-stations. It does not apply in the case of officers employed in investigating a case of dacoity, in looking after a bad character, or in other genuine police work, more than five miles from their headquarters.

44. In case of doubt a competent authority may decide whether a particular absence is absence on duty for the purpose of rule 43.

45. A competent authority may impose such restrictions as it may think fit upon the frequency and duration of journeys to be made on tour by any Government servant or class of Government servants.

Restrictions on the duration and frequency of tours.

Government servants who are not entitled to travelling allowance for journeys on tour.

46. If a competent authority declares that the pay of a particular Government servant or class of Government servants has been so fixed as to compensate for the cost of all journeys, other than journeys by rail or steamer, within the Government servant's sphere of duty, such a Government servant may draw no travelling allowance for such journeys. He may, however, draw mileage allowance, or, if he be in inferior service, travelling allowance under rule 60, for journeys by rail or steamer. When travelling on duty, with proper sanction, beyond his sphere of duty, he may draw travelling allowance calculated under the ordinary rules for the entire journey, including such part of it as is within his sphere of duty.

General principles on which travelling allowance is drawn for journeys on tour.

47. The travelling allowance drawn by a Government servant on tour ordinarily takes the shape of either permanent travelling allowance or daily allowance, if either of these is admissible to him. Permanent travelling allowance and daily allowance may, however, in certain circumstances be exchanged for mileage allowance or for the whole or part of the actual cost of travelling. In certain other circumstances actual cost may be drawn in addition to daily allowance or for journeys for which no daily allowance is admissible.

Carriage of tents supplied by Government.

48. (a) A competent authority may prescribe the scale of Government tents to be supplied to any Government servant or class of Government servants for office or, if it think fit, for personal use.

(b) When such tents are used by a Government servant on tour for office purposes only, they may be carried at Government expense.

When used partly for office and partly for private pu[illegible]poses, the Government servant must, except as provi[illegible] in rule 63, pay half the cost of carriage. When [illegible] wholly for private purposes, the Government ser[illegible] must, except as provided in rule 63, pay the entire cost [illegible] carriage.

Sub-section (II).—Government servants in receipt of permanent travelling allowance.

Actual expenses in addition to or in exchange for permanent travelling allowance.

49. A permanent travelling allowance is intended to cover the cost of all journeys within the sphere of duty of the Government servant who draws it, and such Government servant may not draw any other travelling allowance in place of, or in addition to, permanent travelling allowance for such journeys; provided that—

(1) A Government servant of the fourth grade and any other class of Government servants to which a competent authority may extend this concession may draw, in addition to permanent travelling allowance, single fare for a journey by rail, and

(2) a competent authority may, by general or special order, permit a Government servant whose sphere of duty extends beyond the limits of a single district to draw, in addition to permanent travelling allowance, whenever his actual travelling expenses for a duly authorised journey by public conveyance exceed double the amount of his permanent travelling allowance for the period occupied in such journey, the difference between such double permanent travelling allowance and the mileage allowance calculated for the journey.

50. When a Government servant in receipt of permanent travelling allowance travels on duty, with proper sanction, beyond his sphere of duty, he may draw mileage allowance for the entire journey, including such part of it as is within his sphere of duty, and may draw, in addition, permanent travelling allowance for any day of his absence for which he does not draw mileage allowance. This rule does not apply to a Government servant who travels beyond his sphere of duty in the course of a journey from one place within that sphere to another such place, or to a Government servant who makes, by road alone, a journey not exceeding 20 miles.

Mileage allowance in exchange for permanent travelling allowance.

Sub-section (iii).—Government servants not in receipt of permanent travelling allowance.

Sub-division 1.—Daily allowance.

51. Except where otherwise expressly provided in these rules, a Government servant not in receipt of permanent travelling allowance draws travelling allowance for journeys on tour in the shape of daily allowance.

General rule.

52. Daily allowance may not be drawn except during absence from headquarters on duty. A period of absence from headquarters begins when a Government servant actually leaves his headquarters and ends when he actually returns to the place in which his headquarters are situated, whether he halts there or not.

Drawn during absence from headquarters on duty.

53. Daily allowance may not be drawn for any day on which a Government servant does not reach a point outside a radius of five miles from his headquarters or return to his headquarters from a similar point, even though the distance travelled over may be more than five miles.

Distance to be travelled before daily allowance is admissible.

NOTE.—This rule applies to cases where the officer comes to a halt without reaching a distance exceeding five miles from headquarters. But it does not apply when the journey is continued without interruption to a point more than five miles distant from headquarters, even though at the expiration (midnight) of the day on which he started he has not yet reached such a point.

54. Subject to the conditions laid down in rules 55 and 56, daily allowance may be drawn during a halt on tour or on a holiday occurring during a tour.

Halts on tour.

NOTE.—Daily allowance is inadmissible unless the Government servant is actually, and not merely constructively, in camp, and also when he takes casual leave while on tour.

55. Daily allowance may not be drawn for a continuous halt of more than ten days at any one place; provided that a competent authority may grant general or individual exemptions from the operation of this rule, on such conditions as it thinks fit, if it is satisfied—

(a) that prolonged halts are necessary in the interests of the public service, and

(b) that such halts necessitate the maintenance of camp equipage or, where no camp equipage is maintained, continue, after the first ten days, to entail extra expense upon the halting Government servant.

56. For the purposes of rules 53, 54 and 55 :—

(a) After a continuous halt of ten days' duration, the halting place shall be regarded as the Government servant's temporary headquarters.

(b) A halt is continuous unless terminated by an absence on duty at a distance from the halting place exceeding five miles for a period including not less than three nights.

(c) In calculating the duration of a halt, any day on which the Government servant travels or halts at a distance from the halting place exceeding five miles shall be excluded. On such a day the Government servant may draw daily allowance or exchange it for mileage allowance if admissible.

Sub-division 2.—Mileage allowance and actual expenses in place of or in addition to daily allowance.

Exchange of daily allowance for mileage allowance during the whole period of a tour.

57. A competent authority may, by general or special order and on such condition as it thinks fit to impose, permit any Government servant or class of Government servants to draw mileage allowance instead of daily allowance for the whole period of any absence from headquarters, if it considers that the nature of the Government servant's duty is such that daily allowance is not sufficient to cover his travelling expenses.

Exchange of daily allowance for mileage allowance on particular journeys.

58. (a) Subject to any conditions which a competent authority may by general or special order impose, a Government servant in superior service may exchange his daily allowance for mileage allowance on any day on which—

(i) he travels by railway or steamer or both, or

(ii) he travels more than 20 miles by road;

provided that, if a continuous journey extend over more than one day, the exchange must be made for all such days and not for a part only of them.

NOTE.—Short journeys within a radius of five miles from headquarters may not be added to other journeys, when calculating the distance travelled by road or the amount of mileage allowance admissible for road journeys.

(b) When a journey by road is combined with a journey by railway or steamer under clause (a) (i) of this rule—

(i) Mileage allowance may be drawn on account of such combined journey, but mileage in respect of the road journey is limited to the amount of daily allowance unless the journey by road exceeds 20 miles, and

(ii) unless such journey by road be a journey to or from the Government servant's headquarters, mileage allowance shall be calculated on the distance actually travelled, without regard to the points fixed by or under rule 15.

59. Subject to any conditions which a competent authority may by general or special order impose, a non-gazetted ministerial or a menial Government servant may, for any day on which he travels by public or hired conveyance under a certificate from the head of his office that he is required to do so, exchange daily allowance for mileage allowance.

Travelling allowance admissible to a Government servant in inferior service.

60. The following conditions are applicable to a Government servant in inferior service:—

(a) For a journey by railway, he may draw mileage allowance in addition to daily allowance.

(b) For a journey by steamer, he may draw travelling allowance under rule 40.

(c) For a journey by road, he may exchange daily allowance for mileage allowance if the journey exceeds 20 miles or the condition of rule 59 is fulfilled.

(d) For a journey by road combined with a journey by railway or by steamer, he may draw mileage allowance, limited as in rule 58 (b) (i) except as provided in rule 59, for the road journey, in addition to the allowances admissible under clause (a) or (b) of this rule.

Actual expenses of maintaining camp during a sudden journey away from it.

61. A competent authority may permit any Government servant, who is compelled by a sudden emergency to leave his camp and travel rapidly on duty to a place more than 20 miles distant, to draw, in addition to mileage allowance, the actual cost of maintaining his camp, whether the camp be moved or not; provided that the amount of actual cost drawn shall not exceed the daily allowance of his grade.

Actual expenses on first and last journey of an extensive tour.

62. A Government servant entitled to daily allowance, whose sphere of duty extends over a whole province, may, when making a journey of more than 100 miles to the first or from the last camp of an extensive tour, recover, in lieu of the daily allowance admissible for the days occupied by such journey, the whole necessary cost of the journey, including the cost of transportation of camp equipment and of servants, horses, motor cars, motor cycles, bicycles and private baggage on such scale as a competent authority may prescribe.

Actual expenses of conveying camp equipment, etc.

63. (a) When a competent authority is satisfied that it is in the interests of the public service that a particular Government servant on tour should send his horses, camels, motor cars, motor cycles, bicyles and camp equipment by railway or steamer, or by country craft when no steamer service exist capable of conveying the goods or animals, or when such means of carriage is cheaper or more expeditious, it may by special order in each case, permit him to recover, in addition to mileage allowance or daily allowance or both, the actual cost or part of the actual cost of transporting them.

NOTE 1.—In the case of a motor car, the cost of transporting a chauffeur or cleaner, and for each horse the cost of transporting one syce and one grass-cutter may be drawn.

NOTE 2.—The term "motor cycle" in this rule includes a side-car.

NOTE 3.—The application of this rule is restricted to journeys on tour

NOTE 4.—Cost of carriage of bicycles by rail is admissible under this rule to officers on tour within a district when it is necessary for the officer to arrive at his destination ready equipped for a further journey.

NOTE 5.—This rule refers primarily to private motor cars. The cost of carriage of Government motor cars is contingent expenditure.

(b) A competent authority may by general or special order prescribe limitations on the weight of camp equipment and the number of conveyances and animals to be carried at Government expense under clause (a) of this rule by a particular Government servant or class of Government servants.

Government servants whose duties require them to travel constantly by railway.

64. (a) The following provisions are applicable to—

(i) officers and men of the railway police ;

(ii) any other Government servant or class of Government servants, whose duties involve constant travelling by railway, to whom a competent authority may declare them to be applicable.

(b) When such a Government servant makes a journey by railway on tour—

(i) He is entitled either to a free pass under the free pass rules of the railway or to the fares for himself and the servants and baggage accompanying him which a free pass would cover.

(ii) He may draw daily allowance for any day on which he is absent from his headquarters for more than eight consecutive hours.

(iii) He may not exchange for mileage allowance the allowances admissible under sub-clauses (i) and (ii) of this rule.

(iv) If he combines with a railway journey a journey by steamer or road, he may, if he travels to a place distant at least five miles from the point where he leaves the railway or returns to the railway from a place similarly distant, draw mileage allowance for the journey by steamer or road, in addition to daily allowance, if any, admissible under this rule or under rule 40; provided that the time spent on the journey by steamer or road shall be deducted in calculating the duration of his absence from his headquarters.

Sub-division (3).—Travelling allowance admissible for journeys and halts within five miles of headquarters.

Conveyance hire.

65. A competent authority may, by general or special order, permit any Government servant or class of Government servants to draw the actual cost of hiring a conveyance on a journey for which no travelling allowance is admissible under these rules.

NOTE.—When conveyance hire is granted under this rule, daily allowances under rule 54 is inadmissible.

Ferry charges, tolls and railway fare.

66. A Government servant travelling on duty within five miles of his headquarters is entitled to recover the actual amounts which he may spend in payment of ferry and other tolls and fares for journeys by railway or other public conveyance.

NOTE.—If an officer while halting at headquarters and drawing allowance under rule 67 makes a journey of five miles or less, returning the same day to headquarters, he may be granted allowances under both this rule and rule 67 subject to the restriction that the total sum received shall not exceed the daily allowance.

Actual expenses of maintaining camp equipage during a halt at headquarters.

67. On the following conditions and any other conditions which it may think fit to impose, a competent authority may, by general or special order, permit any Government servant or class of Government servants to recover the actual cost of maintaining camp equipage during a halt at headquarters or within five miles of headquarters or during the interval between the Government servant's departure from or arrival at headquarters and that of his camp equipage:—

(a) The amount drawn, together with any amounts recovered under rule 66, should not exceed the daily allowance of his grade.

(b) The period of the halt or interval for which it is granted should not exceed ten days. An absence on duty from the halting place for less than three nights should not be treated as interrupting the halt or interval.

(c) The Government servant must certify that he has maintained the whole or part of his camp equipage during the halt or interval and that the expense of maintenance has not been less than the amount drawn. In the case of a non-gazetted or a menial servant, the head of the office must certify that such maintenance was necessary.

NOTE.—The actual expense of keeping up camp equipage during halts at headquarters is the difference between the actual outlay incurred by an officer in maintaining the equipage during that time and the outlay he would incur if he could discharge it and had nothing to do with it till he wanted it again. Interest on capital outlay, and charges on account of depreciation and repairs as well as the upkeeping of horses, palkies, etc., used only for the conveyance of the officer on his marches, and the cost of maintaining private conveyances of any sort cannot be reckoned in "actual expenses" of keeping up camp equipage.

Sub-section (iv).—Special rules for high officials.

68. With the exception of the officers of his personal staff, the Governor of Bengal controls his own travelling expenses and those of his household. They are paid out of the contract allowance for household charges.

High officials travelling by reserved railway accommodation.

69. When a Government servant for whom special railway accommodation is provided or who is entitled, under these rules, to reserve railway accommodation by requisition, travels in such reserved accommodation on tour :—

(a) The entire cost of haulage is borne by Government.

(b) Unless it be otherwise expressly provided in this sub-section—

(i) the Government servant must pay the usual fares for any persons travelling with him in the reserved accommodation and, if Government pays full tariff rates for the reserved accommodation, such fares must be credited to Government ;

(ii) if the Government servant desires additional accommodation for his staff or luggage, he must make arrangements with the railway administration for the provision of such accommodation, the haulage and other charges being met at his expense or, in the case of His Excellency the Governor, from his contract allowance ;

(iii) unless otherwise specifically provided in these rules, the Government servant is entitled to draw no travelling allowance for the journey unless he be entitled to permanent travelling allowance.

70. A member of the executive council of the Governor, when travelling on tour, may recover the cost of carrying a motor car under the conditions specified in rule 63; provided that the Local Government is satisfied that the car has been employed, for all practical purposes, only as a means of performing, in the public interest, a journey off the line of railway. In cases where the presence of his car with the member has, apart from the advantages to Government of the particular tour or journey, saved him expense in hiring a conveyance or served his personal convenience to an appreciable extent he must pay one-fifth of the cost of carriage.

71. Members of the executive council of the Governor, and the President of the Bengal Legislative Council, when travelling by rail are entitled to a reserved first class carriage, to railway fares actually paid for not more than ten personal servants at lowest class rates, and to the conveyance of all their personal luggage at the public expense, whether taken in the luggage van of the train to which the reserved carriage is attached or sent by any other trains.

When travelling by road or steamer they are entitled to charge to Government their personal bond fide travelling expenses appending to their bills a certificate as follows:—

"I certify that I have actually paid the amount of this bill and that it does not include any charges for the freight of any stores or goods, other than my personal luggage, or any charge for refreshments, hotels or staging bungalows."

NOTE 1.—Stores taken for consumption on tour are treated as personal luggage.

NOTE 2.—See also Rule 70.

Members of the Bengal Legislative Council.

72. The following provisions govern the grant of travelling allowance to members of the Legislative Council who are required to leave their official headquarters or usual places of residence for the purpose of attending a meeting of the Council or transacting business connected with their duties as members:—

(1) No member may draw either mileage allowance or daily allowance unless he has to leave his official headquarters or usual place of residence for the purpose of attending meetings of the Council or transacting business connected with his duties as a member of Council.

NOTE.—Mileage allowance to a member will be paid from his usual place of residence, if within the province, or from the headquarters of his constituency, if his usual place of residence is outside the province.

(2) The expression "session" means the whole period of a legislative season, from the time when Council is assembled to the time when it is prorogued.

(3) A member of Council is entitled to allowances under this rule for attending either a meeting of the Council or a meeting of a committee of which he is a member.

(4) Mileage allowance and daily allowance are admissible if a member is summoned to attend—

(a) a meeting of the Council or of a committee, during the session, or

(b) a meeting of a committee out of session.

(5) If a member attends the first meeting of a session of the Council and stays throughout the session, as defined in clause 2, he may draw the daily allowance for the whole session:

Provided that such member has attended all meetings of the Council during such session, or in the case of absence from any meeting, has explained such absence to the satisfaction of the President.

(6) No member may draw mileage allowance and daily allowance for the same day.

(7) If a member attends a particular meeting of the Council or of a committee, arriving and leaving on the day of the meeting, he may draw mileage allowance, but not daily allowance.

(8) If a member does not arrive or leave on the day of the meeting, he will be considered to arrive on the day before the meeting, and to leave the day after the meeting even if, as a matter of fact, he arrives some days before or leaves some days after. He will, therefore, be entitled to mileage allowance for the day before and the day after the meeting and to daily allowance for the day of the meeting only, and not for any other days during which he may reside in the place where the Council or committee is sitting before or after the meeting:

Provided that in the case of adjournments, which do not extend to more than a seven days' interval, a mufassal member may elect to stay in the place where the Council or committee is sitting for the intervening period and may, for that period, draw daily allowance instead of mileage allowance to his headquarters and back.

(9) Daily allowance may not be drawn for any day after—

(a) the close of the session, or

(b) the completion of the business for which a member is summoned out of session.

(10) The allowances admissible under this rule are mileage allowance at the rates admissible to a Government servant of the first grade, and daily allowance of Rs. 10.

73. A member of the Bengal Legislative Council being a Government servant in receipt of permanent travelling allowance, will not be entitled to the allowances specified in rule 72 unless he leaves his sphere of duty to attend the Council or to transact business in connection with his duties as a member. When he so leaves his sphere of duty, he may draw travelling allowance as prescribed in rule 72; provided that such sum as may represent the amount of his permanent travelling allowance for the period of absence, calculated at a proportionate daily rate, shall be deducted from his mileage and daily allowance.

74. Except where otherwise expressly provided in these rules, the amount of luggage which may be transported, free of cost, by a Government servant travelling in reserved accommodation is the amount covered by the number of tickets which a member of the public would have to purchase in order to reserve such accommodation

Amount of luggage admissible.

Section X.—Journey of a newly-appointed Government servant to join his first post.

75. Except as otherwise provided in this section, travelling allowance is not admissible to any person for the journey to join his first post in Government service.

General rule.

76. A competent authority may, by general or special order, permit any person, whether appointed to a temporary or a permanent post, to draw travelling allowance for the journey to join his first post in Government service.

Exception.

NOTE.—The following concessions are admissible for the journey of the families, including children, one wife and one relative of the men of the Military Police belonging to races foreign to Dacca and recruited outside the Province, if quarters are available in the Police lines, subject to the condition that the percentages mentioned in clauses (b) and (c) below must be reckoned on the number of foreigners only :—

(a) Native officers.—3rd class passage by rail, deck passage by steamer on payment of one-third of the passage-money or fare.

(b) 20 per cent. of the Non-commissioned officers of each Battalion—third class passage by rail, deck passage by steamer, free of charge.

(c) 5 per cent. of the Privates of each Battalion—3rd class passage by rail or deck passage by steamer, free of charge.

(d) Return passage to their homes of the families of such men dying in Dacca or other places where the force is stationed at the time.

77. When a pensioner, or a Government servant who has been thrown out of employment owing to a reduction of establishment or the abolition of his post, is reappointed to Government service, the authority which sanctions his reappointment may permit him to draw travelling allowance for so much of his journey to join his new post as falls within India.

Concession to persons re-employed in Government service.

Concession to persons joining by sea.

78. When a person is appointed to a post in Government service which he cannot join except by sea, a competent authority may grant him a free passage by sea.

Concession to members of the executive council of the Governor.

79. When a person not already in Government service is appointed to be a member of the executive council of the Governor, he is entitled, when travelling by railway to join his post, to the concession described in rule 86.

Concession to persons appointed in Europe.

80. Any person appointed, while resident in Europe, by the Secretary of State in Council to Government service in India, other than a person whose case is covered by rules made by the Secretary of State in Council under sections 85 and 104 of the Act, may draw mileage allowance for the journey to join his first post from any port in India at which, with the permission of the Secretary of State, he may disembark.

Rates of travelling allowance under this section.

81. Travelling allowance under rules 76 and 77 should be calculated as for a journey on tour, but no allowance may be drawn for halts on the journeys.

82. When mileage allowance is drawn under rules 76, 77 and 80 the rate admissible is that of the grade to which the Government servant will belong after joining his post.

Section XI.—Journeys on transfer.

General conditions of admissibility.

83. Travelling allowance may not be drawn under this section by a Government servant on transfer from one station to another unless he is transferred for the public convenience and is entitled to pay during the period occupied by the journey. A transfer at his own request or in consequence of misconduct should not be treated as a transfer for the public convenience unless the authority sanctioning the transfer, for special reasons which should be recorded, otherwise direct.

General rule.

84. A Government servant may draw mileage allowance for a journey on transfer, including transfer from military to civil employ.

Special concessions to Government servants in superior service.

85. (a) Unless in any case it be otherwise expressly provided in these rules or in rules made under other sections of the Act, a Government servant in superior service is entitled, for a journey on transfer, to the following concessions :—

I.—For journeys by rail or steamer.

(i) He may draw one extra fare of the class to which his grade entitles him.

(ii) He may draw one extra fare for each adult member of his family who accompanies him and for whom full fare is actually paid and one-half fare for each child for whom such fare is actually paid.

(iii) He may draw the actual cost of transporting by goods train, steamer or other craft personal effects up to the following maxima ;—

Grade of Government servant.		If travelling alone.	If accompanied by family.
		Mds.	Mds.
First	...	40	60
Second	...	20	30
Third	...	12	15

Provided that a competent authority may prescribe lower maxima in the case of any specified class of Government servants.

NOTE 1.—If a Government servant carries his personal effects by passenger, instead of by goods train, he may draw the actual cost of carriage up to a limit of the amount which would have been admissible had he taken the maximum number of maunds by goods train.

NOTE 2.—If a Government servant carries his personal effects by road between stations connected by rail or steamer he may draw actual expenses up to the limit of goods train or steamer freight.

(iv) Provided that—

(1) the distance travelled exceeds 80 miles;

(2) the Government servant is travelling to join a post in which the possession of a conveyance or horse is advantageous from the point of view of his efficiency; and

(3) conveyances or horses are actually carried by rail, steamer or other craft;—

he may draw the actual cost of transporting at owner's risk conveyances and horses on the following scale:—

Grade of Government servant.	Scale allowed.
First	Two horses, and a carriage or motor car or motor cycle.
Second	One horse, and a carriage or motor cycle.
Third	One horse or a motor cycle or ordinary cycle.

NOTE.—In the case of a motor car the cost of transporting a chauffeur or cleaner, and for each horse the cost of transporting one syce and one grass-cutter may be drawn.

Exception.—A Government servant who travels by a Government steamer is not entitled, for the journey by steamer, either to mileage allowance under rule 84 or to the concessions allowed by this clause. He is entitled to free transport of himself, his family, servants and their bona fide personal effects, and of conveyances and horses subject to the limits prescribed in sub-clause (iv); and may draw in addition the daily allowance of his grade.

II.—For a journey by road.

(i) He may draw one extra mileage allowance at the rate to which his grade entitles him.

(ii) He may draw a second extra mileage allowance if two members of his family accompany him and a third if more than two members accompany him.

(iii) For the transportation of personal effects within the limits prescribed in sub-clause I (iii) of this clause, he may draw mileage allowance at a rate to be fixed by a competent authority. This rate will be calculated on the average cost of conveying goods by the cheapest method of conveyance.

(b) The following explanations are given of terms employed in clause (a) of this rule:—

(i) The term "personal effects" is not subject to definition, but the controlling officer must satisfy himself that a claim to reimbursement on account of their transportation is reasonable.

(ii) The term "motor cycle" includes a side-car.

(iii) A member of a Government servant's family who follows him within six months from the date of his transfer or precedes him by not more than one month may be treated as accompanying him. If such member travels to the new station from a place other than the Government servant's old station, the Government servant may draw either the actual fare for the journey made or the fare admissible for the journey from the old to the new station, whichever is less.

(c) Tents supplied by Government are transported at the expense of Government. Tents purchased and maintained by a Government servant himself may be transported at the expense of Government; provided that they do not exceed a scale to be prescribed in this behalf by a competent authority as suitable to a particular Government servant or class of Government servants. If they exceed this scale, the excess may be treated as a part of personal effects.

(d) A Government servant who claims higher travelling allowance on the ground that members of his family accompanied him on transfer must support his claim by a certificate showing the numbers and relationship of the said members.

(e) A Government servant claiming the cost of transporting personal effects, a conveyance or a horse, must support his claim by a certificate that the actual expense incurred was not less than the sum claimed. Such a certificate must give details of the conveyances or horses transported.

Transfer to join the post of member of the executive council of the Governor or a Judge of the High Court.

86. When a Government servant, appointed to be a member of the executive council of the Governor or a judge of the High Court, travels by railway to join his post, he may, at his option, travel on the following terms, in lieu of drawing travelling allowance under the ordinary rules governing a journey on transfer:—

(a) Any accommodation which he will be entitled, under section XXI of these rules, to reserve by requisition after joining his post will, if practicable, be placed at his disposal.

(b) The charge for haulage of the reserved accommodation will be paid by Government.

(c) The Government servant must pay to Government the fare which he would have paid if no accommodation had been reserved, and must, in addition, pay in cash to the station master of the station from which the journey commences full fares for any members of his family accompanying him, whether they share his reserved accommodation or not. When Government pays full tariff rates for the accommodation, all such fares will be credited to Government.

Government servants whose duties involve constant travelling by railway.

87. The Government servants specified in rule 64 may draw travelling allowance under that rule for journeys on transfer within the limits of the railway to which they are attached, and are entitled, in addition, to a free pass or fares for their families; provided that they must not draw daily allowance for halts in the course of the journey unless such halts are made in connection with their duty.

When transferred from one railway to another, they are entitled to travelling allowance under rules 83 to 85.

Concession to jail warders and police constables.

88. Jail warders in inferior service, when transferred from one jail to another, and police constables in inferior service when transferred from one district to another are entitled, if accompanied by their families, to mileage allowance at the following special rates :—

(a) For a journey by railway or steamer, double fare of the lowest class.

(b) For a journey by road, two annas for each mile travelled.

(c) For a journey by boat, one anna for each mile travelled.

(d) Men of the Military Police in inferior service, when proceeding to or returning from outpost duty are allowed free passage by rail, river and road for their families. In the case of journeys by road, where carts cannot be used the cost of one cooly for wife and one cooly for children may be allowed.

Inferior servants.

89. Except as provided in rule 88, a Government servant in inferior service is entitled on transfer to draw travelling allowance as for a journey on tour.

Government servant appointed to a new post while in transit.

90. A Government servant appointed to a new post while in transit from one post to another is entitled to draw travelling allowance under this section for so much of the journey on transfer as he has accomplished when he receives the fresh orders and for the journey from the place at which he receives such orders to his new station.

Government servant taking short leave before joining a new post.

91. A Government servant who takes leave, not exceeding four months, after he has given over charge of his old post and before he has taken charge of his new post is entitled, whether the order of transfer is received before or after the commencement of his leave, to travelling allowance under this section.

Government servant taking long leave while in transit.

92. A Government servant who takes leave exceeding four months while in transit from one post to another may draw travelling allowance under rule 85(a), I (i) and (ii) and II (i) and (ii) for so much of the journey to join the new post as he has accomplished before the order granting his leave is received, in addition to any allowance admissible under rule 93.

Government servant posted to a new station on return from long leave.

93. When on return from leave exceeding four months a Government servant is posted to a station other than that at which he was posted when he went on leave, the controlling officer may permit him to recover the travelling allowance admissible, under sub-clauses I (iii) and (iv) and II (iii) of rule 85 (a), for a journey from his old to his new station.

Section XII.—Journey to a hill station.

94. Special rules, which are not included in these rules, govern the grant of travelling allowance to Government servants moving to hill stations with the headquarters of a Government.

Journey made under the orders of superior authority.

95. A Government servant, other than a Government servant moving with the headquarters of a Government, who travels on duty to a hill station within his sphere of duty or is required by the orders of a superior authority to travel to a hill station on duty, may draw travelling allowance during his absence as for a journey on tour. Such a Government servant will, however, forfeit all claim to travelling allowance for the journey and halt, other than permanent travelling allowance, if he prolongs his stay at the hill station beyond a period of ten days or the period necessary for the performance of the duty on which the journey is made, whichever is less; provided that a a competent authority may preserve the Government servant's claim to travelling allowance by—

(a) sanctioning a halt in excess of ten days, or

(b) officially intimating that his presence was required on duty throughout the period or that he was permitted to extend his stay during holidays immediately following his period of duty.

A Government servant performing his duties at a hill station for his own convenience.

96. When a Government servant is permitted for his own convenience to perform his duties at a hill station, he is not entitled to daily allowance or mileage allowance for the journey to or from such station or for the period during which he halts at it.

Section XIII.—Journey to attend an examination.

General rules.

97. A Government servant is entitled to draw travelling allowance for the journey to and from the place at which he appears for an examination of any of the following kinds:—

(a) An obligatory departmental or language examination.

(b) An examination held under any rules in force in the vernacular language of a frontier, or hill tribe.

(c) In the case of a military officer in civil employ, an examination for promotion in military rank.

(d) In the case of a civil assistant surgeon or sub-assistant surgeon, an examination designed to test his fitness to rise above an efficiency bar in a time-scale.

Provided that—

(1) travelling allowance shall not be drawn under this rule more than twice for any particular examination or standard of examination; and

(2) a competent authority may disallow travelling allowance under this rule to any candidate who in its opinion—

(i) has culpably neglected the duty of preparing himself for an obligatory examination, or

(ii) does not display a reasonable standard of proficiency in an examination which is not obligatory.

Government servants obtaining a reward for proficiency in an oriental language.

98. A Government servant who obtains a reward for proficiency in an oriental language or who for the first time obtains a degree of honour in any language is entitled to draw mileage allowance for the journey to and from the place of examination.

Special concessions.

99. A competent authority may permit a Government servant to draw travelling allowance for the journey to and from the place at which he appears for any examination other than those specified in rules 97 and 98.

Rates of travelling allowance under this section.

100. Travelling allowance under rules 97 and 99 should be calculated as for a journey on tour, but no allowance may be drawn for halts on the journeys.

Section XIV.—Journey when proceeding on or returning from leave.

101. Except as otherwise provided in these rules, a Government servant is not entitled to any travelling allowance for a journey made during leave or while proceeding on or returning from leave. General rule.

102. A competent authority may, for special reasons which should be recorded, permit any Government servant to draw, for a journey of the kind specified in rule 101, travelling allowance as for a journey on tour. Exception.

103. When a member of the executive council of the Governor or a judge of the High Court travels by railway when proceeding on or returning from leave, he may travel on the terms described in rule 86. High officials.

NOTE.—The long vacation allowed to the judges of the High Court may be considered as leave in the case of judges proceeding to or returning from Europe or the Colonies.

104. A military officer in civil employ, when proceeding to the United Kingdom on leave on medical certificate or returning therefrom, is entitled to the same concessions which he would receive in military employ; provided that he is not entitled to a certificate in military form E, which gives him the right to travel in a class of railway carriage higher than that for which he pays the fare. Concessions to military officers in civil employ.

105. Subject to the proviso in rule 104, a military sub-assistant surgeon in civil employ, when proceeding on or returning from leave of not less than six months' duration, is entitled to the same concessions which he would receive if he were in military employ.

106. A military officer in civil employ, being a departmental or warrant officer, when proceeding on or returning from leave on medical certificate, is entitled to the same concessions which he would receive in military employ.

107. Non-commissioned officers and men of the Military Police taking leave other than leave on full average salary not exceeding 4 months are entitled to free passage by river and rail to and from their homes.

108. A competent authority may exercise the following powers:— Concessions to Survey subordinates.

(a) He may grant such rail and steamer fares as he considers necessary to khalasis and other menials proceeding on or returning from leave of any kind. Such fares should be paid for the journey to or from the place at which each menial was recruited.

(b) He may grant such travelling allowance as he considers necessary to subordinates when proceeding on or returning from leave if their homes are situated in provinces other than those in which they are employed.

109. (a) When a Government servant is compulsorily recalled to duty before the expiry of his leave and the leave is thereby curtailed by not less than one month, he is entitled to draw mileage allowance for the journey from the place at which the order of recall reaches him or, if the journey involves travelling by sea, from the port at which he lands in India, to the station to which he is recalled. If the period by which the leave is curtailed is less than a month, mileage allowance may be allowed at the discretion of the authority recalling the Government servant. Government servant recalled to duty from leave.

(b) If the Government servant recalled to duty is entitled to travelling allowance under rule 91, he may not draw mileage allowance under clause (a) unless he abandons his claims to the mileage allowance specified in rules 84 and 85 (a) I (i) and II (i).

110. If a non-gazetted Government servant, on compulsory recall from leave exceeding four months, is posted to a station other than that from which he went on leave, he may, if his pay after transfer does not exceed Rs 100 and if his new station is distant more than 50 miles from his old station, draw, in addition to the allowance admissible under rule 93, travelling allowance for his family under rule 85 for the journey from the place at which the order of recall reaches him to the new station; provided that the amount so drawn shall not exceed the amount admissible under rule 85 for the journey from the old to the new station.

Travelling allowance during joining time under fundamental rule 105 (d).

111. A Government servant on joining time under fundamental rule 105 (d) may draw travelling allowance for the journey as for a journey on transfer.

Section XV.—Journey on retirement, dismissal or termination of employment.

General restrictions.

112. Unless in any case it be otherwise expressly provided in this section, no person is entitled to any travelling allowance for a journey made after retirement or dismissal from Government service or after the termination of such service.

NOTE.—Men of the Military Police are entitled to free passage by steamer or rail to their homes, when they are retiring on Invalid Pension, but not when retiring on Retiring or Superannuation Pension.

Exception.

113. A competent authority may, for special reasons which should be recorded, permit any Government servant to draw travelling allowance for a journey of the kind mentioned in rule 112.

Concessions to high officials.

114. When a member of the executive council of the Governor or a Judge of the High Court travels by railway on retiring from the service or on proceeding to join another post after resigning office, he is entitled, if he so desire to the concession described in rule 86.

Concessions to Survey subordinates.

115. A competent authority may grant such rail and steamer fares as he considers necessary to a discharged khalasi or other menial for the journey to the place at which the menial was enlisted.

Concessions to military officers in civil employ.

116. A military officer in civil employ, being a departmental or a warrant officer, on retirement after service which has earned a pension or gratuity, is entitled to the same right as regards a free passage as if he were retiring from military employ.

Concessions to Government servants temporarily employed.

117. A person temporarily employed in Government service who has received travelling allowance for the journey to join his post, may, on the termination of his employment, be allowed to draw travelling allowance for the journey to any place; provided that such allowance does not exceed the travelling allowance calculated for the journey to the place at which he was engaged, that the claim to draw travelling allowance is preferred within three months of the termination of his employment and that the officer under whom he is employed is satisfied that he intends to make the journey.

Rates of travelling allowance under this section.

118. Travelling allowance under rules 113 and 117 should be calculated as for a journey on tour, but no allowance may be drawn for halts on the journeys.

Section XVI.—Journey to give evidence.

119. The following provisions apply to a Government servant who is summoned to give evidence in British India—

Journey to give evidence of facts of which he has official knowledge.

(a) in a criminal case, a case before a court-martial, a civil case to which Government is a party or a departmental inquiry held by a properly constituted authority in British India, or

(b) before a court in an Indian state or in foreign territory;

provided that the facts as to which he is to give evidence have come to his knowledge in the discharge of his public duties:—

(i) He may draw travelling allowance as for a journey on tour, attaching to his bill a certificate of attendance given by the court or other authority which summoned him.

(ii) When he draws such travelling allowance, he may not accept any payment of his expenses from the court or authority. Any fees which may be deposited in the court for the travelling and subsistence allowance of the witness must be credited to Government.

(iii) If the court in which he gives evidence is situated within five miles of his headquarters and no travelling allowance is therefore admissible for the journey, he may, if he be not in receipt of permanent travelling allowance, accept such payment of actual travelling expenses as the court may make.

NOTE.—A Government servant summoned to give evidence while on leave or under suspension is entitled to the concessions described in this rule.

120. A Government servant summoned to give evidence in circumstances other than those described in rule 119 is not entitled, by reason of his position as a Government servant, to any payments other than those admissible by the rules of the court. If the court pays him any sum as subsistence allowance or compensation, apart from payment for travelling expenses, he must credit that sum to Government before drawing full pay for the day or days of absence.

Other cases

Section XVII.—Journey to obtain medical advice.

121. If in order to obtain medical advice, a Government servant is compelled to leave a station at which he is posted and at which there is no medical officer of Government and travel to another station, he may, on production of a certificate from the medical officer consulted that the journey was, in his opinion, absolutely necessary, draw travelling allowance for the journey.

General rule

122. If a Government servant is compelled to travel to another station in order to obtain a medical certificate in support of his application for leave, he may draw travelling allowance for the journey; but he may not draw travelling allowance for a journey to obtain the countersignature of a medical officer of Government on such a certificate.

Journey to obtain medical certificate.

NOTE.—Travelling allowance is not admissible for a journey to procure a health certificate on first appointment to Government service.

Previous permission necessary if obtainable.

123. The journeys contemplated by rules 121 and 122 should not be undertaken without the previous permission of the controlling officer, if such permission can be obtained without risk to the Government servant requiring medical advice.

Probationary chaplains.

124. A probationary chaplain who is compelled to make a journey in order to obtain from a medical board the health certificate which he must produce before confirmation in Government service may draw travelling allowance for the journey.

Journey to appear before a medical board preliminary to retirement.

125. (a) A Government servant who is directed by his official superior, in the interests of the public service, to apply for an invalid pension may, if he be required to make a journey in order to appear before a medical board, draw his actual travelling expenses, subject to a maximum of the amount of travelling allowance calculated for the journey. If it be necessary for him to return to his headquarters after appearing before the medical board, he may draw his actual expenses subject to the same maximum. In both cases his travelling allowance bill must be supported by a certificate that he was directed to apply for an invalid pension in the interests of the public service and that he did not voluntarily ask to retire.

(b) A competent authority may allow actual expenses, as limited by clause (a) of this rule, to be drawn by a Government servant who voluntarily applies for an invalid pension; provided that the authority is satisfied that the circumstances of the applicant are such as to justify the concession.

Journey to appear before a medical board in other circumstances.

126. Except as provided in rules 124 and 125, no travelling allowance is admissible for a journey undertaken in order to appear before a medical board.

Rates of travelling allowance under this section.

127. Travelling allowance under rules 121, 122, 124 and 125 (a) should be calculated as for a journey on tour, but no allowance may be drawn for halts on the journeys.

Section XVIII.—Journey in attendance on an incapacitated Government servant.

128. If a Government servant, under the advice of a civil surgeon or other medical officer of Government whose duty it is to attend him professionally, is required to travel to a presidency town or elsewhere, either when proceeding on leave or in order to obtain further medical advice, and the medical officer considers that it would be unsafe for him to make the journey unattended, the medical officer may either himself accompany the patient to his destination or arrange that some other person shall do so. In that case, the attendant, if a Government servant, shall be deemed to have been travelling on duty and may draw travelling allowance for the outward and return journey as for a journey on tour; if not a Government servant, he shall be entitled to actual expenses.

Section XIX.—Journey on a course of training.

129. When a Government servant or a student not already in Government service is selected to undergo a course of training, a competent authority may decide the scale, if any, on which he shall draw—

(a) travelling allowance for the original journey to and the last journey from the place of training, and for halts at such place;

(b) in the case of training at a school, college or similar institution, travelling allowance for similar journeys on the occasion of holidays and vacations; and

(c) travelling allowance for journeys during the course of training;

provided that the scale so fixed shall not exceed that admissible to Government servants of similar status on duty at the place of training.

Section XX.—Journey to attend a darbar or levee.

130. A Government servant who is permitted to attend a darbar or a levée elsewhere than at his head-quarters may draw travelling allowance for the journey as for a journey on tour.

CHAPTER IV—Travelling Allowance Admissible when means of Transport are supplied without cost to the Government servant travelling.

Section XXI.—Supply of free accommodation on railway journeys.

Reservation of first class compartments.

131. The member of the Board of Revenue when travelling on duty within his sphere of duty is entitled—

(1) when travelling by railway to a reserved first class compartment to be obtained by requisition and to fares (if actually paid) for four servants at lowest class rates;

(2) when travelling by steamer to a reserved cabin (if one is available) and to fares (if actually paid) for four servants at lowest class rates subject to the usual deduction on account of messing charges.

(3) when travelling by road to a mileage of eight annas.

132. A judge of the High Court when travelling on duty is entitled—

(1) when travelling by railway to a reserved first class compartment and to fares (if actually paid) for four servants at lowest class rates;

(2) when travelling by steamer to a reserved cabin (if one is available) and to fares (if actually paid) for four servants at lowest class rates subject to the usual deductions on account of messing charges, and

(3) when travelling by road to a mileage of one rupee.

He is also entitled to draw daily allowances for each day on which he has been engaged in inspection work.

Procedure of requisition.

133. The procedure to be followed in submitting a requisition for reserved accommodation shall be such as may be prescribed by the Railway Board.

Effect of requisition of a carriage.

134. When a Government servant travels in a carriage reserved by requisition, the carriage is entirely at his disposal and may be detached and detained at any railway station at his request.

Free passes.

135. The issue of free passes for journeys by railway is regulated by rules made in this behalf by the Railway Board.

Section XXII.—Travelling allowance admissible when the whole or part of the means of conveyance is supplied without charge.

Sub-section (I).—Journeys by railway.

Journeys made by railway in accommodation reserved by requisition.

136. The travelling allowance admissible to a Government servant who makes a journey by railway in accommodation reserved by requisition is prescribed in sub-section (iv) of section IX and elsewhere in these rules.

Free transit by railway otherwise than in accommodation reserved by requisition.

137. When a Government servant is entitled to or is allowed free transit by railway otherwise than in accommodation reserved by requisition, whether on a free pass or otherwise, the mileage allowance which he draws for the journey must be reduced by the amount of the fare which, but for such free transit, he would have paid. This rule applies to cases in which a free pass is issued on any railway, whether worked by Government or not. The reduction made must include the full number of fares covered by the pass, unless the Government servant certifies that he did not use the pass in respect of any fare or fares for which no reduction is made.

NOTE.—The circumstances under which a free pass may be given are irrelevant and it is immaterial whether it is held by an officer in his official capacity or not.

Government servant in receipt of permanent travelling allowance.

138. When a Government servant in receipt of permanent travelling allowance uses a free pass on a railway or a company's steamer within his sphere of duty, he must deduct from his permanent travelling allowance for the month the amount of the railway or steamer fares which he would have paid if he had not travelled on a pass.

Government servant entitled to travel in a higher class on payment of a lower fare.

139. When a Government servant is permitted to travel by railway in a higher class on payment of a lower fare, his mileage allowance must be reduced by the amount by which the fare of the class in which he travels exceeds the fare actually paid.

Government servant travelling with a free pass on an unopened line of railway.

140. A Government servant travelling with a free pass on an unopened line of railway is entitled to the travelling allowance prescribed in rule 143 as limited by rule 145.

Sub-section (II).—Journeys by sea or river in a steamer.

Journey by Government vessel.

141. When a Government servant travels by sea or river, otherwise than on payment of passage money, in a steamer the cost of which is paid by Government or by a local fund, he may draw no travelling allowance except the daily allowance of his grade; provided that, when his servants and luggage are not conveyed on the vessel but are sent separately at his expense, he may draw in addition the actual cost of transporting them.

142. When a Government servant is allowed free transit by steamer, otherwise than in a Government vessel, the mileage allowance which he draws for the journey must be reduced by the amount of the fare which, but for such free transit, he would have paid. If he travels on a free pass, the reduction made must include the full number of fares covered by the pass, unless the Government servant certifies that he did not use the pass in respect of any fare or fares for which no reduction is made.

Sub-section (iii).—Other journeys.

143. Except where otherwise expressly provided in this section, when, on a journey other than a journey by railway or by steamer, a Government servant uses a means of locomotion provided at the expense of Government, a local fund or an Indian State, and does not pay the cost of its use or propulsion, he is entitled to travelling allowance as follows :— Free transit by boat, road, etc.

(a) If he has not to provide separate conveyance at his own expense for his servants or luggage, he may draw the daily allowance of his grade and may not exchange it for mileage allowance. If, however, part of the journey is made by other means of locomotion, he may at his option draw in lieu of daily allowance the mileage allowance admissible for that part.

(b) If he has to provide separate conveyance at his own expense for his servants or luggage, he may, if the conditions of rule 58 or 59 are fulfilled, exchange his daily allowance for half the mileage allowance calculated for the journey and draw in addition the mileage allowance admissible for any part of the journey made by other means of locomotion.

144. When a Government servant is provided with means of locomotion as in rule 143, but pays all the cost of its use or propulsion, he may draw travelling allowance under the ordinary rules, subject to the deduction of such fixed hire or charge as a competent authority may fix. When the Government servant pays the cost of propulsion.

145. The provisions of rules 143 and 144 do not apply to a Government servant of the fourth grade or to any other Government servant or class of Government servants to whom a competent authority may declare them to be inapplicable. Exceptions.

146. A Government servant, who travels by a motor car which has been supplied to him at the expense of Government on the condition that he himself bears the ordinary cost of maintenance, may draw travelling allowance as for a journey on tour, but the amount of the mileage allowance which he may draw is limited by the following conditions :— Journeys by Government motor car.

(a) If he travels by the motor car more than 20 miles in one day, he may draw for the first 20 miles the mileage allowance of his grade and for the remainder of the journey three-fourths of such mileage allowance.

(b) If he combines with a journey by the motor car a road journey by other conveyance, he may draw the mileage allowance admissible for the first 20 miles or for the journey by other conveyance, whichever is greater, and for the remainder of the journey three-fourths of such mileage allowance.

(c) If he combines with a journey by road, whether made wholly or partly in the motor car, a journey by railway or steamer, he may draw mileage allowance for the journey by railway or steamer in addition to the allowances admissible under clause (a) and (b) of this rule for the journey by road.

147. The chauffeur of a motor car supplied at the expense of Government, when making a journey by road on the motor car in his charge, may draw travelling allowance Chauffeurs of Government motor cars.

under the provisions of rule 143 (a) if the journey involves an absence of at least one night from his headquarters. For a journey which does not involve such an absence he is entitled to no travelling allowance.

CHAPTER V.—Grant of travelling allowance to persons who are not in the Civil Service of the Crown.

Section XXXIII.—Government servants in military employ.

General rule.

148. Except as provided in rule 149, the travelling allowance admissible to Government servants in military employ is governed by military regulations.

Military officers invited to attend a darbar or levee.

149. When a commissioned Indian military officer of the regular forces, the military police or the militia, whether on the active or the retired list, is invited to attend a darbar or levée at a place other than that at which he is stationed or has his residence, a competent authority may grant him travelling allowance for the journey subject to the following limits:—

(a) For the journey from his station or place of residence to the place at which the darbar or levée is held and thence back to his starting point, single railway and steamer fares actually paid, and actual travelling expenses for journeys by road subject to the maximum admissible to a Government servant of the first grade.

(b) For halts at the place at which the darbar or levée is held, a daily allowance of Rs. 3.

Section XXIV.—Other persons.

Honorary Magistrates.

150. An honorary magistrate, not being a Government servant, may, when employed on Government work under the orders of a district magistrate or subdivisional officer at a distance exceeding five miles from his headquarters, or when the bench which he attends is situated at a similar distance from his residence, draw for journeys by railway double second class fare and for journeys by road annas four for each mile travelled. During halts when similarly employed, he may draw daily allowance of Rs. 3 subject to the conditions applicable to halts of Government servants on tour.

Persons attending commissions of enquiry, etc.

151. (a) When any person, not being a Government servant, is required to attend any meeting of a commission of inquiry or of a board, conference, committee or departmental inquiry convened under proper authority, or is required to perform any public duties in an honorary capacity, a competent authority may grant him travelling allowance for the journey calculated under the ordinary rules for the journey of a Government servant on tour, and for this purpose may declare, by general or special order, the grade to which such person shall be considered to belong.

(b) In a case of the kind contemplated by clause (a) of this rule, a competent authority may, in its discretion, grant to the person concerned his actual travelling, hotel and carriage expenses instead of travelling allowance under that clause.

(c) A competent authority may delegate the power conferred upon it by clause (a) of this rule to the Government servant presiding over the meeting of the commission or other body which the person concerned is required to attend.

CHAPTER VI.—Controlling Officers.

Section XXV.—Signature on travelling allowance bills.

152. A competent authority shall declare what authority shall be the controlling officer, for travelling allowance purposes, of each Government servant or class of Government servants. It may, if it think fit, declare that any particular Government servant shall be his own controlling officer.

Controlling officer to be declared by competent authority

153. Except as provided in rule 154, no bill for travelling allowance, other than permanent travelling allowance, shall be paid unless it be signed or countersigned by the controlling officer of the Government servant who present it.

Signature of controlling officer necessary on a travelling allowance bill.

154. The following classes of Government servants may present bills for travelling allowance without the countersignature of the controlling officer :—

Exceptions.

(a) Chaplains ; provided that the bill is accompanied by the order authorising the journey, of—
  (i) the Bishop or Commissary of the diocese, in the case of a chaplain of the Church of England, or
  (ii) the Presidency Senior Chaplain in the case of a chaplain of the Church of Scotland.

(b) Non-gazetted Government servants; provided that detailed and countersigned bills are subsequently submitted to the audit officer for adjustment.

155. Except where expressly permitted by a competent authority, a controlling officer may not delegate to a subordinate his duty of countersignature.

Delegation of duty of countersignature.

Section XXVI.—Duties and powers.

156. It is the duty of a controlling officer, before signing or countersigning a travelling allowance bill :—

(a) to scrutinise the necessity, frequency and duration of journeys and halts for which travelling allowance is claimed, and to disallow the whole or any part of the travelling allowance claimed for any journey or halt if he considers that a journey was unnecessary or unduly protracted or that a halt was of excessive duration ;

(b) to scrutinise carefully the distances entered in travelling allowance bills ;

(c) to satisfy himself that, where the actual cost of transporting servants, personal effects, etc., is claimed under these rules, the scale on which such servants, effects, etc., were transported was reasonable ; and to disallow any claim which, in his opinion, does not fulfil that condition ;

(d) to check any tendency to abuse the option of exchanging daily allowance for mileage allowance ; and

(e) to observe any subsidiary rules which a competent authority may make for his guidance.

No. 19428 F., dated the 23rd December 1921.—In exercise of the powers conferred by rules 44 and 93 read with rule 5 of the Fundamental Rules, the Governor in Council is pleased to make the following rules governing the drawing of compensatory allowances by officers under the administrative control of the local Government:—

1. Subject, in respect of house-rent allowance, to the provisions of rules 3 and 4, a compensatory allowance attached to a post will be drawn in full by the Government servant performing the duties of that post.

2. A compensatory allowance other than a house-rent allowance may be drawn up to a maximum period of four months by a Government servant who takes leave on average pay from the post to which the allowance is attached or is transferred therefrom for not more than four months to another post, as well as by the Government servant performing the duties of the post to which the allowance is attached; provided that

(1) the authority sanctioning the leave or transfer, as the case may be, certifies that the Government servant is likely to return, on the expiry of his leave or his temporary duty, to the post to which the allowance is attached or to another post carrying a similar allowance; and

(2) the Government servant certifies that he continues to incur the whole or a considerable part of the expense to meet which the allowance was granted.

3. A house-rent allowance may be drawn by a Government servant on leave or transfer in the circumstances specified in rule 2; provided that he certifies that his previous rate of expenditure for a house continues during his absence and that he places his house, free of rent, at the disposal of the Government servant, if any, who officiates in his post. The officiating Government servant cannot in such case draw the house-rent allowance attached to the post. If, however, the officiating Government servant, for a reason which the local Government considers to be sufficient, refuses the accommodation placed at his disposal, he and not the absent Government servant, will draw the allowance.

This rule does not apply to any Government servant admitted to the benefits of the Calcutta House Allowance scheme, in so far as it is inconsistent with the rules governing that scheme.

No. 19429 F., dated 23rd December 1921.—In exercise of powers conferred by rule 45(d) read with rule 5 of the Fundamental Rules, the Governor in Council is pleased to make the following rule prescribing the principles on which rent shall be assessed in the case of Government servants, who, owing to the nature of their duties, occupy Government residences for a part only of the year:—

1. When, owing to the nature of his duties, a Government servant occupies a Government residence for a part only of the year, he shall pay rent for the period of his occupation. The amount of rent payable shall be the amount that would be payable by the same Government servant under clause (b) or (c) of fundamental rule 45 as the rent of that residence, for the period of occupation.

No. 19430 F., dated the 23rd December 1921.—In exercise of the powers conferred by rule 47 read with rule 5 of the Fundamental Rules, the Governor in Council is pleased to make the following rules dealing with the grant of honoraria to, and the acceptance of honoraria and fees by, Government servants under the administrative control of the local Government:—

1. Subject to the conditions prescribed in rules 2 to 6, a competent authority may sanction the grant of an honorarium from general revenues to a Government servant under its administrative control or the acceptance by such a Government servant of an honorarium or a fee from a source other than general revenues. No Government servant may accept an honorarium or fee without such sanction.

2. The amount of an honorarium or fee must be fixed with due regard of the value of the service in return for which it is given.

3. When the service rendered falls within the scope of the ordinary duties of the Government servant performing it, the test of exceptional merit prescribed in fundamental rule 46 must be very strictly applied.

4. Sanction must not be given to the acceptance of an honorarium or fee from a source other than general revenues unless the work for which it is offered has been undertaken with the knowledge and sanction of a competent authority, who must certify that its performance will involve no detriment to the official duties of the Government servant performing it.

5. When an honorarium or fee is paid from a source other than general revenues for work done by a Government servant during time which would otherwise be spent in the performance of official duties, the honorarium or fee must be credited to general revenues; provided that a competent authority may, for special reasons which should be recorded, direct that the whole or any part of it may be paid to the Government servant.

6. When a Government servant of an educational service is permitted to receive fees for private tuition, the financial limits of the powers of sanction accorded to a competent authority shall be considered to apply to the total amount of fees to be accepted by such Government servant during any particular scholastic term or vacation.

7. No Government servant may act as an arbitrator in any case which is likely to come before him in any shape by virtue of any judicial or executive post which he may be holding.

8. A Government servant called upon by a court of law to act as a commission to give evidence on technical matters may comply with the request; provided that the case is not of such a nature as will be likely to come before him in the course of his official duties, and may accept such fees as are fixed by the court.

No. 19431 F., dated the 23rd December 1921.—In exercise of the powers conferred by rule 66 read with rule 5 of the Fundamental Rules, the Governor in Council is pleased to make the following rules specifying the authorities by whom leave other than special disability leave may be granted to officers under the administrative control of the local Government:—

1. Any leave, other than special disability leave, admissible under the fundamental rules may be granted to a non-gazetted Government servant by the authority whose duty it would be to fill up his post if it were vacant.

2. No leave may be granted to a gazetted Government servant until a report as to the admissibility of the leave has been obtained from the audit officer.

3. On the receipt of such a report, any leave, other than special disability leave, admissible under the fundamental rules, may be granted to a gazetted Government servant by a competent authority.

No. 19432 F., dated the 23rd December 1921.—In exercise of the powers conferred by rule 68 read with rule 5 of the Fundamental Rules, the Governor in Council is pleased to make the following rules dealing with the combination of holidays with leave and joining time by officers under the administrative control of the local Government :—

1. When the day immediately preceding the day on which a Government servant's leave begins or immediately following the day on which his leave or joining time expires is a holiday or one of a series of holidays, the Government servant may leave his station at the close of the day before, or return to it on the day following, such holiday or series of holidays; provided that—

(a) his transfer or assumption of charge does not involve the handing or taking over of securities or of monies other than a permanent advance ;

(b) his early departure does not entail a correspondingly early transfer from another station of a Government servant to perform his duties, and

(c) the delay in his return does not involve a corresponding delay in the transfer to another station of the Government servant who was performing his duties during his absence, or in the discharge from Government service of a person temporarily appointed to it.

2. On condition that the departing Government servant remains responsible for the monies in his charge, a competent authority may declare that proviso (a) under rule 1 is not applicable to any particular case.

3. Unless the competent authority in any case otherwise direct—

(a) If holidays are prefixed to leave, the leave and any consequent rearrangement of pay and allowances take effect from the first day after the holidays, and

(b) if holidays are affixed to leave or joining time, the leave or joining time is treated as having terminated on, and any consequent rearrangement of pay and allowances takes effect from, the day on which the leave or joining time would have ended if holidays had not been affixed.

No. 19433 F., dated the 23rd December 1921.—The Governor General in Council has made the following rules under rule 71 of the Fundamental Rules and they are in force in Bengal :—

1. The Government servant who has taken leave in Asia on medical certificate may not return to duty until he has produced a medical certificate of fitness in the following form :—

"I, A. B., ——————do hereby certify that I have examined C. D. of the——————Department and that I consider him fit to resume his duties in Government service.

2. If the Government servant on leave is a gazetted officer, such certificate should be signed by a commissioned medical officer or a medical officer in charge of a civil station. If the Government servant on leave is not a gazetted officer, the competent authority may, in its discretion, accept a certificate signed by any registered medical practitioner.

No. 19434 F., dated the 23rd December 1921.—In exercise of the powers conferred by rule 74 (a) (i) and (ii) read with rule 5 of the Fundamental Rules, the Governor in Council is pleased to make the following rules prescribing the procedure to be followed in Bengal in connection with leave :—

Section I.—Leave-Accounts.

1. The leave-account required by fundamental rule 76 shall be maintained in such form as the Auditor-General may prescribe.

2. (a) The leave-account of a gazetted Government servant shall be maintained by, or under the direction of, the principal auditor responsible for the audit of his pay.

(b) The leave-account of a non-gazetted Government servant shall be maintained by the head of the office in which he is employed.

Section II.—Application for leave.

3. Except as provided in rule 4, an application for leave or for an extension of leave shall be made to the authority competent to grant such leave or extension.

4. An application for leave by a chaplain must be forwarded, through the proper channel, to the Bishop of the Diocese, whether such Bishop is or is not competent to grant the desired leave.

5. A Government servant transferred to foreign service must, before taking up his duties in foreign service, make himself acquainted with the rules or arrangements which will regulate his leave during such service.

Section III.—Medical certificates.

General rules.

6. Medical officers must not recommend the grant of leave in any case in which there appears to be no reasonable prospect that the Government servant concerned will ever be fit to resume his duties. In such cases, the opinion that the Government servant is permanently unfit for Government service should be recorded in the medical certificate.

7. Every certificate of a medical committee or a medical officer recommending the grant of leave to a Government servant must contain a proviso that no recommendation contained in it shall be evidence of a claim to any leave not admissible to the Government servant under the terms of his contract or of the rules to which he is subject.

Procedure in the case of gazetted Government servants.

8. Before a gazetted Government servant can be granted leave, or an extension of leave, on medical certificate, he must obtain a certificate in the following form or as nearly in that form as the circumstances permit :—

"I, A. B., Surgeon at (or of)..............do hereby certify that C. D. of the...........service (or Department), is in a bad state of health, and I solemnly and sincerely declare that, according to the best of my judgment, a change of air is essentially necessary to his recovery, and do therefore recommend that he may be permitted to proceed to.............................."

This certificate should be accompanied by a statement of the Government servant's case in such form as the local Government may prescribe.

9. Having secured such a certificate, the Government servant must, except in cases covered by rule 12, obtain the permission of the head of his office or, if he himself is the head of an office, of the head of his department to appear before a medical committee. He should then present himself with two copies of the statement of his case before such a committee. The committee will be assembled under the orders of the administrative medical officer of the province who will, where practicable, preside over it. The committee will be assembled either at the head-quarters of the province or at such other place as the local Government may appoint.

10. Before the required leave or extension of leave can be granted, the Government servant must obtain from the committee a certificate to the following effect:—

"We do hereby certify that, according to the best of our professional judgment, after careful personal examination of the case, we consider the health of C. D. to be such as to render leave of absence for a period of.............. months absolutely necessary for his recovery."

11. Before deciding whether to grant or refuse the certificate, the committee may, in a doubtful case, detain the applicant under professional observation for a period not exceeding fourteen days. In that case it should grant to him a certificate to the following effect:—

"C. D. having applied to us for a medical certificate recommending the grant to him of leave, we consider it expedient, before granting or refusing such a certificate, to detain C. D. under professional observation for................. days."

12. If the state of the applicant's health is certified by a commissioned medical officer of Government or by a medical officer in charge of a civil station to be such as to make it inconvenient for him to present himself at any place in which a committee can be assembled, the authority competent to grant the leave may accept, in lieu of the certificate prescribed in rule 10, either:—

(a) a certificate signed by any two medical officers, being commissioned medical officers or medical officers in charge of civil stations, in whatsoever province they may be serving; or

(b) if the authority considers it unnecessary to require the production of two medical opinions, a certificate signed by an officer in medical charge of a civil station and countersigned by the Collector of the District or the Commissioner of the Division.

13. The grant of a certificate under rule 10 or 12 does not in itself confer upon the Government servant concerned any right to leave. The certificate should be forwarded to the authority competent to grant the leave and the orders of that authority should be awaited.

Procedure in the case of non-gazetted Government servants in superior service.

14. An application by a non-gazetted Government servant in superior service for leave, or for an extension of leave, on medical certificate, must be accompanied by a certificate from the applicant's medical attendant. Such certificate should distinctly state the nature of the illness, its symptoms, probable causes and duration, and the period of absence from duty considered to be absolutely necessary for the restoration of the applicant's health. It should be countersigned by a Presidency Surgeon, if the applicant is in a Presidency town; otherwise, by the officer in chief medical charge of the district in which the applicant resides. The authority competent to grant the leave may, however, in its discretion accept a certificate from the applicant's medical attendant without such countersignature; or, if the applicant be a female, may either dispense with countersignature or accept the countersignature of any female medical practitioner.

15. No certificate should be submitted for countersignature without the cognisance of the head of the office in which the applicant is serving.

Procedure in the case of non-gazetted Government servants in inferior service.

16. The countersigning officer may, in his discretion, require the applicant to appear before him, unless it appears from the certificate of his medical attendant that he is too ill to bear the journey. In the latter case, the officer may, after careful investigation of the case, either countersign the certificate or refuse to do so, as he thinks fit.

17. In support of an application for leave, or for an extension of leave on medical certificate from a non-gazetted Government servant in inferior service, the authority competent to grant the leave may accept such certificate as it may deem sufficient.

Section IV.—Grant of Leave.

18. In cases where all applications for leave cannot, in the interests of the public service, be granted, an authority competent to grant leave should, in deciding which application should be granted, take into account the following considerations:—

(a) The Government servants who can, for the time being, best be spared.
(b) The amount of leave due to the various applicants.
(c) The amount and character of the service rendered by each applicant since he last returned from leave.
(d) The fact that any such applicant was compulsorily recalled from his last leave.
(e) The fact that any such applicant has been refused leave in the public interests.

NOTE.—Grant of leave on private affairs to the men of the Military Police is subject to the condition that the number absent on leave on half average salary, whether on medical certificate or not, does not exceed 5 per cent. of the Battalion from 15th October to 15th April, and 10 per cent. from 16th April to 14th October.

19. When a medical committee in India has reported that there is no reasonable prospect that a particular Government servant will ever be fit to return to duty, leave should not necessarily be refused to such Government servant. It may be granted, if due, by a competent authority on the following conditions:—

(a) if the medical committee is unable to say with certainty that the Government servant will never be fit for service in India again, leave not exceeding twelve months in all may be granted. Such leave should not be extended without a further reference to a medical committee.
(b) If the medical committee declares the Government servant to be completely and permanently incapacitated for further service in India, the Government servant should, except as provided in clause (c) below, be invalided from the service, either on the expiration of the leave already granted to him, if he is on leave when examined by the committee, or, if he is not on leave, from the date of the committee's report.

(c) A Government servant declared by a committee to be completely and permanently incapacitated may, in special cases, be granted leave, or an extension of leave, not exceeding six months, as debited against the leave-account, if such leave be due to him. Special circumstances justifying such treatment may be held to exist when the Government servant's breakdown in health has been caused in and by Government service, or when the Government servant has taken a comparatively small amount of leave during his service or will complete at an early date an additional year's service for pension.

20. Leave should not be granted to a Government servant who ought at once to be dismissed or removed from Government service for misconduct or general incapacity.

21. If, in a case not covered by rule 20, an authority competent to remove a Government servant from service decides, before such Government servant departs from India on leave, that he will not be permitted to return to duty in India, it must inform him to that effect before he leaves India.

22. If, when a Government servant is about to depart from India on leave, it is necessary to consider the propriety of removing him for incapacity, whether mental or physical, which is of such a nature that it is impossible to decide, before he leaves India, whether it will be permanent or temporary; or if for any reason it is considered inexpedient that a Government servant on leave should return to India, a full report of the circumstances must be made by the local Government to the India Office in time to enable the Secretary of State in Council to take any necessary measures before the Government servant would in the ordinary course be permitted to return to duty. The report should in any case reach the India Office at latest three months before the end of the Government servant's leave.

23. When leave on medical certificate has been granted to a Government servant or, in the case of a military officer in civil employ, when the grant of such leave has appeared in orders, if such Government servant or military officer proposes to spend his leave in Europe, North Africa, America or the West Indies, the local Government must without delay forward a copy of the medical statement of the case to the High Commissioner for India.

Section V.—Departure on leave.

24. Every Government servant proceeding on leave out of India should procure from the audit officer and take with him a copy of the memorandum of information issued for the guidance of Government servants proceeding on leave out of India. If the leave has been granted on a medical certificate, he must take a copy of the medical statement of his case also.

25. A Government servant taking leave out of India must report his embarkation, through the audit officer, to the authority which granted his leave in such form as the Auditor-General may prescribe.

Section VI.—Return from leave.

26. A gazetted Government servant, on return from leave, must report his return to the Government under which he is serving. A chaplain must report his return to the Bishop of his diocese also.

27. A Government servant returning from leave is not entitled, in the absence of specific orders to that effect, to resume as a matter of course the post which he held before going on leave. He must report his return to duty and await orders.

Section VII.—Commencement of leave.

28. Unless specially otherwise ordered, leave must begin within 35 days of the date on which it is granted.

No. 19435 F., dated the 23rd December 1921.—In exercise of the powers conferred by rule 74 (a) (iv) read with rule 5 of the Fundamental Rules, the Governor in Council is pleased to make the following rules prescribing the procedure to be followed in the maintenance of records of service of Government servants serving directly under the administrative control of the local Government:—

Gazetted Government servants.

1. A record of the services of a gazetted Government servant will be kept by such audit officer and in such form as the Auditor-General may prescribe.

Non-gazetted Government servants.

2. A service book in such form as the Auditor-General may prescribe must be maintained for every non-gazetted Government servant holding a substantive post on a permanent establishment, with the following exceptions:— Service book.

(a) Policemen of rank not higher than that of head constable.

(b) Inferior servants of all sorts.

3. In all cases in which a service book is necessary under rule 2, such a book must be supplied for a Government servant, at his own cost, on his first appointment to Government service. It must be kept in the custody of the head of the office in which he is serving and transferred with him from office to office. It may be given up to the Government servant if he resigns or is discharged from the service without fault, an entry to this effect being first made in the service book.

4. Every step in a Government servant's official life must be recorded in his service book, and each entry must be attested by the head of his office or, if he himself is the head of an office, by his immediate superior. The head of the office must see that all entries are duly made and attested, and that the book contains no erasure or overwriting, all corrections being neatly made and properly attested.

5. Every period of suspension from employment and every other interruption of service must be noted, with full details of its duration, in an entry made across the page of the service book and must be attested by the attesting officer. It is the duty of the attesting officer to see that such entries are promptly made.

6. Personal certificates of character must not, unless the head of the department so directs, be entered in a service book, but if a Government servant is reduced to a lower substantive post, the reason of the reduction must be briefly shown.

7. It is the duty of every Government servant to see that his service book is properly maintained as prescribed in rule 4, in order that there may be no difficulty in verifying his service for pension. The head of the office should therefore permit a Government servant to examine his service book should he at any time desire to do so.

8. If a Government servant is transferred to foreign service, the head of his office or department must send his service book to such audit officer as the Auditor-General may prescribe. The audit officer will return it after noting in it, over his signature, the order sanctioning the transfer, the effect of the transfer in regard to leave admissible during foreign service and any other particulars which he may consider to be necessary. On the Government servant's re-transfer to Government service, his service book must again be sent to the audit officer, who will then note in it, over his signature, all necessary particulars connected with the foreign service. No entry relating to the time spent in foreign service may be attested by any authority other than the audit officer.

Service-rolls.

9. In the case of policemen of rank not higher than that of head constable, there must be maintained for each district by the Superintendent of Police a service roll in English, in which the following particulars should be recorded for each man holding substantively a permanent post in the constabulary :—

(a) The date of his enrolment.
(b) His caste or tribe, village, age, height and marks of identification when enrolled.
(c) The rank which he from time to time holds ; his promotions ; and his reductions or other punishments.
(d) His absences from duty, with or without leave.
(e) Interruptions in his service.
(f) Every other incident in his service which may involve forfeiture of a portion of it or may affect the amount of his pension.

The roll must be checked by the vernacular roll and order book and the punishment register and every entry in it must be signed by the Superintendent of Police.

10. A service roll as described in rule 9 must be maintained for every other class of non-gazetted Government servants holding substantive appointments on a permanent establishment for whom no service book is necessary.

No. 19436 F., dated 23rd December 1921.—In exercise of the powers conferred by rule 82(a) read with rule 5 of the Fundamental Rules, the Governor in Council is pleased to make the following rules specifying the departments or parts of departments, which should be treated as vacation departments, and the conditions in which a Government servant should be considered to have availed himself of a vacation :—

1. The following should be treated as vacation departments :—

Judicial officers, including the officers of the High Court.

NOTE.—District and Sessions Judges are not treated as belonging to a vacation department.

2. A Government servant should be considered to have availed himself of a vacation, if he has been absent from his station except on duty for more than 15 days of the vacation.

No. 19437 F., dated the 23rd December 1921.—In exercise of the powers conferred by rule 101 (a) read with rule 5 of the Fundamental Rules, the Governor in Council is pleased to make the following rules regulating the grant of maternity leave to female Government servants under the administrative control of the local Government:—

1. A competent authority may grant to a female Government servant maternity leave on full pay for a period which may extend up to the end of three months from the date of its commencement or to the end of six weeks from the date of confinement, whichever be earlier.

2. Leave of any other kind may be granted in continuation of maternity leave if the request for its grant be supported by a medical certificate.

No. 19438 F., dated the 23rd December 1921.—In exercise of the powers conferred by rule 101(b) read with rule 5 of the Fundamental Rules, the Governor in Council is pleased to make the following rules regulating the grant of leave on account of ill health to members of specified subordinate services, under the administrative control of the local Government, whose duties expose them to special risk of accident or illness:—

1. A competent authority may grant hospital leave to Government servants of the following classes while under medical treatment for illness or injury, if such illness or injury is directly due to risks incurred in the course of their official duties:

(a) Police officers of rank not higher than that of head-constable, and men of the Military Police.

(b) Forest subordinates, other than clerks, in receipt of pay not exceeding Rs. 40.

(c) Head warders or warders male or female, of jails and matrons of the Jail Department.

(d) Government servants employed in Government Presses, whether on fixed pay or on piece rates.

(e) Subordinates employed in Government laboratories.

(f) Subordinates employed on the working of Government machinery.

(g) Peons and guards in permanent employ.

2. Hospital leave may be granted on leave-salary equal to either average or half average pay, as the authority granting it may consider necessary.

3. The amount of hospital leave which may be granted to a Government servant is limited to three months on average pay in any period of three years. Hospital leave on half average pay counts, for the purpose of this limit, as half the amount of leave on average pay.

4. Hospital leave is not debited against the leave account and may be combined with any other leave which may be admissible: provided that the total period of leave, after such combination, shall not exceed twenty-eight months.

No. 19439 F., dated the 23rd December 1921.—In exercise of the powers conferred by rule 102 read with rule 5 of the Fundamental Rules, the Governor in Council is pleased to make the following rules regulating the grant of leave on account of ill-health to officers and seamen of vessels under the administrative control of the local Government:—

1. A Government servant serving as an officer, warrant officer or petty officer on a Government vessel may, while undergoing medical treatment for sickness or injury, either on his vessel or in hospital, be granted by the Commander of the vessel leave on leave-salary equal to full pay for a period not exceeding six weeks; provided that such leave shall not be granted if a responsible medical officer certifies that the Government servant is malingering or that his ill-health is due to drunkenness or similar self-indulgence or to his own action in wilfully causing or aggravating disease or injury.

2. A seaman disabled in the exercise of his duty may be allowed leave on leave-salary equal to full pay for a maximum period not exceeding three months, if the following conditions are fulfilled:—

(a) A Government medical officer must certify the disability.

(b) The disability must not be due to the seaman's own carelessness or inexperience.

(c) The vacancy caused by his absence must not be filled.

No. 19440 F., dated the 23rd December 1921.—In exercise of the powers conferred by rule 103(a) read with rule 5 of the Fundamental Rules, the Governor in Council is pleased to make the following rules regulating the leave earned by temporary and officiating service by officers under the administrative control of the local Government:—

1. Leave may be granted to any Government servant without a lien on a permanent post while officiating in a post or holding a temporary post, provided that the grant of the leave involves no expense to Government. On this condition such a Government servant may be granted—

(a) leave on leave-salary equivalent to full pay up to one-eleventh of the period spent on duty, subject to a maximum of four months at a time, or

(b) on medical certificate, leave on leave-salary equivalent to half pay for three months at any one time, or

(c) extraordinary leave for three months at any one time.

2. If such a Government servant is, without interruption of duty, appointed substantively to a permanent post, his leave account will be credited with the amount of leave which he would have earned by his previous duty if he had performed it while holding a permanent post substantively, and debited with the amount of leave actually taken under rule 1. Leave taken under rule 1 is not an interruption of duty for the purpose of this rule.

No. 19441F., dated the 23rd December 1921.—In exercise of the powers conferred by rule 103(b) read with rule 5 of the Fundamental Rules, the Governor in Council is pleased to make the following rules regulating the amount of leave which may be earned by non-continuous service by officers under the administrative control of the local Government:—

1. A Government servant on an establishment whose duties are not continuous, but are limited to certain periods in each year, may be granted the following leave, if he was on actual duty on the date the establishment was discharged after completion of its work, and was on actual duty on the first day on which the establishment was again re-employed :—

(a) Leave on medical certificate for one month at any one time during the period the establishment is employed for any one term.

(b) Extraordinary leave for one month at any one time during the period the establishment is employed for any one term.

2. A competent authority may make exceptions, in case a Government servant remains absent from duty on the date of discharge or date of re-employment of the establishment owing to sickness, provided that the total period of leave on medical certificate under clause (a) in rule 1 does not exceed two months in one term.'

No. 19442 F., dated the 23rd December 1921.—In exercise of the powers conferred by rule 103(c) read with rule 5 of the Fundamental Rules, the Governor in Council is pleased to make the following rules regulating the leave admissible to part time law officers under the administrative control of the local Government :—

1. A law officer holding one of the posts mentioned in fundamental rule 99, if his pay is fixed at a definite rate but his whole time is not retained for the service of Government, may be granted leave as follows :—

(a) Leave on full pay during the vacation of the High Court; provided that no extra expense is thereby caused to Government. Such leave will be counted as duty.

(b) Leave on half pay for not more than six months once only in his service after six years of duty.

(c) On medical certificate, leave on half pay up to a maximum of 20 months at any one time; provided that three years of duty must intervene between any two periods of leave on medical certificate.

(d) On the conditions prescribed in fundamental rule 85, extraordinary leave.

2. Leave under any one of the clauses of rule 1 may be combined with leave under any other clause.

No. 19443 F., dated the 23rd December 1921.—In exercise of the powers conferred by rule 103(c) read with rule 5 of the Fundamental Rules, the Governor in Council is pleased to make the following rules regulating the leave admissible to officers remunerated by fees or daily wages under the administrative control of the local Government :—

1. A Government servant remunerated by fees may be granted leave on the terms laid down in supplementary rules framed under fundamental rule 103 (c) for part-time law officers, provided that he makes satisfactory arrangements for the performance of his duties, that no extra expense is caused to Government, and that, during leave of the kind contemplated by clause (b) of rule 1 of the said rules, the whole of the fees are paid to the person who officiates in his post.

2. A labourer employed on daily wages in a workshop, when temporarily absent from work owing to injuries received while on duty, may be granted by a competent authority leave on full wages up to a maximum of six months. A competent authority may, in similar circumstances, sanction the grant of leave-salary not exceeding Rs. 50, or one month's wages, or the wages which the absentee would have earned during the period of leave if he had been present on duty, whichever of these is least.

No. 19444 F., dated the 23rd December 1921.—In exercise of the powers conferred by rule 104 (b) read with rule 5 of the Fundamental Rules, the Governor in Council is pleased to make the following rules regulating the grant of leave to probationers and apprentices under the administrative control of the local Government:—

1. In these rules—

(a) Probationer means a Government servant employed on probation in or against a substantive vacancy in the cadre of a department.

(b) Apprentice means a person deputed for training in a trade or business with a view to employment in Government service, who draws pay at monthly rates from Government during such training but is not employed in or against a substantive vacancy in the cadre of a department.

2. Leave may be granted to a probationer if it is admissible under the leave rules which would be applicable to him if he held his post substantively otherwise than on probation.

3. Leave of the following kinds may be granted to an apprentice:—

(a) On medical certificate, leave on leave-salary equivalent to half pay for a period not exceeding one month in any year of apprenticeship.

(b) Extraordinary leave under fundamental rule 85.

No. 19445 F., dated the 23rd December 1921.—In exercise of the powers conferred by rule 106 read with rule 5 of the Fundamental Rules, the Governor in Council is pleased to make the following rules regulating the joining time admissible to officers under the administrative control of the local Government:—

Joining time.

1. Not more than one day is allowed to a Government servant in order to join a new post when the appointment to such post does not necessarily involve a change of residence from one station to another. A holiday counts as a day for the purpose of this rule.

2. In cases involving a necessary change of station, the joining time allowed to a Government servant is subject to a maximum of 30 days. Six days are allowed for preparation and, in addition, a period to cover the actual journey calculated as follows:—

(a) A Government servant is allowed—

For that portion of the journey which he travels or might travel.		One day for each.
By railway ...	250 miles.
By ocean steamer ...	200 „	or any longer time actually occupied in the journey.
By river steamer ...	80 „
By motor-car or horse-drawn conveyance plying for public hire ...	80 „
In any other way ...	15 „

(b) For any fractional portion of any distance prescribed in clause (a), an extra day is allowed.

(c) When part of the journey is by steamer, the limit of six days for preparation may be extended to cover any period unavoidably spent in awaiting the departure of the steamer.

(d) Travel by road not exceeding five miles to or from a railway station at the beginning or end of a journey does not count for joining time.

(e) A Government servant whose pay does not exceed Rs. 100 is not ordinarily expected to travel by motor-car or horse-drawn conveyance plying for public hire, and his joining time is calculated accordingly.

(f) A Sunday does not count as a day for the purpose of the calculations in this rule, but Sundays are included in the maximum period of 30 days.

3. When a Government servant, returning from leave out of India exceeding four months, takes joining time before joining his post, his joining time shall be calculated as prescribed in rule 2; provided that it shall, if he so desire, be subject to a minimum of ten days.

4. By whatever route a Government servant actually travels, his joining time shall, unless a competent authority for special reasons otherwise order, be calculated by the route which travellers ordinarily use.

5. If a Government servant is authorized to make over charge of a post elsewhere than at its headquarters, his joining time shall be calculated from the place at which he makes over charge.

6. If a Government servant is appointed to a new post while in transit from one post to another, his joining time begins on the day following that on which he receives the order of appointment.

7. If a Government servant takes leave while in transit from one post to another, the period which has elapsed since he handed over charge of his old post must be included in his leave, unless the leave is taken on medical certificate. In the latter case, the period may be treated as joining time.

8. If a Government servant is appointed to a new post while on leave of less than four months' duration, his joining time will be calculated from his old station or from the place in which he received the order of appointment, whichever calculation will entitle him to the less joining time.

9. A competent authority may in any case extend the joining time admissible under these rules, provided that the general spirit of the rules is observed.

10. Within the prescribed maximum of 30 days, a competent authority may, on such conditions as it thinks fit, grant to a Government servant a longer period of joining time than is admissible under the rules in the following circumstances:—

(a) when the Government servant has been unable to use the ordinary mode of travelling or, notwithstanding due diligence on his part, has spent more time on the journey than is allowed by the rules; or

(b) when such extension is considered necessary for the public convenience or for the saving of such public expenditure as is caused by unnecessary or purely formal transfers; or

(c) when the rules have in any particular case operated harshly; as, for example, when a Government servant has through no fault on his part missed a steamer or fallen sick on the journey.

No. 19446 F., dated the 23rd December 1921.—In exercise of the powers conferred by rule 106 read with rule 5 of the Fundamental Rules, the Governor in Council is pleased to make the following rule specifying the places and stations to which Fundamental Rule 105 (d) applies :—

The following places and stations are declared to be not easy of access :—

(1) Sikkim, Tibet, Bhutan.

(2) Chittagong Hill Tracts.

No. 19447 F., dated the 23rd December 1921.—Orders issued by the Governor-General in Council under Fundamental Rule 114.

The Governor-General in Council is pleased to issue, under fundamental rule 114, the following orders regulating the amount of remuneration which may be sanctioned by a local Government for a Government servant transferred to foreign service in an Indian State :—

1. When the transfer of a Government servant to foreign service in an Indian State is sanctioned, the pay which he shall receive in such service must be precisely specified in the order sanctioning the transfer. If it is intended that he shall receive any remuneration, or enjoy any concession of pecuniary value, in addition to his pay proper, the exact nature of such remuneration or concession must be similarly specified. No Government servant will be permitted to receive any remuneration or enjoy any concession which is not so specified ; and, if the order is silent as to any particular remuneration or concession, it must be assumed that the intention is that it shall not be enjoyed.

2. No order of transfer to foreign service shall be issued by a local Government without previous consultation with its Finance Department. It shall be open to that Department to prescribe, by general or special order, cases in which its consent may be presumed to have been given.

3. The following two general principles must be observed by local Governments in sanctioning the conditions of transfer :—

(a) The terms granted to the Government servant must not be such as to impose an unnecessarily heavy burden on the Indian State which employs him.

(b) The terms granted must not be so greatly in excess of the remuneration which the Government servant would receive in Government service as to render foreign service appreciably more attractive than Government service.

4. Provided that the two principles laid down in paragraph 3 above are observed, a local Government may sanction the grant of the following concessions by the foreign employer. Such concessions must not be sanctioned as a matter of course, but in those cases only in which their grant is in accordance with local custom and the wishes of the Darbar and is, in the opinion of the local Government, justified by the circumstances. The value of the concessions must be taken into account in determining an appropriate rate of pay for the Government servant in foreign service :—

(a) The payment of contributions towards leave-salary and pension under the ordinary rules regulating such contributions.

(b) The grant of travelling allowance under the ordinary travelling allowance rules of the local Government or under the local rules of the Darbar, and of permanent travelling allowance, conveyance allowance and horse allowance.

(c) The use of State tents, boats and transport on tour, provided that this is accompanied by a corresponding reduction in the amount of travelling allowance admissible.

(d) The grant of free residential accommodation, which may be furnished, in cases in which the local Government considers this to be desirable, on such scale as may seem proper to the local Government.

(e) The use of State motors, carriages and animals.

5. The grant of any concession not specified in paragraph 4 above requires the sanction of the Governor-General in Council.

No. 19448 F., dated the 23rd December 1921.—In exercise of the powers conferred by rule 119(b) read with rule 5 of the Fundamental Rules, the Governor in Council is pleased to make the following rules prescribing the rate of interest if any, to be levied on foreign service contributions in the case of officers under the administrative control of the local Government:—

1. If a contribution for leave-salary or pension which is due from a Government servant in foreign service is not paid within fifteen days from the end of the period to which it relates, the Government servant concerned must pay to Government interest on the unpaid contribution, at the rate of four pies a day per 100 rupees upon the amount due, from the date of expiry of the period of fifteen days up to the date on which the contribution is finally paid.

Charge of office.

1. Unless for special recorded reasons of a public nature a competent authority, under whose orders the transfer takes place, permits or requires it to be made in any particular case elsewhere, or otherwise, the charge of an office must be made over at its headquarters, both the relieving and the relieved officers being present.

NOTE.—The condition regarding the presence of both the relieving and the relieved officers is not enforced, when a District and Sessions Judge is permitted to combine vacation with leave under fundamental rule 82 (d), or a Government servant is permitted to prefix and affix holidays to his leave.

2. The headquarters of a Government servant shall be in such place as a competent authority may prescribe.

NOTE 1.—As a general rule, and subject to any special orders to the contrary in any particular case, the headquarters of an officer on the staff of Government as, for instance, a Secretary to Government or a clerk in the Government Secretariat, are the headquarters for the time being of the Government.

NOTE 2.—The headquarters of any other officer are, in the absence of any orders to the contrary, the station where the records of his office are kept.

Age of admission into superior pensionable Government service.

1. A person whose age exceeds twenty-five years may not ordinarily be admitted into the service of Government in superior pensionable service. A competent authority may, however, relax this rule in special cases.

NOTE.—The ordinary age limit is extended to thirty years in the case of a person appointed to a Judicial Office.

No. 19449 F., dated the 23rd December 1921.—The Governor in Council is pleased to declare that the orders contained in the notes to the articles of the Civil Service Regulations, and in the Bengal Companion to the Civil Service Regulations, and also, so far as they relate to Bengal, the appendices to the Civil Service Regulations, which are not inconsistent with the Fundamental Rules, or with any rules made thereunder, are confirmed, and shall, in the case of Government servants to whom the Fundamental Rules in that respect apply, remain in force until they are revoked, varied, or added to.

Under the Fundamental Rules, made by the Secretary of State in Council under section 96B of the Government of India Act, and published on pages 481—506, Part I-A, of the Calcutta Gazette of the 23rd November 1921, the following rules have been made by the Government of Bengal, and are published for general information.

A. MARR,

Secretary to the Government of Bengal.

Minister in charge : The Hon'ble Sir S. N. Banerjea, Kt., (Ministry of Local Self-Government).
Minister in charge : The Hon'ble Mr. P. C. Mitter, C.I.E., (Ministry of Education).
Minister in charge : The Hon'ble Nawab Saiyid Nawab Ali Chaudhuri, Khan Bahadur, C.I.E., (Ministry of Agriculture and Public Works).

No. 19450 F., dated the 23rd December 1921.—In exercise of the powers conferred by rule 10 read with rule 5 of the Fundamental rules, His Excellency the Governor is pleased to make the following rules prescribing the form in which medical certificates of fitness for service under the local Government should be prepared and the officers by whom they should be signed.

1. A medical certificate of fitness for Government service shall be in the following form :—

"I hereby certify that I have examined A.B., a candidate for the employment in the .... Department, and cannot discover that............ has any disease, constitutional weakness or bodily infirmity, except.............................. . I do not consider this a disqualification for employment in the office of..............................
.... A. B.'s age is, according to........own statement,   years, and by appearance about   years."

2. Such a certificate shall be signed by a commissioned medical officer of Government, or by a medical officer in charge of a civil station, provided that—

(1) in the case of a female candidate, the local Government may accept a certificate signed by any female medical practitioner, and

(2) in the case of a candidate for appointment to a post on pay not exceeding fifty rupees, the appointing authority may accept a certificate signed by any officer, irrespective of his medical qualifications.

3. No medical certificate is necessary upon a Government servant being promoted from inferior to superior service, whether the previous inferior service was qualifying or not.

Minister in charge: The Hon'ble Sir S. N. Banerjea, Kt., (Ministry of Local Self-Government).
Minister in charge: The Hon'ble Mr. P. C. Mitter, C.I.E., (Ministry of Education).
Minister in charge: The Hon'ble Nawab Saiyid Nawab Ali Chaudhuri, Khan Bahadur, C.I.E., (Ministry of Agriculture and Public Works.)

No. 1945 I F., dated the 23rd December 1921.—In exercise of the powers conferred by rule 44 read with rule 5 of the Fundamental Rules, His Excellency the Governor is pleased to make the following rules governing the grant of travelling allowances to officers under the administrative control of the local Government.

TRAVELLING ALLOWANCE RULES.

Definitions.

(a) Actual travelling expenses means the actual cost of transporting a Government servant with his servants and personal luggage, including charges for ferry and other tolls and for carriage of camp equipment if necessary. It does not include charges for hotels, travellers' bungalows or refreshments or for the carriage of stores or conveyances or for presents to coachmen and the like; or any allowance for such incidental losses or expenses as the breakage of crockery, wear and tear of furniture and the employment of additional servants.

(b) Camp equipage means the apparatus for moving a camp.

(c) Camp equipment means tents and the requisites for pitching and furnishing them or, where tents are not carried, such articles of camp furniture as it may be necessary, in the interests of the public service, for a Government servant to take with him on tour.

(d) Competent authority, in relation to the exercise of any power, means the local Government or any authority to which the power is delegated by or under these rules.

(e) Day means a calendar day, beginning and ending at midnight; but an absence from headquarters which does not exceed twenty-four hours shall be reckoned for all purposes as one day, at whatever hours the absence begins or ends.

(f) Family means a Government servant's wife, legitimate children and step-children, residing with and wholly dependent upon him. Except in rule 81, it includes in addition his parents, sisters and minor brothers, if residing with and wholly dependent upon him. Not more than one wife is included in a family for the purpose of these rules.

(g) Hill station means any place which a competent authority may declare to be a hill station.

NOTE.—The entire district of Darjeeling is treated as a hill station.

(h) Holiday means—

(a) a holiday prescribed or notified by or under section 25 of the Negotiable Instruments Act, 1881, and

(b) in relation to any particular office, a day on which such office is ordered, by notification of Government in the Gazette, to be closed for the transaction of Government business without reserve or qualification.

(i) Public conveyance means a train, steamer or other conveyance which plies regularly for the conveyance of passengers.

(j) Transfer means the movement of a Government servant from one headquarters station in which he is employed to another such station, either

(a) to take up the duties of a new post; or
(b) in consequence of a change of his headquarters

CHAPTER I.—Grades of Government Servants.

Section I.—Distribution into grades.

General rules.

1. For the purpose of calculating travelling allowance, Government servants are divided into four grades as follows:—

(a) The first grade includes all Government servants in receipt of pay exceeding Rs. 600.
(b) The second grade includes all Government servants in receipt of pay exceeding Rs. 125 but not exceeding Rs. 600.
(c) The third grade includes all Government servants in superior service, except forest guards, in receipt of pay not exceeding Rs. 125.
(d) The fourth grade includes forest guards and all Government servants in inferior service.

NOTE.—Any individual Government servant who held, prior to the introduction of these rules, a post on progressive pay and was included, in view of the maximum pay of such post, in a grade higher than that to which he is entitled under this rule, shall not be reduced in grade unless he is reduced to a lower post.

Special concessions.

2. A competent authority may, for reasons which should be recorded, order that any Government servant or class of Government servants shall be included in a grade higher than that prescribed in rule 1.

Government servants in transit from one post to another.

3. A Government servant in transit from one post to another ranks in the grade to which the lower of the two posts would entitle him.

Part-times Government servants, etc.

4. A Government servant whose whole time is not retained for the public service, or who is remunerated wholly or partly by fees, ranks in such grade as a competent authority may declare.

CHAPTER II.—The different kinds of travelling allowance.

Section II.—General.

General rule.

5. The following are the different kinds of travelling allowances which may be drawn in different circumstances by Government servants:—

(a) Permanent travelling allowance.
(b) Conveyance or horse allowance.
(c) Mileage allowance.
(d) Daily allowance.
(e) The actual cost of travelling.

The rules in this chapter explain the nature of these allowances and the method of calculating them. The circumstances in which they can be drawn for particular journeys are described in Chapters III to V.

Section III.—Permanent travelling allowance.

6. A permanent monthly travelling allowance may be granted by a competent authority to any Government servant whose duties require him to travel extensively. Such an allowance is granted in lieu of all other forms of travelling allowance for journeys within the Government servant's sphere of duty and is drawn all the year round, whether the Government servant is absent from his headquarters or not. Conditions of grant.

7. A permanent travelling allowance cannot be drawn during joining time nor, unless in any case it be otherwise expressly provided in these rules, during any period for which travelling allowance of any other kind is drawn. Its drawal during leave is governed by rules made under fundamental rule 93. When inadmissible.

8. When a Government servant holds, either substantively or in an officiating capacity, two or more posts to each of which a permanent travelling allowance is attached, he may be granted such permanent travelling allowance, not exceeding the total of all the allowances, as the competent authority may consider to be necessary in order to cover the travelling expenses which he has to incur. Combination of posts.

Section IV.—Conveyance and horse allowance.

9. A competent authority may grant, on such conditions as it thinks fit to impose, a monthly conveyance or horse allowance to any Government servant who is required to travel extensively at or within a short distance from his headquarters under conditions which do not render him eligible for daily allowance. The competent authority should also decide, at the time of granting the allowance, if a Government servant should give, for purposes of audit, a certificate of possession of a means of conveyance. Conditions of grant.

10. Except as otherwise provided in these rules and unless the authority sanctioning it otherwise direct, a conveyance or horse allowance is drawn all the year round, is not forfeited during absence from headquarters and may be drawn in addition to any other travelling allowance admissible under these rules; provided that a Government servant, who is in receipt of a conveyance allowance specifically granted for the up-keep of a motor-car or motor-cycle, shall not draw mileage or daily allowance for a journey by the motor-car or motor-cycle, except on such conditions as the authority which sanctions the conveyance allowance may prescribe. When drawn.

11. A conveyance or horse allowance may not be drawn during joining time. Its drawal during leave is governed by rules made under fundamental rule 93. During leave and joining time.

Section V.—Mileage allowance.

Sub-section (I).—General.

12. A mileage allowance is an allowance, calculated on the distance travelled, which is given to meet the cost of a particular journey. Definition.

13. (a) For the purpose of calculating mileage allowance, a journey between two places is held to have been performed by the shortest of two or more practicable routes or by the cheapest of such routes as may be equally short: provided that, when there are alternative railway routes and the difference between them in point of time and cost is not great, mileage allowance should be calculated on the route actually used. Principles of calculation.

(b) The shortest route is that by which the traveller can most speedily reach his destination by the ordinary modes of travelling. In case of doubt, a competent authority may decide which shall be regarded as the shortest of two or more routes.

(c) If a Government servant travels by a route which is not the shortest but is cheaper than the shortest, his mileage allowance should be calculated on the route actually used.

Special concessions.

14. A competent authority may, for special reasons which should be recorded, permit mileage allowance to be calculated on a route other than the shortest or cheapest provided that the journey is actually performed by such route. Where, however, this concession is allowed because the shortest route was impracticable for travelling at the time the journey was performed, the competent authority should obtain and record a certificate from the Collector of the district that no shorter route was practicable than that which was adopted.

Point of commencement and end of journey.

15. The point in any station at which a journey is held to commence or end is the chief public office or such other point as may be fixed for the purpose by a competent authority.

NOTE 1.—When an officer travels from, or to, a place which is the headquarters of a police-station, his journey should, for the purposes of calculating travelling allowance, be held to commence from, or end at, the police-station.

NOTE 2.—The Court-house of the Chief Local Executive Authority should be considered as the point from which a journey is held to commence or at which it is held to end.

Different rates for different classes of journey.

16. Mileage allowance is differently calculated, as shown in the following rules, according as the journey is, or could be, made by railway, by steamer or by road.

Sub-section (ii).—Mileage allowances for journeys by railway.

Classes of accommodation for which Government servants are considered to be eligible.

17. For the purpose of calculating mileage allowance, Government servants when travelling by railway are considered to be entitled to class accommodation according to the following scale:—

(a) A Government servant of the first grade.—Accommodation of the highest class, by whatever name it may be called, provided on the railway by which he travels.

(b) A Government servant of the second grade.—Second or, if the line by which he travels provides no second class accommodation on any train, highest class.

(c) A Government servant of the third grade.—

(i) If travelling on the Darjeeling-Himalayan Railway, except the Siliguri-Kissenganj extension, third class.

(ii) If travelling on any other railway which provides no intermediate class accommodation on any of the trains which stop at the stations to and from which he is travelling, including the Siliguri-Kissenganj extension—

(1) where there are two classes only, lower class, and

(2) where there are three classes, second class if his pay is not less than Rs. 50 and third class if it is less than Rs. 50.

(iii) If travelling on any railway which provides intermediate class accommodation on trains which stop at the stations to, and from which he is travelling: intermediate class.

(d) A Government servant of the fourth grade.—The lowest class, whether it be called lower, third or fourth.

NOTE.—The expression "where there are two classes only" in this rule is to be taken as meaning where only two such classes are provided in the general passenger trains of the railway concerned.

18. A competent authority may, for special reasons which should be recorded, declare any particular Government servant or class of Government servants to be entitled to accommodation of a higher class than that prescribed for his grade in clause (b), (c) or (d) of rule 17. Special concessions.

19. The mileage allowance admissible to a Government servant of the first, second or third grade is double the fare of the class in which he is entitled to accommodation. The mileage allowance admissible to a Government servant of the fourth grade is the fare of the lowest class. Rate of mileage allowance.

20. If a Government servant of the second or third grade actually travels by a train which does not provide the class of accommodation to which he is entitled under rule 17, he may be allowed to draw the mileage allowance of the next higher class, provided that the controlling officer attaches to his travelling allowance bill a certificate that it was necessary in the public interest that he should travel by that train. This concession does not apply to a Government servant of the third grade whose pay is less than Rs. 50 and who travels on a line which provides intermediate class accommodation on one or more of its trains but not on the particular train on which he travels, if there be third class accommodation on that train. Such a Government servant is restricted to mileage allowance calculated for intermediate class accommodation. Where the class to which the Government servant is entitled is not provided on the train.

21. When through booking involves the payment, for part of a journey, of rates for accommodation of a class higher than that to which the Government servant concerned is entitled, the Government servant may draw mileage allowance based on the higher rates for that part of the journey. Through booking.

Sub-section (III).—Mileage allowances for journeys by sea or river in a steamer.

22. For the purpose of calculating mileage allowance for journeys by sea or river in a steamer, Government servants are considered to be entitled to class accommodation according to the following scale :— Classes of accommodation to which Government servants are considered to be entitled.

(a) A Government servant of the first grade.—Highest class ;

(b) A Government servant of the second grade.—If there be two classes only on the steamer, the higher class ;

if there be more than two classes, middle or second class.

(c) A Government servant of the third grade.—If there be two classes only on the steamer, the lower class ;

if there be three classes, middle or second class ;

if there be four classes, third class :

Provided that a competent authority may direct that any Government servant whose pay does not exceed Rs. 35 is entitled, for journeys generally or for particular journeys, to accommodation in the lowest class only.

(d) A Government servant of the fourth grade.—Lowest class.

NOTE.—A steam vessel of more than 90 tons gross tonnage, or one of whatever size which belongs to a regular steamer service for the conveyance of passengers at fixed fares is "a steamer" for the purpose of regulating travelling allowances.

Rates of mileage allowance.

23. The mileage allowance admissible to a Government servant of the first, second or third grade is double the fare of the class in which he is entitled to accommodation. The mileage allowance admissible to a Government servant of the fourth grade is the fare of the lowest class.

In cases where the steamer company has two rates of fare, one inclusive and one exclusive of diet, the word "fare" in this rule should be held to mean fare exclusive of diet.

Special concessions.

24. In cases of doubt or in which, owing to the arrangement of classes on a steamer, the provisions of rule 22 if strictly construed involve hardship, a competent authority may decide, for journeys generally or for particular journeys, to what class of accommodation a Government servant is entitled; and whether, if a concession is sanctioned, he should be granted the full allowance admissible for the higher class in which he is permitted to travel.

Crossing a river or arm of the sea.

25. The rules in this sub-section apply to Government servants who cross a river or arm of the sea by steamer in the course of a journey, unless such crossing occurs during a railway journey and the charge for it is included in the railway fare. In the latter case, the crossing is treated as part of the railway journey.

Travelling by Government steamer.

26. If suitable accommodation on a Government vessel is offered to a Government servant, he is entitled to travelling allowance under rule 132 and not to mileage allowance. It is not open to him to refuse to accept such accommodation and to draw mileage allowance.

Sub-section (iv).—Mileage allowance for journeys by road.

Definition of travelling by road.

27. For the purpose of these rules, travelling by road includes travelling by sea or river in any vessel other than a steamer and travelling by canal.

Ordinary mileage rates.

28. (a) For journeys by road, mileage allowance is calculated at the following rates for each mile travelled :—

A Government servant of the first grade—8 annas.

A Government servant of the second grade—4 annas.

A Government servant of the third grade—2 annas ; and

A Government servant of the fourth grade—1 anna.

(b) When a Government servant travels within the territories administered by a local Government which has fixed special rates for Government servants under its administrative control, he must draw mileage allowance at the rate so fixed for his grade.

NOTE.—Road mileage is admissible to an officer performing journeys by motor-car between places connected by rail, if any public interest is served by the road journey, which would not have been served had the officer travelled by rail, such as the savings of public time or inspection en route, etc. The necessity for such road journeys should be clearly set forth in the travelling allowance bill.

29. A competent authority may, for special reasons to be recorded, allow to a particular Government servant or class of Government servants mileage allowance at a higher rate than is prescribed in rule 28.

Special concessions.

30. In calculating mileage allowance for journeys by road, fractions of a mile should be omitted from the total of a bill for any one journey but not from the various items which make up the bill.

Treatment of fractions of a mile.

Section VI.—Daily allowance.

31. A daily allowance is a uniform allowance for each day of absence from headquarters, which is intended to cover the ordinary daily charges incurred by a Government servant in consequence of such absence.

Definition.

NOTE.—For absence from headquarters not exceeding 24 hours beginning and ending in different calendar days, a Government servant is restricted to one day's daily allowance, which may be exchanged for mileage, rail fare or steamer fare under the provision of rule 58.

32. Unless in any case it be otherwise expressly provided in these rules, a daily allowance may be drawn while on tour by every Government servant whose duties require that he should travel, and may not be drawn except while on tour.

General rule as to drawing of daily allowance.

33. (a) Daily allowances are drawn on the following scale :—

Rates of daily allowance.

(i) A Government servant of the first grade—Rs. 5.

(ii) A Government servant of the second grade—As. 4 for every Rs. 25 or fraction of Rs. 25 of his pay, subject to a maximum of Rs. 3.

(iii) A Government servant of the third grade—As. 2 for every Rs. 12½ or fraction of Rs. 12½ of his pay, subject to a minimum of As. 4.

(iv) A Government servant of the fourth grade—As. 3 if he travels in more than one province and As. 2 if he travels in one province only.

(b) When a Government servant travels within the territories administered by a local Government which has fixed special rates of daily allowance for Government servants under its administrative control, he must draw daily allowance at the rate so fixed for his grade.

NOTE.—Any individual Government servant who held, prior to the introduction of these rules, a post on progressive pay and was entitled to calculate his daily allowance on the maximum pay of such post, shall retain this privilege unless he is reduced to a lower post.

34. A competent authority may, for reasons which should be recorded and on such conditions as it may think fit to impose, sanction for any Government servant or class of Government servants a daily allowance higher or lower than that prescribed in rule 33.

Special concessions.

Section VII.—Actual expenses.

35. Unless in any case it be otherwise expressly provided in these rules, no Government servant is entitled to be provided with means of conveyance by or at the expense of Government, or to draw as travelling allowance the actual cost or part of the actual cost of travelling.

Actual expenses not admissible except under specific rule.

CHAPTER III.—Travelling allowance admission for different classes of journey.

Section VIII.—General.

Travelling allowance calculated with reference to the purpose of the journey.

36. The travelling allowance admissible to a Government servant for any journey is calculated with reference to the purpose of the journey in accordance with the rules laid down in sections IX to XX.

Recovery of cost of transporting personal luggage etc.

37. Unless in any case it be otherwise expressly provided in these rules, a Government servant making a journey for any purpose is not entitled to recover from Government the cost of transporting his family or his personal luggage, conveyances, tents and camp equipage.

Higher rates for journeys in expensive localities

38. A competent authority may, by general or special order, direct that the ordinary rates of daily allowance or mileage allowance or both shall be increased either in a definite ratio or in any other suitable manner for any or all Government servants travelling in any specified locality in which travelling is unusually expensive.

Journeys by special conveyance.

39. When a Government servant of a grade lower than the first grade is required by the order of a superior authority to travel by special means of conveyance, the cost of which exceeds the amount of the daily allowance or mileage allowance admissible to him under the ordinary rules, he may draw the actual cost of travelling in lieu of such daily or mileage allowance. The bill for the actual cost must be supported by a certificate, signed by the superior authority and countersigned by the controlling officer, that the use of the special means of conveyance was absolutely necessary and specifying the circumstances which rendered it necessary.

NOTE.—It is not intended that any general orders should be given or that any general practice should prevail allowing a certain class of officials actual expenses for all journeys performed. The fact that travelling in any particular locality is unusually expensive does not warrant the indiscriminate use of this rule.

A Government servant of the fourth grade travelling by steamer.

40. A Government servant of the fourth grade, when travelling by steamer, may draw, in addition to mileage allowance, daily allowance at double the rate ordinarily admissible to him: provided that, whatever be the nature of other journeys which may be combined with the steamer journey, no further daily allowance may be drawn for any day for which this double allowance is drawn.

Section IX.—Journey on Tour.

Sub-section (I)—General Rules.

Definition of headquarters.

41. The headquarters of a Government servant shall be in such place as a competent authority may prescribe.

Limits of sphere of duty.

42. A competent authority may define the limits of the sphere of duty of any Government servant.

Definition of tour.

43. A Government servant is on tour when absent on duty from his headquarters either within or, with proper sanction, beyond his sphere of duty. For the purposes of this section, a journey to a hill station is not treated as a journey on tour.

44. In case of doubt a competent authority may decide whether a particular absence is absence on duty for the purpose of rule 43.

Restrictions on the duration and frequency of tours.

45. A competent authority may impose such restrictions as it may think fit upon the frequency and duration of journeys to be made on tour by any Government servant or class of Government servants.

Government servants who are not entitled to travelling allowance for journeys on tour.

46. If a competent authority declares that the pay of a particular Government servant or class of Government servants has been so fixed as to compensate for the cost of all journeys, other than journeys by rail or steamer, within the Government servant's sphere of duty, such a Government servant may draw no travelling allowance for such journeys. He may, however, draw mileage allowance, or, if he be in inferior service, travelling allowance under rule 60, for journeys by rail or steamer. When travelling on duty, with proper sanction, beyond his sphere of duty, he may draw travelling allowance calculated under the ordinary rules for the entire journey, including such part of it as is within his sphere of duty.

General principles on which travelling allowance is drawn for journeys on tour.

47. The travelling allowance drawn by a Government servant on tour ordinarily takes the shape of either permanent travelling allowance or daily allowance, if either of these is admissible to him. Permanent travelling allowance and daily allowance may, however, in certain circumstances be exchanged for mileage allowance or for the whole or part of the actual cost of travelling. In certain other circumstances actual cost may be drawn in addition to daily allowance or for journeys for which no daily allowance is admissible.

Carriage of tents supplied by Government.

48. (a) A competent authority may prescribe the scale of Government tents to be supplied to any Government servant or class of Government servants for office or, if it think fit, for personal use.

(b) When such tents are used by a Government servant on tour for office purposes only, they may be carried at Government expense.

When used partly for office and partly for private purposes, the Government servant must, except as provided in rule 63, pay half the cost of carriage. When used wholly for private purposes, the Government servant must, except as provided in rule 63, pay the entire cost of carriage.

Sub-section (ii).—Government servants in receipt of permanent travelling allowance.

Actual expenses in addition to, or in exchange for, permanent travelling allowance.

49. A permanent travelling allowance is intended to cover the cost of all journeys within the sphere of duty of a Government servant who draws it, and such Government servant may not draw any other travelling allowance in place of, or in addition to, permanent travelling allowance for such journeys: provided that—

(1) a Government servant of the fourth grade and any other class of Government servants to which a competent authority may extend this concession may draw, in addition to permanent travelling allowance, single fare for a journey by rail, and

(2) a competent authority may, by general or special order, permit a Government servant whose sphere of duty extends beyond the limits of a single district to draw, in addition to permanent travelling allowance, whenever his actual travelling expenses for a duly authorised journey by public conveyance exceed double the amount of his permanent travelling allowance for the period occupied in such journey, the difference between such double permanent travelling allowance and the mileage allowance calculated for the journey.

Mileage allowance in exchange for permanent travelling allowance.

50. When a Government servant in receipt of permanent travelling allowance travels on duty, with proper sanction, beyond his sphere of duty, he may draw mileage allowance for the entire journey, including such part of it as is within his sphere of duty, and may draw, in addition, permanent travelling allowance for any day of his absence for which he does not draw mileage allowance. This rule does not apply to a Government servant who travels beyond his sphere of duty in the course of a journey from one place within that sphere to another such place, or to a Government servant who makes, by road alone, a journey not exceeding 20 miles.

Sub-section (III).—Government servants not in receipt of permanent travelling allowance.

Sub-division 1.—Daily allowance.

General rule.

51. Except where otherwise expressly provided in these rules, a Government servant not in receipt of permanent travelling allowance draws travelling allowance for journeys on tour in the shape of daily allowance.

Drawn during absence from headquarters on duty.

52. Daily allowance may not be drawn except during absence from headquarters on duty. A period of absence from headquarters begins when a Government servant actually leaves his headquarters and ends when he actually returns to the place in which his headquarters are situated, whether he halts there or not.

Distance to be travelled before daily allowance is admissible.

53. Daily allowance may not be drawn for any day on which a Government servant does not reach a point outside a radius of five miles from his heaquarters or returns to his headquarters from a similar point, even though the distance travelled over may be more than five miles.

NOTE.—This rule applies to cases where the officer comes to a halt without reaching a distance exceeding five miles from headquarters. But it does not apply when the journey is continued without interruption to a point more than five miles distant from headquarters, even though at the expiration (midnight) of the day on which he started he has not yet reached such a point.

Halts on tour.

54. Subject to the conditions laid down in rules 55 and 56, daily allowance may be drawn during a halt on tour or on a holiday occurring during a tour.

NOTE.—Daily allowance is inadmissible unless the Government servant is actually, and not merely constructively, in camp, and also when he takes casual leave while on tour.

55. Daily allowance may not be drawn for a continuous halt of more than ten days at any one place; provided that a competent authority may grant general or individual exemptions from the operation of this rule, on such conditions as it thinks fit, if it is satisfied—

(a) that prolonged halts are necessary in the interests of the public service, and

(b) that such halts necessitate the maintenance of camp equipage or, where no camp equipage is maintained, continue, after the first ten days, to entail extra expense upon the halting Government servant.

56. For the purposes of rules 53, 54 and 55:—

(a) After a continuous halt of ten days' duration, the halting place shall be regarded as the Government servant's temporary headquarters.

(b) A halt is continuous unless terminated by an absence on duty at a distance from the halting place exceeding five miles for a period including not less than three nights.

(c) In calculating the duration of a halt, any day on which the Government servant travels or halts at a distance from the halting place exceeding five miles shall be excluded. On such a day the Government servant may draw daily allowance or exchange it for mileage allowance if admissible.

Subdivision 2.—Mileage allowance and actual expenses in place of or in addition to daily allowance.

Exchange of daily allowance for mileage allowance during the whole period of a tour.

57. A competent authority may, by general or special order and on such condition as it thinks fit to impose, permit any Government servant or class of Government servants to draw mileage allowance instead of daily allowance for the whole period of any absence from headquarters, if it considers that the nature of the Government servant's duty is such that daily allowance is not sufficient to cover his travelling expenses.

Exchange of daily allowance for mileage allowance on particular journeys.

58. (a) Subject to any conditions which a competent authority may by general or special order impose, a Government servant in superior service may exchange his daily allowance for mileage allowance on any day on which—

(i) he travels by railway or steamer or both, or

(ii) he travels more than 20 miles by road;

provided that, if a continuous journey extends over more than one day, the exchange must be made for all such days and not for a part only of them.

NOTE.—Short journeys within a radius of five miles from headquarters may not be added to other journeys, when calculating the distance travelled by road or the amount of mileage allowance admissible for road journeys.

(b) When a journey by road is combined with a journey by railway or steamer under clause (a) (i) of this rule:—

(i) Mileage allowance may be drawn on account of such combined journey, but mileage in respect of the road journey is limited to the amount of daily allowance unless the journey by road exceeds twenty miles, and

(ii) unless such journey by road be a journey to or from the Government servant's headquarters, mileage allowance shall be calculated on the distance actually travelled, without regard to the points fixed by or under rule 15.

59. Subject to any conditions which a competent authority may by general or special order impose, a non-gazetted ministerial or a menial Government servant may, for any day on which he travels by public or hired conveyance under a certificate from the head of his office that he is required to do so, exchange daily allowance for mileage allowance.

Travelling allowance admissible to a Government servant in inferior service.

60. The following conditions are applicable to a Government servant in inferior service:—

(a) For a journey by railway, he may draw mileage allowance in addition to daily allowance.

(b) For a journey by steamer, he may draw travelling allowance under rule 40.

(c) For a journey by road, he may exchange daily allowance for mileage allowance if the journey exceeds 20 miles or the condition of rule 59 is fulfilled.

(d) For a journey by road combined with a journey by railway or by steamer, he may draw mileage allowance, limited as in rule 58 (b) (i) except as provided in rule 59, for the road journey, in addition to the allowances admissible under clause (a) or (b) of this rule.

Actual expenses of maintaining camp during a sudden journey away from it.

61. A competent authority may permit any Government servant, who is compelled by a sudden emergency to leave his camp and travel rapidly on duty to a place more than twenty miles distant, to draw, in addition to mileage allowance, the actual cost of maintaining his camp, whether the camp be moved or not; provided that the amount of actual cost drawn shall not exceed the daily allowance of his grade.

Actual expenses on first and last journey of an extensive tour.

62. A Government servant entitled to daily allowance, whose sphere of duty extends over a whole province, may, when making a journey of more than one hundred miles to the first or from the last camp of an extensive tour, recover, in lieu of the daily allowance admissible for the days occupied by such journey, the whole necessary cost of the journey, including the cost of transportation of camp equipment and of servants, horses, motor-cars, motor-cycles, bicycles and private baggage on such scale as a competent authority may prescribe.

Actual expenses of conveying camp equipment, etc.

63. (a) When a competent authority is satisfied that it is in the interests of the public service that a particular Government servant on tour should send his horses, camels, motor-cars, motor-cycles, bicyles or camp equipment by railway or steamer, or by country craft when no steamer service exist capable of conveying the goods or animals or when such means of carriage is cheaper or more expeditious, it may, by special order in each case, permit him to recover, in addition to mileage allowance or daily allowance or both, the actual cost or part of the actual cost of transporting them.

NOTE 1.—In the case of a motor-car, the cost of transporting a chauffeur or cleaner, and for each horse the cost of transporting one syce and one grass-cutter may be drawn.

NOTE 2.—The "term motor-cycle" in this rule includes a side-car.

NOTE 3.—The application of this rule is restricted to journeys on tour.

NOTE 4.—Cost of carriage of bicycles by rail is admissible under this rule to officers on tour within a district when it is necessary for the officer to arrive at his destination ready equipped for a further journey.

NOTE 5.—This rule refers primarily to private motor-cars. The cost of carriage of Government motor-cars is contingent expenditure.

(b) A competent authority may by general or special order prescribe limitations on the weight of camp equipment and the number of conveyances and animals to be carried at Government expense under clause (a) of this rule by a particular Government servant or class of Government servants.

Government servants whose duties require them to travel constantly by railway.

64. (a) The following provisions are applicable to any Government servant or class of Government servants whose duties involve constant travelling by railway, to whom a competent authority may declare them to be applicable.

(b) When such a Government servant makes a journey by railway on tour—

(i) He is entitled either to a free pass under the free pass rules of the railway or to the fares for himself and the servants and baggage accompanying him which a free pass would cover.

(ii) He may draw daily allowance for any day on which he is absent from headquarters for more than eight consecutive hours.

(iii) He may not exchange for mileage allowance the allowances admissible under sub-clauses (i) and (ii) of this rule.

(iv) If he combines with a railway journey a journey by steamer or road, he may, if he travels to a place distant at least five miles from the point where he leaves the railway or returns to the railway from a place similarly distant, draw mileage allowance for the journey by steamer or road, in addition to daily allowance, if any, admissible under this rule or under rule 40: provided that the time spent on the journey by steamer or road shall be deducted in calculating the duration of his absence from his headquarters.

Sub-division (3).—Travelling allowance admissible for journeys and halts within five miles of headquarters.

Conveyance hire.

65. A competent authority may, by general or special order, permit any Government servant or class of Government servants to draw the actual cost of hiring a conveyance on a journey for which no travelling allowance is admissible under these rules.

NOTE.—When conveyance hire is granted under this rule, daily allowance under rule 54 is inadmissible.

Ferry charges, tolls and railway fare.

66. A Government servant travelling on duty within five miles of his headquarters is entitled to recover the actual amounts which he may spend in payment of ferry and other tolls and fares for journeys by railway or other public conveyance.

NOTE.—If an officer while halting at headquarters and drawing allowance under rule 67 makes a journey of five miles or less, returning the same day to headquarters, he may be granted allowances under both these rules and rule 67 subject to the restriction that the total sum received shall not exceed the daily allowance.

Actual expenses of maintaining camp equipage during a halt at headquarters.

67. On the following conditions and any other conditions which it may think fit to impose, a competent authority may, by general or special order, permit any Government servant or class of Government servants to recover the actual cost of maintaining camp equipage during a halt at headquarters or within five miles of headquarters or during the interval between the Government servant's departure from or arrival at headquarters and that of his camp equipage :—

(a) The amount drawn, together with any amount recovered under rule 66, should not exceed the daily allowance of his grade.

(b) The period of the halt or interval for which it is granted should not exceed ten days. An absence on duty from the halting place for less than three nights should not be treated as interrupting the halt or interval.

(c) The Government servant must certify that he has maintained the whole or part of his camp equipage during the halt or interval and that the expense of maintenance has not been less than the amount drawn. In the case of a non-gazetted or a menial servant, the head of the office must certify that such maintenance was necessary.

NOTE.—The actual expense of keeping up camp equipage during halts at headquarters is the difference between the actual outlay incurred by an officer in maintaining the equipage during that time and the outlay he would incur if he could discharge it and had nothing to do with it till he wanted it again. Interest on capital outlay, and charges on account of depreciation and repairs as well as the up-keeping of horses, palkies, etc., used only for the conveyance of the officer on his marches, and the cost of maintaining private conveyances of any sort cannot be reckoned in "actual expenses" of keeping up camp equipage.

Sub-section (iv)—Special rules for high officers.

Ministers.

68. A minister, when travelling on tour, may recover the cost of carrying a motor-car under the conditions specified in rule 63, provided that the local Government is satisfied that the car has been employed for all practical purposes, only as a means of performing, in the public interest, a journey off the line of railway. In cases where the presence of his car with the minister has, apart from the advantages to Government of the particular tour or journey, saved him expense in hiring a conveyance or served his personal convenience to an appreciable extent, he must pay one-fifth of the cost of carriage.

69. (a) Ministers when travelling by rail are entitled to a reserved first class carriage, to railway fares actually paid for not more than ten personal servants at lowest class rates, and to the conveyance of all their personal luggage at the public expense, whether taken in the luggage-van of the train to which the reserved carriage is attached or sent by any other trains.

(b) They must pay the usual fares for any persons travelling with them in the reserved accommodation, and if Government pays full tariff rates for the reserved accommodation, such fares must be credited to Government.

(c) When travelling by road or steamer they are entitled to charge to Government their personal bonâ fide travelling expenses, appending to their bills, a certificate as follows :—

" I certify that I have actually paid the amount of this bill and that it does not include any charges for the freight of any stores or goods, other than my personal luggage, or any charge for refreshments, hotels or staging bungalows."

NOTE 1.—Stores taken for consumption on tour are treated as personal luggage.

NOTE 2.—See also rule 68.

Amount of luggage admissible.

70. Except where otherwise expressly provided in these rules, the amount of luggage which may be transported, free of cost, by a Government servant travelling in reserved accommodation is the amount covered by the number of tickets which a member of the public would have to purchase in order to reserve such accommodation.

Section X.—Journey of a newly-appointed Government servant to join his first post.

General rule.

71. Except as otherwise provided in this section travelling allowance is not admissible to any person for the journey to join his first post in Government service.

Exception.

72. A competent authority may, by general or special order, permit any person, whether appointed to a temporary or a permanent post, to draw travelling allowance for the journey to join his first post in Government service.

Concession to persons re-employed in Government service.

73. When a pensioner, or a Government servant who has been thrown out of employment owing to a reduction of establishment or the abolition of his post, is reappointed to Government service, the authority which sanctions his reappointment may permit him to draw travelling allowance for so much of his journey to join his new post as falls within India.

Concession to persons joining by sea.

74. When a person is appointed to a post in Government service which he cannot join except by sea, a competent authority may grant him a free passage by sea.

Concession to a minister.

75. When a person is appointed to be a minister he is entitled, when travelling by railway to join this post, to the concession described in rule 82.

76. Any person appointed, while resident in Europe, by the Secretary of State in Council to Government service in India, other than a person whose case is covered by rules made by the Secretary of State in Council under sections 85 and 104 of the Act, may draw mileage allowance for the journey to join his first post from any port in India at which, with the permission of the Secretary of State, he may disembark.

Concession to person appointed in Europe.

77. Travelling allowance under rules 72 and 73 should be calculated as for a journey on tour, but no allowance may be drawn for halts on the journeys.

Rates of travelling allowance under this section.

78. When mileage allowance is drawn under rules 72, 73 and 76 the rate admissible is that of the grade to which the Government servant will belong after joining his post.

Section XI.—Journeys on transfer.

79. Travelling allowance may not be drawn under this section by a Government servant on transfer from one station to another unless he is transferred for the public convenience and is entitled to pay during the period occupied by the journey. A transfer at his own request or in consequence of misconduct should not be treated as a transfer for the public convenience unless the authority sanctioning the transfer, for special reasons which should be recorded, otherwise direct.

General conditions of admissibility.

80. A Government servant may draw mileage allowance for a journey on transfer including transfer from military to civil employ.

General rule.

81. (a) Unless in any case it be otherwise expressly provided in these rules or in rules made under other sections of the Act, a Government servant in superior service is entitled, for a journey on transfer, to the following concessions:—

Special concessions to Government servants in superior service.

I.—For journeys by rail or steamer.

(i) He may draw one extra fare of the class to which his grade entitles him.

(ii) He may draw one extra fare for each adult member of his family who accompanies him and for whom full fare is actually paid and one half fare for each child for whom such fare is actually paid.

(iii) He may draw the actual cost of transporting by goods train, steamer or other craft personal effects up to the following maxima :—

Grade of Government servant.		If travelling alone.		If accompanied by family.
		Mds.
First	...	40	...	60
Second	...	20	...	30
Third	...	12	...	15

Provided that a competent authority may prescribe lower maxima in the case of any specified class of Government servants.

NOTE 1.—If a Government servant carries his personal effects by passenger, instead of by goods train, he may draw the actual cost of carriage up to a limit of the amount which would have been admissible had he taken the maximum number of maunds by goods train.

NOTE 2.—If a Government servant carries his personal effects by road between stations connected by rail or steamer he may draw actual expenses up to the limit of steamer freight or goods train freight.

(iv) Provided that—
(1) the distance travelled exceeds 80 miles;
(2) the Government servant is travelling to join a post in which the possession of a conveyance or horse is advantageous from the point of view of his efficiency; and
(3) conveyances or horses are actually carried by rail, steamer or other craft;

he may draw the actual cost of transporting at owner's risk conveyances and horses on the following scale:—

Grade of Government servant	Scale allowed.
First	Two horses, and a carriage or motor-car or motor-cylce.
Second	One horse, and a carriage or motor-cycle.
Third	One horse or a motor-cycle or ordinary cycle.

NOTE:—In the case of a motor-car the cost of transporting a chauffeur or cleaner, and for each horse the cost of transporting one syce and one grass-cutter may be drawn.

Exception.—A Government servant who travels by a Government steamer, is not entitled, for the journey by steamer, either to mileage allowance under rule 80 or to the concessions allowed by this clause. He is entitled to free transport of himself, his family, servants and their bonâ fide personal effects, and of conveyances and horses subject to the limits prescribed in sub-clause (iv); and may draw in addition the daily allowance of his grade.

II.—For a journey by road.

(i) He may draw one extra mileage allowance at the rate to which his grade entitles him.
(ii) He may draw a second extra mileage allowance if two members of his family accompany him and a third if more than two members accompany him.
(iii) For the transportation of personal effects within the limits prescribed in sub-clause I(iii) of this clause, he may draw mileage allowance at a rate to be fixed by a competent authority. This rate will be calculated on the average cost of conveying goods by the cheapest method of conveyance.

(b) The following explanations are given of terms employed in clause (a) of this rule:—
(i) The term "personal effects" is not subject to definition, but the controlling officer must satisfy himself that a claim to reimbursement on account of their transportation is reasonable.
(ii) The term "motor-cycle" includes a side-car.
(iii) A member of a Government servant's family who follows him within six months from the date of his transfer or precedes him by not more than one month may be treated as accompanying him. If such member travels to the new station from a place other than the Government servant's old station, the Government servant may draw either the actual fare for the journey made or the fare admissible for the journey from the old to the new station whichever is less.

(c) Tents supplied by Government are transported at the expense of Government. Tents purchased and maintained by a Government servant himself may be transported at the expense of Government: provided that they do not exceed a scale to be prescribed in this behalf by a competent authority as suitable to a particular Government servant or class of Government servants. If they exceed this scale, the excess may be treated as a part of personal effects.

(d) A Government servant who claims higher travelling allowance on the ground that members of his family accompanied him on transfer must support his claim by a certificate showing the numbers and relationship of the said members.

(e) A Government servant claiming the cost of transporting personal effects, a conveyance or a horse, must support his claim by a certificate that the actual expense incurred was not less than the sum claimed. Such a certificate must give details of the conveyances or horses transported.

82. When a minister after his appointment as such, travels by railway to join his post, he may, at his option, travel on the following terms, in lieu of drawing travelling allowance under the ordinary rules governing a journey on transfer:—

Journey to join the post of a minister.

(a) Any accommodation which he will be entitled, under section XXI of these rules, to reserve by requisition after joining his post will, if practicable, be placed at his disposal.

(b) The charge for haulage of the reserved accommodation will be paid by Government.

(c) He must pay to Government the fare which he would have paid if no accommodation had been reserved, and must, in addition, pay in cash to the station master of the station from which the journey commences full fares for any members of his family accompanying him, whether they share his reserved accommodation or not. When Government pays full tariff rates for the accommodation, all such fares will be credited to Government.

83. The Government servants specified in rule 64 may draw travelling allowance under that rule for journeys on transfer within the limits of the railway to which they are attached, and are entitled, in addition, to a free pass or fares for their families: provided that they must not draw daily allowance for halts in the course of the journey unless such halts are made in connection with their duty. When transferred from one railway to another, they are entitled to travelling allowance under rules 79 to 81.

Government servants whose duties involve constant travelling by railway.

84. The peons of the combined Excise and Salt Department when transferred from one district to another, are entitled, if accompanied by their families, to mileage allowance at the following special rates:—

Concession to peons of the combined Excise and Salt Department.

(a) For a journey by railway or steamer, double fare of the lowest class.

(b) For a journey by road, two annas for each mile travelled.

(c) For a journey by boat, one anna for each mile travelled.

Inferior servants.

85. Except as provided in rule 84, a Government servant in inferior service is entitled on transfer to draw travelling allowance as for a journey on tour.

Government servant appointed to a new post while in transit.

86. A Government servant appointed to a new post while in transit from one post to another is entitled to draw travelling allowance under this section for so much of the journey on transfer as he has accomplished when he receives the fresh orders and for the journey from the place at which he receives such orders to his new station.

Government servant taking short leave before joining a new post.

87. A Government servant who takes leave, not exceeding four months, after he has given over charge of his old post and before he has taken charge of his new post is entitled, whether the order of transfer is received before or after the commencement of his leave, to travelling allowance under this section.

Government servant taking long leave while in transit.

88. A Government servant who takes leave exceeding four months while in transit from one post to another may draw travelling allowance under rule 81(a), I (i) and (ii) and II (i) and (ii) for so much of the journey to join the new post as he has accomplished before the order granting his leave is received, in addition to any allowance admissible under rule 89.

Government servant posted to a new station on return from long leave.

89. When on return from leave exceeding four months a Government servant is posted to a station other than that at which he was posted when he went on leave, the controlling officer may permit him to recover the travelling allowance admissible, under sub-clauses I (iii) and (iv) and II (iii) of rule 81 (a), for a journey from his old to his new station.

Section XII.—Journey to a hill station.

90. Special rules, which are not included in these rules, govern the grant of travelling allowance to Government servants moving to hill stations with the headquarters of a Government.

Journey made under the orders of superior authority.

91. A Government servant, other than a Government servant moving with the headquarters of a Government, who travels on duty to a hill station within his sphere of duty or is required by the orders of a superior authority to travel to a hill station on duty, may draw travelling allowance during his absence as for a journey on tour. Such a Government servant will, however, forfeit all claim to travelling allowance for the journey and halt, other than permanent travelling allowance, if he prolongs his stay at the hill station beyond a period of ten days or the period necessary for the performance of the duty on which the journey is made, whichever is less: provided that a a competent authority may preserve the Government servant's claim to travelling allowance by—

(a) sanctioning a halt, in excess of ten days, or

(b) officially intimating that his presence was required on duty throughout the period or that he was permitted to extend his stay during holidays immediately following his period of duty.

A Government servant performing his duties at a hill station for his own convenience.

92. When a Government servant is permitted for his own convenience to perform his duties at a hill station, he is not entitled to daily allowance or mileage allowance for the journey to or from such station or for the period during which he halts at it.

Section XIII.—Journey to attend an examination.

93. A Government servant is entitled to draw travelling allowance for the journey to and from the place at which he appears for an examination of any of the following kinds :— General rules.

(a) An obligatory departmental or language examination.

(b) An examination held under any rules in force in the vernacular language of a frontier, or hill tribe.

(c) In the case of a military officer in civil employ, an examination for promotion in military rank.

(d) In the case of a civil assistant surgeon or sub-assistant surgeon, an examination designed to test his fitness to rise above an efficiency bar in a time-scale.

Provided that—

(1) travelling allowance shall not be drawn under this rule more than twice for any particular examination or standard of examination ; and

(2) a competent authority may disallow travelling allowance under this rule to any candidate who in its opinion—

(i) has culpably neglected the duty of preparing himself for an obligatory examination, or

(ii) does not display a reasonable standard of proficiency in an examination which is not obligatory.

94. A Government servant who obtains a reward for proficiency in an oriental language or who for the first time obtains a degree of honour in any language is entitled to draw mileage allowance for the journey to and from the place of examination. Government servants obtaining a reward for proficiency in an oriental language.

95. A competent authority may permit a Government servant to draw travelling allowance for the journey to and from the place at which he appears for any examination other than those specified in rules 93 and 94. Special concessions.

96. Travelling allowance under rules 93 and 95 should be calculated as for a journey on tour, but no allowance may be drawn for halts on the journeys. Rates of travelling allowance under this section.

Section XIV.—Journey when proceeding on or returning from leave.

97. Except as otherwise provided in these rules, a Government servant is not entitled to any travelling allowance for a journey made during leave or while proceeding on or returning from leave. General rule.

98. A competent authority may, for special reasons which should be recorded, permit any Government servant to draw, for a journey of the kind specified in rule 97, travelling allowance as for a journey on tour. Exception.

99. A military officer in civil employ, when proceeding to the United Kingdom on leave on medical certificate or returning therefrom, is entitled to the same concessions which he would receive in military employ : provided that he is not entitled to a certificate in military form E, which gives him the right to travel in a class of railway carriage higher than that for which he pays the fare. Concessions to military officers in civil employ.

100. Subject to the proviso in rule 99, a military sub-assistant surgeon in civil employ, when proceeding on or returning from leave of not less than six months' duration, is entitled to the same concessions which he would receive if he were in military employ.

101. A military officer in civil employ, being a departmental or warrant officer, when proceeding on or returning from leave on medical certificate, is entitled to the same concessions which he would receive in military employ.

Concessions to survey subordinates.

102. A competent authority may exercise the following powers:—

(a) He may grant such rail and steamer fares as he considers necessary to khalasis and other menials proceeding on or returning from leave of any kind. Such fares should be paid for the journey to or from the place at which each menial was recruited.

(b) He may grant such travelling allowance as he considers necessary to subordinates when proceeding on or returning from leave if their homes are situated in provinces other than those in which they are employed.

Government servant recalled to duty from leave.

103. (a) When a Government servant is compulsorily recalled to duty before the expiry of his leave and the leave is thereby curtailed by not less than one month, he is entitled to draw mileage allowance for the journey from the place at which the order of recall reaches him or, if the journey involves travelling by sea, from the port at which he lands in India, to the station to which he is recalled. If the period by which the leave is curtailed is less than a month, mileage allowance may be allowed at the discretion of the authority recalling the Government servant.

(b) If the Government servant recalled to duty is entitled to travelling allowance under rule 87, he may not draw mileage allowance under clause (a) unless he abandons his claims to the mileage allowance specified in rules 80 and 81 (a) I (i) and II (i).

104. If a non-gazetted Government servant, on compulsory recall from leave exceeding four months, is posted to a station other than that from which he went on leave, he may, if his pay after transfer does not exceed Rs. 400 and if his new station is distant more than 50 miles from his old station, draw, in addition to the allowance admissible under rule 89, travelling allowance for his family under rule 81 for the journey from the place at which the order of recall reaches him to the new station: provided that the amount so drawn shall not exceed the amount admissible under rule 81 for the journey from the old to the new station.

Travelling allowance during joining time under fundamental rule 105 (d.)

105. A Government servant on joining time under fundamental rule 105(d) may draw travelling allowance for the journey as for a journey on transfer.

Section XV.—Journey on retirement, dismissal or termination of employment.

General restrictions.

106. Unless in any case it be otherwise expressly provided in this section, no person is entitled to any travelling allowance for a journey made after retirement or dismissal from Government service or after the termination of such service.

Exception.

107. A competent authority may, for special reasons which should be recorded, permit any Government servant to draw travelling allowance for a journey of the kind mentioned in rule 106.

108. When a minister after his appointment as such travels by railway on retiring from the service, he is entitled, if he so desires, to the concession described in Rule 82.

Concessions to ministers.

109. A competent authority may grant such rail and steamer fares as he considers necessary to a discharged khalasi or other menial for the journey to the place at which the menial was enlisted.

Concessions to survey subordinates.

110. A military officer in civil employ, being a departmental or a warrant officer, on retirement after service which has earned a pension or gratuity, is entitled to the same right as regards a free passage as if he were retiring from military employ.

Concessions to military officers in civil employ.

111. A person temporarily employed in Government service who has received travelling allowance for the journey to join his post, may, on the termination of his employment, be allowed to draw travelling allowance for the journey to any place: provided that such allowance does not exceed the travelling allowance calculated for the journey to the place at which he was engaged that the claim to draw travelling allowance is preferred within three months of the termination of his employment and that the officer under whom he is employed is satisfied that he intends to make the journey.

Concessions to Government servants temporarily employed.

112. Travelling allowance under rules 107 and 111 should be calculated as for a journey on tour, but no allowance may be drawn for halts on the journeys.

Rates of travelling allowance under this section.

Section XVI.—Journey to give evidence.

113. The following provisions apply to a Government servant who is summoned to give evidence in British India—

Journey to give evidence of facts of which he has official knowledge.

(a) in a criminal case, a case before a court-martial, a civil case to which Government is a party or a departmental inquiry held by a properly constituted authority in British India, or

(b) before a court in an Indian state or in foreign territory:

provided that the facts as to which he is to give evidence have come to his knowledge in the discharge of his public duties:—

(i) He may draw travelling allowance as for a journey on tour, attaching to his bill a certificate of attendance given by the court or other authority which summoned him.

(ii) When he draws such travelling allowance, he may not accept any payment of his expenses from the court or authority. Any fees which may be deposited in the court for the travelling and subsistence allowance of the witness must be credited to Government.

(iii) If the court in which he gives evidence is situated within five miles of his headquarters and no travelling allowance is therefore admissible for the journey, he may, if he be not in receipt of permanent travelling allowance, accept such payment of actual travelling expenses as the court may make.

NOTE.—A Government servant summoned to give evidence while on leave or under suspension is entitled to the concessions described in this rule.

114. A Government servant summoned to give evidence in circumstances other than those described in rule 113 is not entitled, by reason of his position as a Government servant, to any payments other than those admissible by the rules of the court. If the court pays him any sum as subsistence allowance or compensation, apart from payment for travelling expenses, he must credit that sum to Government before drawing full pay for the day or days of absence.

Other cases.

Section XVII.—Journey to obtain medical advice.

General rule.

115. If in order to obtain medical advice, a Government servant is compelled to leave a station at which he is posted and at which there is no medical officer of Government and travel to another station, he may, on production of a certificate from the medical officer consulted that the journey was, in his opinion, absolutely necessary, draw travelling allowance for the journey.

Journey to obtain medical certificate.

116. If a Government servant is compelled to travel to another station in order to obtain a medical certificate in support of his application for leave, he may draw travelling allowance for the journey; but he may not draw travelling allowance for a journey to obtain the countersignature of a medical officer of Government on such a certificate.

NOTE.—Travelling allowance is not admissible for a journey to procure a health certificate on first appointment to Government service.

Previous permission necessary if obtainable.

117. The journeys contemplated by rules 115 and 116 should not be undertaken without the previous permission of the controlling officer, if such permission can be obtained without risk to the Government servant requiring medical advice.

Journey to appear before a medical board preliminary to retirement.

118. (a) A Government servant who is directed by his official superior, in the interests of the public service, to apply for an invalid pension may, if he be required to make a journey in order to appear before a medical board, draw his actual travelling expenses, subject to a maximum of the amount of travelling allowance calculated for the journey. If it be necessary for him to return to his headquarters after appearing before the medical board, he may draw his actual expenses subject to the same maximum. In both cases his travelling allowance bill must be supported by a certificate that he was directed to apply for an invalid pension in the interests of the public service and that he did not voluntarily ask to retire.

(b) A competent authority may allow actual expenses as limited by clause (a) of this rule, to be drawn by a Government servant who voluntarily applies for an invalid pension: provided that the authority is satisfied that the circumstances of the applicant are such as to justify the concession.

Journey to appear before a medical board in other circumstances.

119. Except as provided in rule 118 no travelling allowance is admissible for a journey undertaken in order to appear before a medical board.

Rates of travelling allowance under this section.

120. Travelling allowance under rules 115, 116, and 118 (a) should be calculated as for a journey on tour, but no allowance may be drawn for halts on the journeys.

Section XVIII.—Journey in attendance on an incapacitated Government servant.

121. If a Government servant, under the advice of a civil surgeon or other medical officer of Government whose duty it is to attend him professionally, is required to travel to a presidency town or elsewhere, either when proceeding on leave or in order to obtain further medical advice, and the medical officer considers that it would be unsafe for him to make the journey unattended, the medical officer may either himself accompany the patient to his destination or arrange that some other person shall do so. In that case, the attendant, if a Government servant, shall be deemed to have been travelling on duty and may draw travelling allowance for the outward and return journey as for a journey on tour; if not a Government servant, he shall be entitled to actual expenses.

Section XIX.—Journey on a course of training.

122. When a Government servant or a student not already in Government service is selected to undergo a course of training, a competent authority may decide the scale, if any, on which he shall draw—

(a) travelling allowance for the original journey to and the last journey from the place of training, and for halts at such place;

(b) in the case of training at a school, college or similar institution, travelling allowance for similar journeys on the occasion of holidays and vacations; and

(c) travelling allowance for journeys during the course of training:

provided that the scale so fixed shall not exceed that admissible to Government servants of similar status on duty at the place of training.

Section XX.—Journey to attend a darbar or levee.

123. A Government servant who is permitted to attend a darbar or a levee elsewhere than at his headquarters may draw travelling allowance for the journey as for a journey on tour.

CHAPTER IV.—Travelling allowance admissible when means of transport are supplied without cost to the Government servant travelling.

Section XXI.—Supply of free accommodation on railway journeys.

124. The procedure to be followed in submitting a requisition for reserved accommodation shall be such as may be prescribed by the Railway Board. Procedure of requisition.

125. When a Government servant travels in a carriage reserved by requisition, the carriage is entirely at his disposal and may be detached and detained at any railway station at his request. Effect of requisition of a carriage.

126. The issue of free passes for journeys by railway is regulated by rules made in this behalf by the Railway Board. Free passes.]

Section XXII.—Travelling allowance admissible when the whole or part of the means of conveyance is supplied without charge:

Sub-section (i).—Journeys by railway.

127. The travelling allowance admissible to a Government servant who makes a journey by rail in accommodation reserved by requisition is prescribed in sub-section (iv) of section IX and elsewhere in these rules. Journeys made by railway in accommodation reserved by requisition.

Free transit by railway otherwise than in accommodation reserved by requisition.

128. When a Government servant is entitled to or is allowed free transit by railway otherwise than accommodation reserved by requisition, whether on a free pass or otherwise, the mileage allowance which he draws for the journey must be reduced by the amount of the fare which, but for such free transit, he would have paid. This rule applies to cases in which a free pass is issued on any railway, whether worked by Government or not. The reduction made must include the full number of fares covered by the pass, unless the Government servant certifies that he did not use the pass in respect of any fare or fares for which no reduction is made.

NOTE.—The circumstances under which a free pass may be given are irrelevant and it is immaterial whether it is held by the officer in his official capacity or not.

Government servant in receipt of permanent travelling allowance.

129. When a Government servant in receipt of permanent travelling allowance uses a free pass on a railway or on a company steamer within his sphere of duty, he must deduct from his permanent travelling allowance for the month the amount of the railway or steamer fares which he would have paid if he had not travelled on a pass.

Government servant entitled to travelling in a higher class on payment of a lower fare.

130. When a Government servant is permitted to travel by railway in a higher class on payment of a lower fare, his mileage allowance must be reduced by the amount by which the fare of the class in which he travels exceeds the fare actually paid.

Government servant travelling with a free pass on an unopened line of railway.

131. A Government servant travelling with a free pass on an unopened line of railway is entitled to the travelling allowance prescribed in rule 134 as limited by rule 136.

Sub-section (II).—Journeys by sea or river in a steamer.

Journey by Government vessel.

132. When a Government servant travels by sea or river, otherwise than on payment of passage money, in a steamer the cost of which is paid by Government or by a local fund, he may draw no travelling allowance except the daily allowance of his grade: provided that, when his servants and luggage are not conveyed on the vessel but are sent separately at his expense, he may draw in addition the actual cost of transporting them.

133. When a Government servant is allowed free transit by steamer, otherwise than in a Government vessel, the mileage allowance which he draws for the journey must be reduced by the amount of the fare which, but for such free transit, he would have paid. If he travels on a free pass, the reduction made must include the full number of fares covered by the pass unless the Government servant certifies that he did not use the pass in respect of any fare or fares for which no reduction is made.

Sub-section (III).—Other journeys.

Free transit by boat, road, etc.

134. Except where otherwise expressly provided in this section, when, on a journey other than a journey by railway or by steamer, a Government servant uses a means of locomotion provided at the expense of Government, a local fund or an Indian State, and does not pay the cost of its use or propulsion, he is entitled to travelling allowance as follows :—

(a) If he has not to provide separate conveyance at his own expense for his servants or luggage, he may draw the daily allowance of his grade and may not exchange it for mileage allowance. If, however, part of the journey is made by other means of locomotion, he may at his option draw in lieu of daily allowance the mileage allowance admissible for that part.

(b) If he has to provide separate conveyance at his own expense for his servants or luggage, he may, if the conditions of rule 58 or 59 are fulfilled, exchange his daily allowance for half the mileage allowance calculated for the journey and draw in addition the mileage allowance admissible for any part of the journey made by other means of locomotion.

When the Government servant pays the cost of propulsion.

135. When a Government servant is provided with means of locomotion as in rule 134, but pays all the cost of its use or propulsion, he may draw travelling allowance under the ordinary rules, subject to the deduction of such fixed hire or charge as a competent authority may fix.

Exception.

136. The provisions of rules 134 and 135 do not apply to a Government servant of the fourth grade or to any other Government servant or class of Government servants to whom a competent authority may declare them to be inapplicable.

Journey by Government motor-car.

137. A Government servant, who travels by a motor-car which has been supplied to him at the expense of Government on the condition that he himself bears the ordinary cost of maintenance, may draw travelling allowance as for a journey on tour, but the amount of the mileage allowance which he may draw is limited by the following conditions:—

(a) If he travels by the motor-car more than 20 miles in one day, he may draw for the first 20 miles the mileage allowance of his grade and for the remainder of the journey three-fourths of such mileage allowance.

(b) If he combines with a journey by the motor-car a road journey by other conveyance, he may draw the mileage allowance admissible for the first 20 miles or for the journey by other conveyance whichever is greater, and for the remainder of the journey three-fourths of such mileage allowance.

(c) If he combines with a journey by road, whether made wholly or partly in the motor-car, a journey by railway or steamer, he may draw mileage allowance for the journey by railway or steamer in addition to the allowances admissible under clauses (a) and (b) of this rule for the journey by road.

Chauffeurs of Government motor-cars.

138. The chauffeur of a motor-car supplied at the expense of Government, when making a journey by road on the motor-car in his charge may draw travelling allowance under the provisions of rule 134(a) if the journey involves an absence of at least one night from his headquarters. For a journey which does not involve such an absence he is entitled to no travelling allowance.

CHAPTER V.—Grant of travelling allowance to persons who are not in the Civil Service of the Crown.

Section XXIII.—Government servants in military employ.

General rule.

139. Except as provided in rule 140, the travelling allowance admissible to Government servants in military employ is governed by military regulations.

Military officers invited to attend a darbar or levee.

140. When a commissioned Indian military officer of the regular forces, whether on the active or the retired list, is invited to attend a darbar or levee at a place other than that at which he is stationed or has his residence, a competent authority may grant him travelling allowance for the journey subject to the following limits:—

(a) For the journey from his station or place of residence to the place at which the darbar or levee is held and thence back to his starting point, single railway and steamer fares actually paid, and actual travelling expenses for journeys by road subject to the maximum admissible to a Government servant of the first grade.

(b) For halts at the place at which the darbar or levee is held, a daily allowance of Rs. 3.

Section XXIV.—Other persons.

Persons attending commissions of inquiry, etc.

141. (a) When any person, not being a Government servant, is required to attend any meeting of a commission of inquiry or of a board, conference, committee or departmental inquiry convened under proper authority, or is required to perform any public duties in an honorary capacity, a competent authority may grant him travelling allowance for the journey calculated under the ordinary rules for the journey of a Government servant on tour, and for this purpose may declare, by general or special order, the grade to which such person shall be considered to belong.

(b) In a case of the kind contemplated by clause (a) of this rule, a competent authority may, in its discretion, grant to the person concerned his actual travelling, hotel and carriage expenses instead of travelling allowance under that clause.

(c) A competent authority may delegate the power conferred upon it by clause (a) of this rule to the Government servant presiding over the meeting of the commission or other body which the person concerned is required to attend.

CHAPTER VI.—Controlling Officers.

Section XXV.—Signature on travelling allowance bills.

Controlling officer to be declared by competent authority.

142. A competent authority shall declare what authority shall be the controlling officer, for travelling allowance purposes, of each Government servant or class of Government servants. It may, if it think fit, declare that any particular Government servant shall be his own controlling officer.

Signature of controlling officer necessary on a travelling allowance bill.

143. Except as provided in rule 144, no bill for travelling allowance, other than permanent travelling allowance, shall be paid unless it be signed or countersigned by the controlling officer of the Government servant who presents it.

Exceptions.

144. The following Government servants may present bills for travelling allowance without the countersignature of the controlling officer :—

Non-gazetted Government servants : provided that detailed and countersigned bills are subsequently submitted to the audit officer for adjustment.

Delegation of duty of countersignature.

145. Except where expressly permitted by a competent authority, a controlling officer may not delegate to a subordinate his duty of countersignature.

Section XXVI.—Duties and powers.

146. It is the duty of a controlling officer, before signing or countersigning a travelling allowance bill—

(a) to scrutinise the necessity, frequency and duration of journeys and halts for which travelling allowance is claimed, and to disallow the whole or any part of the travelling allowance claimed for any journey or halt if he considers that a journey was unnecessary or unduly protracted or that a halt was of excessive duration;

(b) to scrutinise carefully the distances entered in travelling allowance bills;

(c) to satisfy himself that, where the actual cost of transporting servants, personal effects, etc, is claimed under these rules, the scale on which such servants, effects, etc., were transported was reasonable; and to disallow any claim which, in his opinion, does not fulfil that condition;

(d) to check any tendency to abuse the option of exchanging daily allowance for mileage allowance; and

(e) to observe any subsidiary rules which a competent authority may make for his guidance.

Minister in charge: The Hon'ble Nawab Saiyid Nawab Ali Chaudhuri, Khan Bahadur, C.I.E. (Ministry of Agriculture and Public Works).

No. 19452F., dated the 23rd December 1921.—In exercise of the powers conferred by rules 44 and 93 read with rule 5 of the Fundamental Rules, His Excellency the Governor is pleased to make the following rules governing the drawing of compensatory allowances by officers under the administrative control of the local Government.

1. Subject, in respect of house-rent allowance, to the provisions of rules 3 and 4, a compensatory allowance attached to a post will be drawn in full by the Government servant performing the duties of that post.

2. A compensatory allowance other than a house-rent allowance may be drawn up to a maximum period of four months by a Government servant who takes leave on average pay from the post to which the allowance is attached or is transferred therefrom for not more than four months to another post, as well as by the Government servant performing the duties of the post to which the allowance is attached; provied that—

(1) the authority sanctioning the leave or transfer, as the case may be, certifies that the Government servant is likely to return, on the expiry of his leave or his temporary duty, to the post to which the allowance is attached or to another post carrying a similar allowance; and

(2) the Government servant certifies that he continues to incur the whole or a considerable part of the expense to meet which the allowance was granted.

3. A house-rent allowance may be drawn by a Government servant on leave or transfer in the circumstances specified in rule 2; provided that he certifies that his previous rate of expenditure for a house continues during his absence and that he places his house, free of rent, at the disposal of the Government servant, if any, who officiates in his post. The officiating Government servant cannot in such case draw the house-rent allowance attached to the post. If, however, the officiating Government servant, for a reason which the local Government considers to be sufficient, refuses the accommodation placed at his disposal, he, and not the absent Government servant, will draw the allowance.

This rule does not apply to any Government servant admitted to the benefits of the Calcutta House Allowance Scheme, in so far as it is inconsistent with the rules governing that scheme.

No. 19453F., dated the 23rd December 1921.—In exercise of the powers conferred by rule 45 (d) read with rule 5 of the Fundamental Rules, His Excellency the Governor is pleased to make the following rule prescribing the principles on which rent shall be assessed in the case of Government servants, who, owing to the nature of their duties, occupy Government residences for a part only of the year.

1. When, owing to the nature of his duties, a Government servant occupies a Government residence for a part only of the year, he shall pay rent for the period of his occupation. The amount of rent payable shall be the amount that would be payable by the same Government servant under clause (b) or (c) of fundamental rule 45 as the rent of that residence for the period of occupation.

No. 19454F., dated the 23rd December 1921.—In exercise of the powers conferred by rule 47 read with rule 5 of the Fundamental Rules, His Excellency the Governor is pleased to make the following rules dealing with the grant of honoraria to, and the acceptance of honoraria and fees by Government servants under the administrative control of the local Government.

1. Subject to the conditions prescribed in rules 2 to 6, a competent authority may sanction the grant of an honorarium from general revenues to a Government servant under its administrative control or the acceptance by such a Government servant of an honorarium or a fee from a source other than general revenues. No Government servant may accept an honorarium or fee without such sanction.

2. The amount of an honorarium or fee must be fixed with due regard to the value of the service in return for which it is given.

3. When the service rendered falls within the scope of the ordinary duties of the Government servant performing it, the test of exceptional merit prescribed in fundamental rule 46 must be very strictly applied.

4. Sanction must not be given to the acceptance of an honorarium or fee from a source other than general revenues unless the work for which it is offered has been undertaken with the knowledge and sanction of a competent authority, who must certify that its performance will involve no detriment to the official duties of the Government servant performing it.

5. When an honorarium or fee is paid from a source other than general revenues for work done by a Government servant during time which would otherwise be spent in the performance of official duties, the honorarium or fee must be credited to general revenues; provided that a competent authority may, for special reasons which should be recorded, direct that the whole or any part of it may be paid to the Government servant.

6. When a Government servant of an educational service is permitted to receive fees for private tuition, the financial limits of the powers of sanction accorded to a competent authority shall be considered to apply to the total amount of fees to be accepted by such Government servant during any particular scholastic term or vacation.

7. No Government servant may act as an arbitrator in any case which is likely to come before him in any shape by virtue of any judicial or executive post which he may be holding.

8. A Government servant called upon by a court of law to act as a commission to give evidence on technical matters may comply with the request, provided that the case is not of such a nature as will be likely to come before him in the course of his official duties, and may accept such fees as are fixed by the court.

1. Any leave, other than special disability leave admissible under the fundamental rules, may be granted to a non-gazetted Government servant by the authority whose duty it would be to fill up his post if it were vacant.

2. No leave may be granted to a gazetted Government servant until a report as to the admissibility of the leave has been obtained from the audit officer.

3. On the receipt of such a report, any leave, other than special disability leave, admissible under the fundamental rules, may be granted to a gazetted Government servant by a competent authority.

Minister in charge: The Hon'ble Nawab Saiyid Nawab Ali Chaudhuri, Khan Bahadur, C.I.E. (Ministry of Agriculture and Public Works).

No. 19456F., dated the 23rd December 1921.—In exercise of the powers conferred by rule 68 read with rule 5 of the Fundamental Rules, His Excellency the Governor is pleased to make the following rules dealing with the combination of holidays with leave and joining time by officers under the administrative control of the local Government.

1. When the day immediately preceding the day on which a Government servant's leave begins or immediately following the day on which his leave or joining time expires is a holiday or one of a series of holidays, the Government servant may leave his station at the close of the day before, or return to it on the day following, such holiday or series of holidays; provided that—

(a) his transfer or assumption of charge does not involve the handing or taking over of securities or of monies other than a permanent advance;

(b) his early departure does not entail a correspondingly early transfer from another station of a Government servant to perform his duties, and

(c) the delay in his return does not involve a corresponding delay in the transfer to another station of the Government servant who was performing his duties during his absence, or in the discharge from Government service of a person temporarily appointed to it.

2. On condition that the departing Government servant remains responsible for the monies in his charge, a competent authority may declare that proviso (a) under rule 1 is not applicable to any particular case.

3. Unless the competent authority in any case otherwise direct—

(a) if holidays are prefixed to leave, the leave and any consequent re-arrangement of pay and allowances take effect from the first day after the holidays, and

(b) if holidays are affixed to leave or joining time, the leave or joining time is treated as having terminated on, and any consequent re-arrangement of pay and allowances takes effect from, the day on which the leave or joining time would have ended if holidays had not been affixed.

The Governor-General in Council has made the following rules under rule 71 of the Fundamental Rules and they are in force in Bengal.

1. The Government servant who has taken leave in Asia on medical certificate may not return to duty until he has produced a medical certificate of fitness in the following form:—

"I, A. B.,_________ _____ do hereby certify that I have examined C. D. of the Department and that I consider him fit to resume his duties in Government service.

2. If the Government servant on leave is a gazetted officer, such certificate should be signed by a commissioned medical officer or a medical officer in charge of a civil station. If the Government servant on leave is not a gazetted officer, the competent authority may, in its discretion, accept a certificate signed by any registered medical practitioner.

Minister in charge: The Hon'ble Mr. P. C. Mitter, C.I.E. (Ministry of Education).
Minister in charge: The Hon'ble Nawab Saiyid Nawab Ali Chaudhuri, Khan Bahadur, C.I.E. (Ministry of Agriculture and Public Works).

No. 19457F., dated the 23rd December 1921.—In exercise of the powers conferred by rule 74(a) (i) and (ii) read with rule 5 of the Fundamental Rules, His Excellency the Governor is pleased to make the following rules prescribing the procedure to be followed in Bengal in connection with leave.

Section I.—Leave-Accounts.

1. The leave-account required by fundamental rule 76 shall be maintained in such form as the Auditor-General may prescribe.

2. (a) The leave-account of a gazetted Government servant shall be maintained by, or under the direction of, the principal auditor responsible for the audit of his pay.

(b) The leave-account of a non-gazetted Government servant shall be maintained by the head of the office in which he is employed.

Section II.—Application for leave.

3. Except as provided in rule 4 an application for leave or for an extension of leave shall be made to the authority competent to grant such leave or extension.

4. An application by a commissioned medical officer in permanent or temporary civil employ for leave exceeding four months, other than leave on medical certificate, or for an extension of such leave, must be submitted to the local administrative medical officer, by whom it will be forwarded to the Director-General, Indian Medical Service. The Director-General will countersign the application, if the state of the public service admits of the grant of the leave; otherwise, he will abstain from countersigning it. In either case, he will forward the application for disposal to the authority competent to grant the leave

5. A Government servant transferred to foreign service must, before taking up his duties in foreign service, make himself acquainted with the rules or arrangements which will regulate his leave during such service.

Section III.—Medical certificates.

General rules.

6. Medical officers must not recommend the grant of leave in any case in which there appears to be no reasonable prospect that the Government servant concerned will ever be fit to resume his duties. In such cases, the opinion that the Government servant is permanently unfit for Government service should be recorded in the medical certificate.

7. Every certificate of a medical committee or a medical officer recommending the grant of leave to a Government servant must contain a proviso that no recommendation contained in it shall be evidence of a claim to any leave not admissible to the Government servant under the terms of his contract or of the rules to which he is subject.

Procedure in the case of gazetted Government servants.

8. Before a gazetted Government servant can be granted leave, or an extension of leave, on medical certificate, he must obtain a certificate in the following form or as nearly in that form as the circumstances permit:—

"I, A. B., Surgeon at (or of)............do hereby certify that C. D. of the...........service (or Department), is in a bad state of health, and I solemnly and sincerely declare that, according to the best of my judgment, a change of air is essentially necessary to his recovery, and do therefore recommend that he may be permitted to proceed to.................. ...."

This certificate should be accompanied by a statement of the Government servant's case in such form as the local Government may prescribe.

9. Having secured such a certificate, the Government servant must, except in cases covered by rule 12, obtain the permission of the head of his office or, if he himself is the head of an office, of the head of his department to appear before a medical committee. He should then present himself with two copies of the statement of his case before such a committee. The committee will be assembled under the orders of the Administrative Medical Officer of the province, who will, where practicable, preside over it. The committee will be assembled either at the headquarters of the province or at such other place as the local Government may appoint.

10. Before the required leave or extension of leave can be granted, the Government servant must obtain from the committee a certificate to the following effect:—

"We do hereby certify that, according to the best of our professional judgment, after careful personal examination of the case, we consider the health of C. D. to be such as to render leave of absence for a period of.............. months absolutely necessary for his recovery."

11. Before deciding whether to grant or refuse the certificate, the committee may, in a doubtful case, detain the applicant under professional observation for a period not exceeding fourteen days. In that case it should grant to him a certificate to the following effect:—

"C. D. having applied to us for a medical certificate recommending the grant to him of leave, we consider it expedient, before granting or refusing such a certificate, to detain C. D. under professional observation for......... ... days."

12. If the state of the applicant's health is certified by a commissioned medical officer of Government or by a medical officer in charge of a civil station to be such as to make it inconvenient for him to present himself at any place in which a committee can be assembled, the authority competent to grant the leave may accept, in lieu of the certificate prescribed in rule 10, either :—

(a) a certificate signed by any two medical officers, being commissioned medical officers or medical officers in charge of civil stations, in whatsover province they may be serving; or

(b) if the authority considers it unnecessary to require the production of two medical opinions, a certificate signed by an officer in medical charge of a civil station and countersigned by the Collector of the District or the Commissioner of the Division.

13. The grant of a certificate under rule 10 or 12 does not in itself confer upon the Government servant concerned any right to leave. The certificate should be forwarded to the authority competent to grant the leave, and the orders of that authority should be awaited.

Procedure in the case of non-gazetted Government servants in superior service.

14. An application by a non-gazetted Government servant in superior service for leave, or for an extension of leave, on medical certificate, must be accompanied by a certificate from the applicant's medical attendant. Such certificate should distinctly state the nature of the illness, its symptoms, probable causes and duration, and the period of absence from duty considered to be absolutely necessary for the restoration of the applicant's health. It should be countersigned by a Presidency Surgeon, if the applicant is in a Presidency town; otherwise, by the officer in chief medical charge of the district in which the applicant resides. The authority competent to grant the leave may, however, in its discretion accept a certificate from the applicant's medical attendant without such countersignature; or, if the applicant be a female, may either dispense with countersignature or accept the countersignature of any female medical practitioner.

15. No certificate should be submitted for countersignature without the cognisance of the head of the office in which the applicant is serving.

16. The countersigning officer may, in his discretion, require the applicant to appear before him, unless it appears from the certificate of his medical attendant that he is too ill to bear the journey. In the latter case, the officer may, after careful investigation of the case, either countersign the certificate or refuse to do so, as he thinks fit.

Procedure in the case of non-gazetted Government servants in inferior service.

17. In support of an application for leave, or for an extension of leave on medical certificate from a non-gazetted Government servant in inferior service, the authority competent to grant the leave may accept such certificate as it may deem sufficient.

Section. IV.—Grant of Leave.

18. In cases where all applications for leave cannot, in the interests of the public service, be granted, an authority competent to grant leave should, in deciding which application should be granted, take into account the following considerations:—

(a) The Government servants who can, for the time being, best be spared.

(b) The amount of leave due to the various applicants.

(c) The amount and character of the service rendered by each applicant since he last returned from leave.

(d) The fact that any such applicant was compulsorily recalled from his last leave.

(e) The fact that any such applicant has been refused leave in the public interests.

19. When a medical committee in India has reported that there is no reasonable prospect that a particular Government servant will ever be fit to return to duty, leave should not necessarily be refused to such Government servant. It may be granted, if due, by a competent authority on the following conditions:—

(a) If the medical committee is unable to say with certainty that the Government servant will never be fit for service in India again, leave not exceeding twelve months in all may be granted. Such leave should not be extended without a further reference to a medical committee.

(b) If the medical committee declares the Government servant to be completely and permanently incapacitated for further service in India, the Government servant should, except as provided in clause (c) below, be invalided from the service, either on the expiration of the leave already granted to him, if he is on leave when examined by the committee, or, if he is not on leave, from the date of the committee's report.

(c) A Government servant declared by a committee to be completely and permanently incapacitated may, in special cases, be granted leave, or an extension of leave, not exceeding six months as debited against the leave account, if such leave be due to him. Special circumstances justifying such treatment may be held to exist when the Government servant's breakdown in health has been caused in and by Government service, or when the Government servant has taken a comparatively small amount of leave during his service or will complete at an early date an additional year's service for pension.

20. Leave should not be granted to a Government servant who ought at once to be dismissed or removed from Government service for misconduct or general incapacity.

21. If, in a case not covered by rule 20, an authority competent to remove a Government servant from service decides, before such Government servant departs from India on leave, that he will not be permitted to return to duty in India, it must inform him to that effect before he leaves India.

22. If, when a Government servant is about to depart from India on leave, it is necessary to consider the propriety of removing him for incapacity, whether mental or physical, which is of such a nature that it is impossible to decide, before he leaves India, whether it will be permanent or temporary; or if for any reason it is considered inexpedient that a Government servant on leave should return to India, a full report of the circumstances must be made by the local Government to the India Office in time to enable the Secretary of State in Council to take any necessary measures before the Government servant would in the ordinary course be permitted to return to duty. The report should in any case reach the India Office at latest three months before the end of the Government servant's leave.

23. When leave on medical certificate has been granted to a Government servant or, in the case of a military officer in civil employ, when the grant of such leave has appeared in orders, if such Government servant or military officer proposes to spend his leave in Europe, North Africa, America or the West Indies, the local Government must without delay forward a copy of the medical statement of the case to the High Commissioner for India.

Section V.—Departure on leave.

24. Every Government servant proceeding on leave out of India should procure from the audit officer and take with him a copy of the memorandum of information issued for the guidance of Government servants proceeding on leave out of India. If the leave has been granted on a medical certificate, he must take a copy of the medical statement of his case also.

25. A Government servant taking leave out of India must report his embarkation, through the audit officer, to the authority which granted his leave in such form as the Auditor-General may prescribe.

Section VI.—Return from leave.

26. A gazetted Government servant, on return from leave, must report his return to the Government under which he is serving.

27. A Government servant returning from leave is not entitled, in the absence of specific orders to that effect, to resume as a matter of course the post which he held before going on leave. He must report his return to duty and await orders.

Section VII.—Commencement of leave.

28. Unless specially otherwise ordered, leave must begin within 35 days of the date on which it is granted.

Minister in charge : The Hon'ble Mr. P. C. Mitter, C.I.E., (Ministry of Education).

Minister in charge : The Hon'ble Nawab Saiyid Nawab Ali Chaudhuri, Khan Bahadur, C.I.E. (Ministry of Agriculture and Public Works).

No. 19458F., dated the 23rd December 1921.—In exercise of the powers conferred by rule 74 (a) (iv) read with rule 5 of the Fundamental Rules, His Excellency the Governor is pleased to make the following rules prescribing the procedure to be followed in the maintenance of records of service of Government servants serving directly under the administrative control of the local Government.

Gazetted Government servants.

1. A record of the services of a gazetted Government servant will be kept by such audit officer and in such form as the Auditor-General may prescribe.

Non-gazetted Government servants.

2. A service book in such form as the Auditor-General may prescribe must be maintained for every non-gazetted Government servant holding a substantive post on a permanent establishment, with the exception of inferior servants of all sorts. Service book.

3. In all cases in which a service book is necessary under rule 2, such a book must be supplied for a Government servant, at his own cost, on his first appointment to Government service. It must be kept in the custody of the head of the office in which he is serving and transferred with him from office to office. It may be given up to the Government servant if he resigns or is discharged from the service without fault, an entry to this effect being first made in the service book.

4. Every step in a Government servant's official life must be recorded in his service book, and each entry must be attested by the head of his office or, if he himself is the head of an office, by his immediate superior. The head of the office must see that all entries are duly made and attested, and that the book contains no erasure or overwriting, all corrections being neatly made and properly attested.

5. Every period of suspension from employment and every other interruption of service must be noted, with full details of its duration, in an entry made across the page of the service book and must be attested by the attesting officer. It is the duty of the attesting officer to see that such entries are promptly made.

6. Personal certificates of character must not, unless the head of the department so direct, be entered in a service book, but if a Government servant is reduced to a lower substantive post, the reason of the reduction must be briefly shown.

7. It is the duty of every Government servant to see that his service book is properly maintained as prescribed in rule 4, in order that there may be no difficulty in verifying his service for pension. The head of the office should therefore permit a Government servant to examine his service book should he at any time desire to do so.

Service-rolls.

8. If a Government servant is transferred to foreign service, the head of his office or department must send his service book to such audit officer as the Auditor-General may prescribe. The audit officer will return it after noting in it, over his signature, the order sanctioning the transfer, the effect of the transfer in regard to leave admissible during foreign service and any other particulars which he may consider to be necessary. On the Government servant's re-transfer to Government service, his service book must again be sent to the audit officer, who will then note in it, over his signature, all necessary particulars connected with the foreign service. No entry relating to the time spent in foreign service may be attested by any authority other than the audit officer.

9. A service roll in which the following particulars should be recorded, must be maintained for every other class of non-gazetted Government servants holding substantive appointments on a permanent establishment for whom no service book is necessary.

(a) The date of his appointment.

(b) His caste, tribe, village, age, height and marks of identification when appointed.

(c) The posts which he from time to time holds; his promotions, and his reductions or other punishments.

(d) His absences from duty, with or without leave.

(e) Interruptions in his service.

(f) Every other incident in his service which may involve forfeiture of a portion of it or may affect the amount of his pension.

Every entry in the roll must be signed by the head of the office.

No. 19459F., dated the 23rd December 1921.—In exercise of the powers conferred by rule 82 (a), read with rule 5 of the Fundamental Rules, His Excellency the Governor is pleased to make the following rules specifying the departments, or parts of departments, which should be treated as vacation departments, and the conditions in which a Government servant should be considered to have availed himself of a vacation.

1. The following should be treated as vacation departments;—

(c) Veterinary College.

2. A Government servant should be considered to have availed himself of a vacation, if he has been absent from his station except on duty for more than fifteen days of the vacation.

No. 19461F., dated the 23rd December 1921.—In exercise of the powers conferred by rule 101 (b) read with rule 5 of the Fundamental Rules, His Excellency the Governor is pleased to make the following rules regulating the grant of leave on account of ill health to members of specified subordinate services under the administrative control of the local Government whose duties expose them to special risk of accident or illness.

1. A competent authority may grant hospital leave to Government servants of the following classes while under medical treatment for illness or injury, if such illness or injury is directly due to risks incurred in the course of their official duties:—

(a) Head warders or warders, male or female, of lunatic asylums.

(b) Subordinates employed in Government laboratories.

(c) Subordinates employed on the working of Government machinery.

(d) Peons and guards in permanent employ.

(e) Syces of Government stallions.

2. Hospital leave may be granted on leave-salary equal to either average or half average pay, as the authority granting it may consider necessary.

3. The amount of hospital leave which may be granted to a Government servant is limited to three months on average pay in any period of three years. Hospital leave on half average pay counts, for the purpose of this limit, as half the amount of leave on average pay.

4. Hospital leave is not debited against the leave account and may be combined with any other leave which may be admissible; provided that the total period of leave, after such combination, shall not exceed twenty-eight months.

No. 19462F., dated the 23rd December 1921.—In exercise of the powers conferred by rule 102 read with rule 5 of the Fundamental Rules, His Excellency the Governor is pleased to make the following rules regulating the grant of leave on account of ill health to officers and seamen of vessels under the administrative control of the local Government.

1. A Government servant serving as an officer, warrant officer or petty officer on a Government vessel may, while undergoing medical treatment for sickness or injury, either on his vessel or in hospital, be granted by the Commander of the vessel leave on leave-salary equal to full pay for a period not exceeding six weeks; provided that such leave shall not be granted if a responsible medical officer certifies that the Government servant is malingering or that his ill-health is due to drunkenness or similar self-indulgence or to his own action in wilfully causing or aggravating disease or injury.

2. A seaman disabled in the exercise of his duty may be allowed leave on leave-salary equal to full pay for a maximum period not exceeding three months, if the following conditions are fulfilled:—

(a) A Government medical officer must certify the disability.

(b) The disability must not be due to the seaman's own carelessness or inexperience.

(c) The vacancy caused by his absence must not be filled.

No. 19463F., dated the 23rd December 1921.—In exercise of the powers conferred by rule 103(a) read with rule 5 of the Fundamental Rules, His Excellency the Governor is pleased to make the following rules regulating the leave earned by temporary and officiating service by officers under the administrative control of the local Government.

1. A competent authority may grant to a temporary engineer of the Public Works Department leave on such terms and with such leave-salary as it may think fit, provided that the leave and leave-salary are not in excess of those admissible to a Government servant subject to the ordinary leave rules.

2. Leave may be granted to any other Government servant without a lien on a permanent post while officiating in a post or holding a temporary post, provided that the grant of the leave involves no expense to Government. On this condition such a Government servant may be granted—

(a) leave on leave-salary equivalent to full pay up to one-eleventh of the period spent on duty, subject to a maximum of four months at a time, or

(b) on medical certificate, leave on leave-salary equivalent to half pay for three months at any one time, or

(c) extraordinary leave for three months at any one time.

3. If such a Government servant is, without interruption of duty, appointed substantively to a permanent post, his leave account will be credited with the amount of leave which he would have earned by his previous duty if he had performed it while holding a permanent post substantively, and debited with the amount of leave actually taken under rule 2. Leave taken under rule 2 is not an interruption of duty for the purpose of this rule.

No. 19464F., dated the 23rd December 1921.—In exercise of the powers conferred by rule 103 (b) read with rule 5 of the Fundamental Rules, His Excellency the Governor is pleased to make the following rules regulating the amount of leave which may be earned by non-continuous service by officers under the administrative control of the local Government.

1. A Government servant on an establishment whose duties are not continuous, but are limited to certain periods in each year, may be granted the following leave if he was on actual duty on the date the establishment was discharged after completion of its work, and was on actual duty on the first day on which the establishment was again re-employed :—

(a) Leave on medical certificate for one month at any one time during the period the establishment is employed for any one term.

(b) Extraordinary leave for one month at any one time during the period the establishment is employed for any one term.

2. A competent authority may make exceptions, in case a Government servant remains absent from duty on the date of discharge or date of re-employment of the establishment owing to sickness, provided that the total period of leave on medical certificate under clause (a) in rule 1 does not exceed two months in one term.

No. 19465F., dated the 23rd December 1921.—In exercise of the powers conferred by rule 103(c) read with rule 5 of the Fundamental Rules, His Excellency the Governor is pleased to make the following rules regulating the leave admissible to officers remunerated by fees or daily wages under the administrative control of the local Government.

1. A Government servant remunerated by fees may be granted leave on the terms laid down in supplementary rules framed under fundamental rule 103 (c) for part-time law officers, provided that he makes satisfactory arrangements for the performance of his duties, that no extra expense is caused to Government, and that, during leave of the kind contemplated by clause (b) of rule 1 of the said rules, the whole of the fees are paid to the person who officiates in his post.

2. A labourer employed on daily wages in a workshop, when temporarily absent from work owing to injuries received while on duty, may be granted by a competent authority leave on full wages up to a maximum of six months. A competent authority may, in similar circumstances, sanction the grant of leave-salary not exceeding Rs 50, or one month's wages, or the wages which the absentee would have earned during the period of leave if he had been present on duty, whichever of these is least.

No. 19466F., dated the 23rd December 1921.—In exercise of the powers conferred by rule 104(b) read with rule 5 of the Fundamental Rules, His Excellency the Governor is pleased to make the following rules regulating the grant of leave to probationers and apprentices under the administrative control of the local Government.

1. In these rules—

(a) Probationer means a Government servant employed on probation in or against a substantive vacancy in the cadre of a department.

(b) Apprentice means a person deputed for training in a trade or business with a view to employment in Government service, who draws pay at monthly rates from Government during such training but is not employed in or against a substantive vacancy in the cadre of a department.

2. Leave may be granted to a probationer if it is admissible under the leave rules which would be applicable to him if he held his post substantively otherwise than on probation.

3. Leave of the following kinds may be granted to an apprentice:—

(a) On medical certificate, leave on leave-salary equivalent to half pay for a period not exceeding one month in any year of apprenticeship.

(b) Extraordinary leave under fundamental rule 85.

No. 19467F., dated the 23rd December 1921.—In exercise of the powers conferred by rule 106 read with rule 5 of the Fundamental Rules, His Excellency the Governor is pleased to make the following rules regulating the joining time admissible to officers under the administrative control of the local Government.

Joining time.

1. Not more than one day is allowed to a Government servant in order to join a new post when the appointment to such post does not necessarily involve a change of residence from one station to another. A holiday counts as a day for the purpose of this rule.

2. In cases involving a necessary change of station, the joining time allowed to a Government servant is subject to a maximum of 30 days. Six days are allowed for preparation and, in addition, a period to cover the actual journey calculated as follows:—

(a) A Government servant is allowed—

For that portion of the journey which he travels or might travel.		One day for each.
By railway ...	250 miles.
By ocean steamer ...	200 "	Or any longer time actually occupied in the journey.
By river steamer ...	80 "
By motor-car or horse-drawn conveyance plying for public hire	80 "
In any other way ...	15 "

(b) For any fractional portion of any distance prescribed in clause (a) an extra day is allowed.

(c) When part of the journey is by steamer, the limit of six days for preparation may be extended to cover any period unavoidably spent in awaiting the departure of the steamer.

(d) Travel by road not exceeding five miles to or from a railway station at the beginning or end of a journey does not count for joining time.

(e) A Government servant whose pay does not exceed Rs. 100 is not ordinarily expected to travel by motor-car or horse-drawn conveyance plying for public hire, and his joining time is calculated accordingly.

(f) A Sunday does not count as a day for the purpose of the calculations in this rule, but Sundays are included in the maximum period of 30 days.

3. When a Government servant, returning from leave out of India exceeding four months, takes joining time before joining his post, his joining time shall be calculated as prescribed in rule 2; provided that it shall, if he so desire, be subject to a minimum of ten days.

4. By whatever route a Government servant actually travels, his joining time shall, unless a competent authority for special reasons otherwise order, be calculated by the route which travellers ordinarily use.

5. If a Government servant is authorized to make over charge of a post elsewhere than at its headquarters, his joining time shall be calculated from the place at which he makes over charge.

6. If a Government servant is appointed to a new post while in transit from one post to another, his joining time begins on the day following that on which he receives the order of appointment.

7. If a Government servant takes leave while in transit from one post to another, the period which has elapsed since he handed over charge of his old post must be included in his leave, unless the leave is taken on medical certificate. In the latter case, the period may be treated as joining time.

8. If a Government servant is appointed to a new post while on leave of less than four months' duration, his joining time will be calculated from his old station or from the place in which he received the order of appointment, whichever calculation will entitle him to the less joining time.

9. A competent authority may in any case extend the joining time admissible under these rules, provided that the general spirit of the rules is observed.

10. Within the prescribed maximum of 30 days, a competent authority, on such conditions as it thinks fit, grant to a Government servant a longer period of joining time than is admissible under the rules in the following circumstances :—

(a) when the Government servant has been unable to use the ordinary mode of travelling or, notwithstanding due diligence on his part, has spent more time on the journey than is allowed by the rules ; or

(b) when such extension is considered necessary for the public convenience or for the saving of such public expenditure as is caused by unnecessary or purely formal transfers ; or

(c) when the rules have in any particular case operated harshly ; as, for example, when a Government servant has through no fault on his part missed a steamer or fallen sick on the journey.

Minister in charge : The Hon'ble Mr. P. C. Mitter, C.I.E. (Ministry of Education).

Minister in charge : The Hon'ble Nawab Saiyid Nawab Ali Chaudhuri, Khan Bahadur, C.I.E. (Ministry of Agriculture and Public Works).

No. 19468F., dated the 23rd December 1921.—In exercise of the powers conferred by rule 106 read with rule 5 of the Fundamental Rules, His Excellency the Governor is pleased to make the following rules specifying the places and stations to which Fundamental Rule 105D applies.

1. The following places and stations are declared to be not easy of access :—

(1) Sikkim, Tibet and Bhutan.

(2) Chittagong Hill Tracts.

Orders issued by the Governor-General in Council under fundamental rule 114.

The Governor-General in Council is pleased to issue, under fundamental rule 114, the following orders regulating the amount of remuneration which may be sanctioned by a local Government for a Government servant transferred to foreign service in an Indian State :—

1. When the transfer of a Government servant to foreign service in an Indian State is sanctioned, the pay which he shall receive in such service must be precisely specified in the order sanctioning the transfer. If it is intended that he shall receive any remuneration, or enjoy any concession of pecuniary value, in addition to his pay proper, the exact nature of such remuneration or concession must be similarly specified. No Government servant will be permitted to receive any remuneration or enjoy any concession which is not so specified ; and, if the order is silent as to any particular remuneration or concession, it must be assumed that the intention is that it shall not be enjoyed.

2. No order of transfer to foreign service shall be issued by a local Government without previous consultation with its Finance Department. It shall be open to that Department to prescribe, by general or special order, cases in which its consent may be presumed to have been given.

3. The following two general principles must be observed by local Governments in sanctioning the conditions of transfer:—

(a) The terms granted to the Government servant must not be such as to impose an unnecessarily heavy burden on the Indian State which employs him.

(b) The terms granted must not be so greatly in excess of the remuneration which the Government servant would receive in Government service as to render foreign service appreciably more attractive than Government service.

4. Provided that the two principles laid down in paragraph 3 above are observed, a local Government may sanction the grant of the following concessions by the foreign employer. Such concessions must not be sanctioned as a matter of course, but in those cases only in which their grant is in accordance with local custom and the wishes of the Darbar and is, in the opinion of the local Government, justified by the circumstances. The value of the concessions must be taken into account in determining an appropriate rate of pay for the Government servant in foreign service:—

(a) The payment of contributions towards leave-salary and pension under the ordinary rules regulating such contributions.

(b) The grant of travelling allowance under the ordinary travelling allowance rules of the local Government or under the local rules of the Darbar, and of permanent travelling allowance, conveyance allowance and horse allowance.

(c) The use of State tents, boats and transport on tour, provided that this is accompanied by a corresponding reduction in the amount of travelling allowance admissible.

(d) The grant of free residential accommodation, which may be furnished, in cases in which the local Government considers this to be desirable, on such scale as may seem proper to the local Government.

(e) The use of State motors, carriages and animals.

5. The grant of any concession not specified in paragraph 4 above requires the sanction of the Governor-General in Council.

Minister in charge, The Hon'ble Sir S. N. Banerjea, Kt. (Ministry of Local Self-Government).

Minister in charge: The Hon'ble Mr. P. C. Mitter, C.I.E. (Ministry of Education).

Minister in charge: The Hon'ble Nawab Saiyid Nawab Ali Chaudhuri, Khan Bahadur, C.I.E. (Ministry of Agriculture and Public Works).

No. 19469F., dated the 23rd December 1921.—In exercise of the powers conferred by rule 119 (b), read with rule 5 of the Fundamental Rules, His Excellency the Governor is pleased to make the following rules prescribing the rate of interest, if any, to be levied on foreign service contributions in the case of officers under the administrative control of the local Government.

1. If a contribution for leave-salary or pension which is due from a Government servant in foreign service is not paid within fifteen days from the end of the period to which it relates, the Government servant concerned must pay to Government interest on the unpaid contribution, at the rate of four pies a day per 100 rupees upon the amount due, from the date of expiry of the period of fifteen days up to the date on which the contribution is finally paid.

Charge of office.

1. Unless for special recorded reasons of a public nature a competent authority, under whose orders the transfer takes place, permits or requires it to be made in any particular case elsewhere, or otherwise, the charge of an office must be made over at its headquarters, both the relieving and the relieved officers being present.

2. The headquarters of a Government servant shall be in such place as a competent authority may prescribe.

NOTE 1.—As a general rule, and subject to any special orders to the contrary in any particular case, the headquarters of an officer on the staff of Government, as for instance, a Secretary to Government or a clerk in the Government Secretariat, are the headquarters for the time being of the Government.

NOTE 2.—The headquarters of any other officer are, in the absence of any orders to the contrary, the station where the records of his office are kept.

Age of admission into superior pensionable Government service.

1. A person whose age exceeds twenty-five years may not ordinarily be admitted into the service of Government in superior pensionable service. A competent authority may, however, relax this rule in special cases.

NOTE.—The ordinary age-limit is extended to twenty-eight years in the case of a Civil Assistant Surgeon.

Minister in charge : The Hon'ble Sir S. N. Banerjea, Kt. (Ministry of Local Self-Government).

Minister in charge : The Hon'ble Mr. P. C. Mitter, C.I.E. (Ministry of Education).

Minister in charge : The Hon'ble Nawab Saiyid Nawab Ali Chaudhuri, Khan Bahadur, C.I.E. (Ministry of Agriculture and Public Works).

No. 19470F., dated the 23rd December 1921.—His Excellency the Governor is pleased to declare that the orders contained in the notes to the articles of the Civil Service Regulations, and in the Bengal Companion to the Civil Service Regulations, and also, so far as they relate to Bengal, the appendices to the Civil Service Regulations, which are not inconsistent with the Fundamental Rules, or with any rules made thereunder, are confirmed, and shall, in the case of Government servants to whom the Fundamental Rules in that respect apply, remain in force until they are revoked, varied, or added to.

[N.B.—The scale of fees, as given in this Prospectus, is payable by students admitted to the College from the beginning of the Session 1916-17 and will not apply to old students, who will continue to pay the old rate of fees.]

MEDICAL COLLEGE OF BENGAL.

RULES FOR THE GUIDANCE OF STUDENTS SEEKING ADMISSION.

1. Two classes of students are admitted for study in the College—

(a) "Regular," or those who enter for the full University course.

The admission to this class is restricted to students (male and female) who are natives of, or whose parents are domiciled in, the area within the territorial limits of the Calcutta University, and the Province of Bihar and Orissa.

(b) "Military Class" (only students of European or Eurasian parentage are admitted to this class). (See separate Prospectus for Military students.)

The admission to this class is regulated by the Director-General, Indian Medical Service.

2. The minimum preliminanry qualification for admission to the—

(a) "Regular Class" is the I. Sc. Pass certificate of the Calcutta University.

N.B.—This rule does not apply to female students.

3. The session commences on the 15th June.

4. All new students must apply for admission to the Principal, Medical College, Calcutta, in the prescribed form available in this office, before the 25th May, except in the case of Biharis, Uriyas, Chota Nagpuris and Assamese students, who should apply to the Inspectors-General of Civil Hospitals of their respective provinces for admission within such date as the latter may prescribe.

N.B.—All candidates for admission whose applications have been officially acknowledged are requested to attend at the Office of the Medical College, Calcutta, to appear before a Selection Board each day between 1 and 3 P.M., subsequently to the 25th May.

Selected candidates must pay the following fees on or before the 10th June, failing which their names will be struck off the selected list:—

	Rs.	A.
Admission fee	20	0
Fees for Summer term	62	8
Athletic Club fee	1	0
Total ...	83	8

5. The number of Regular students to be admitted each year is generally 120, but the Principal may, at his discretion, increase or decrease this number. Preference for admission will usually be given to candidates who have superior qualifications, but the final selection lies entirely with the Principal.

One-fourth of the total number to be admitted shall be Muhammadans. Twelve candidates will be nominated by the Inspector-General of Civil Hospitals of Bihar and Orissa and six candidates by the Inspector-General of Civil Hospitals of Assam. These candidates must possess the qualifications mentioned in rule 2(a). In addition, the Bihar and Orissa Government will nominate six scholars, who, after 1918, must possess the I. Sc. pass certificate. These nominations must reach the Principal, Medical College, Calcutta, before the 10th June in each year, failing which the Principal will fill up vacancies with local candidates.

6. Female students of Bengal, Bihar and Orissa, Assam and Burma, belonging to the Calcutta University, will be admitted to the College, provided they possess the requisite preliminary qualification and provided there is a vacancy in the Surnomoyee Hostel in which all female students must reside.

7. Failed students must apply for admission and pay fee before the 15th May, otherwise their prior claim lapses.

8. All Regular students must pay an annual fee of Rs. 125 in two instalments, viz., Rs. 62-8 for the Summer term and Rs. 62-8 for the Winter term. Fees once paid cannot be refunded.

9. The fees for each term are to be paid in one instalment. Except in the case of new students, the fees for Summer term are due on the 15th June, and those for the Winter term on the 1st November, and must be paid on those dates or on such subsequent dates as the Principal may direct, after which a daily fine of annas 4 will be levied along with the fee in each case of default.

10. All Regular students, excepting the female students, must pay an annual fee of Re. 1 to the Medical College Athletic Club along with the fees for the Summer term.

11. Students relegated to a further course of study after their failure at the Preliminary Scientific M. B. and at the First M. B. Examinations shall pay Rs. 80 for the whole session in one instalment by the 1st June.

12. Students taking up subjects outside the curriculum of the year in which they are studying shall pay Rs. 30 for each subject, including lectures and practical classes.

13. The fees for Casual students or for certificates issued to Regular students leaving the College before completing their study, or for those issued to Military students, shall be Rs. 40 per each course of lectures and practical classes and Rs. 30 for every three months of hospital practice.

14. Students who fail at the Final M. B. Examination shall pay fees for the whole session at the following rates in one instalment by the 1st June:—

	Rs.
For one subject	25
For two subjects	50
For three or more subjects	75

15. In calculating the sum to be paid under rule 13 by a Regular student, the amount of College fees paid by him, or in the case of a student enjoying a stipendiary scholarship and free tuition, the amount which would have been paid by him had he been a paying student shall be deducted.

16. The fees payable by a Muhammadan student requiring certificates in the same way will be calculated on the same principle, i.e., he will be allowed a deduction for the full annual fee, half of which has been paid by himself and half by the Mohsin Fund.

17. Students of the Military class requiring certificates in the same way will be required to pay the rate of fees laid down in paragraph 13 for the full curriculum or for such portion as they have attended. No deduction will be made in this case as they are not free students in the sense in which that term is defined in Bengal Government Resolution (Education) No. 601 of the 7th December 1880.

18. The fee for post-graduates undergoing a course of training in the Pathological, Bacteriological, Physiological or Chemical Laboratory is Rs. 90 for a period not exceeding six months.

19. Holders of scholarships, awarded by the Government of Bengal, are not required to pay the annual fee of Rs. 125 for the year in which they hold such scholarships. All holders of other scholarships, whether granted by other Local Governments, Local Bodies, or Dufferin Fund, shall pay the same fees as regular students.

20. The following are the curricula of the College :—

REGULAR STUDENTS.

First-year Class.

Physics, Chemistry, Botany, Zoology and Practical classes in all these subjects, to be followed by Preliminary Scientific M. B. Examination of the Calcutta University and the Scholarship and Medal Examination of the College. The first year's course also includes Anatomy in which there will be a test examination at the end of the year upon which will depend the promotion of a student to the second-year class.

Second-year Class.

Anatomy, Physiology, Materia Medica, Practical Pharmacy and Dissections, to be followed by examinations for award of College scholarships.

Third-year Class.

Anatomy, Physiology, Materia Medica, Organic Chemistry, Dissections, and Practical classes in Physiology and Organic Chemistry, to be followed by Honour Examination of the College in the above subjects for scholarships, medals and Certificates of Honour of the College and by the First M. B. Examination of the Calcutta University.

Fourth-year Class.

Medicine, Surgery, Midwifery, Pathology, Medical Jurisprudence, Hygiene, Dental Surgery, Hospital Practice (12 months), Clinical Methods and 20 Demonstrations, Practical Surgery and Bandaging and 30 Demonstrations, to be followed by a special examination in Pathology and Midwifery for the selection of class assistants.

Fifth-year Class.

Medicine, Surgery, Midwifery, Hygiene, Ophthalmic Surgery, Operative Surgery, Mental Disease, Practical Pathology and Bacteriology, Practical Midwifery, and 20 Demonstrations, Hospital Practice (12 months), to be followed by Honour Examination of the College in all the subjects for the award of medals and Certificates of Honour.

Sixth-year Class.

Hospital Practice (12 months), to be followed by the Second M. B. Examination.

21. The following are the scholarships and rewards obtainable by students :—

(a) Ten College scholarships, of Rs. 12 each, tenable for one year, together with free tuition, are awarded to ten students on the result of the Scholarship Examination at the end of the first-year class, provided such students also pass the Preliminary Scientific M. B. Examination of the Calcutta University at the first attempt.

(b) Ten College scholarships, of Rs. 12 each, tenable for one year, together with free tuition, are awarded to ten students on the results of the second year's Scholarship Examination.

(c) Ten scholarships, of Rs. 12 each, tenable for three years, together with free tuition, are awarded to ten students on the results of the Honour Examination of the third-year class, provided such students also pass the First M. B. Examination of the Calcutta University at the first attempt.

(d) Six Government scholarships (one for each year) of the value of Rs. 25 each, will be awarded to the female students of the Regular class who do not get the Dufferin or other scholarships.

(e) Special scholarships for Bihari and Uriya students—

Six scholarships of Rs. 12 each to six students from Bihar and Orissa, tenable for six years from the date on which the students enter the College, are awarded by the Inspector-General of Civil Hospitals of Bihar and Orissa.

(f) Mohsin Scholarships.—Six stipends of the value of Rs. 15 each, tenable in the Medical College, Calcutta, are annually awarded by the Director of Public Instruction, from the Mohsin Endowment Fund, to deserving poor Bengali Muhammadan students in the following manner:—

Two scholarships, on admission, tenable for one year only, on the result of the I. Sc. Examination.

Two scholarships, tenable for two years, on the result of the Preliminary Scientific M. B. Examination.

Two scholarships, tenable for three years, on the result of the First M. B. Examination.

(g) A limited number of scholarships will be granted to Muhammadan students of straitened circumstances who must prove to the satisfaction of the Principal that they are too poor to pay the College fees.

22. If on account of the death, resignation or dismissal of any College scholar, a scholarship falls vacant, such scholarship will be awarded to the next best student in the list of the last Scholarship Examination, or to such other student as the Principal may consider fit.

23. Holders of the College scholarships, any other Goverment scholarships or Trust Fund scholarships administered by Government are not eligible for the Durga Charan Laha Scholarship. Similarly, a student already holding a scholarship, either on the result of the University Examination or granted by any other Government, is not eligible to compete for the College scholarships.

24. Regular students, who at any time are referred for a second year of study in all the subjects of one curriculum, are thereby rendered ineligible for any of the stipendiary scholarships awarded by the Government of Bengal. They are, however, eligible for the special scholarships and class prizes and medals and Certificates of Honour of the College.

25. Certificates of Honour, to the number of three in each subject, may be awarded by the Professors, subject to the sanction of the Principal, to such students who have not obtained the medal, but are deemed worthy of it.

No. 1872J.—The 23rd May 1921.—Under section 35 of the Court-fees Act, 1870 (VII of 1870), as amended by the Devolution Act. 1920 (XXXVIII of 1920), and in supersession of all previous notifications under that section, it is hereby notified that in exercise of the power to reduce or remit in the whole or in any part of the territories under his administration, all or any of the fees mentioned in the First and Second Schedules of the Court-fees Act, 1870 (VII of 1870), the Governor in Council is pleased to make the reductions and remissions hereinafter set forth, namely :—

(1) to remit the fees chargeable on applications presented to a Collector for refund of the amount paid to the Government for stamped paper which has become spoiled or unfit for use, or is no longer required for use and on applications for renewal of stamped paper which has become spoiled or unfit for use;

(2) to remit the fees chargeable on applications in writing, relating exclusively to the purchase of salt which is the property of the Government;

(3) to direct that, when a plaint disclosing a reasonable case on the merits is presented to any Civil or Revenue Court in such a form that the presiding Judge or officer, without summoning the defendant, rejects it not for any substantial defect but on account of an entirely technical error in form only, and so as to leave the plaintiff free to prosecute precisely the same case in another form against the same defendant or defendants, the value of the stamp on the plaint shall be refunded on presentation of an application to the Collector of the district in which the Court is situated, together with a certificate from the Judge or officer who rejected the plaint that it was rejected under the circumstances above described, and that the value of the stamp should, in his opinion, be refunded;

(4) to remit the fees chargeable on—

(a) copies of village settlement-records furnished to landholders and cultivators during the currency or at the termination of settlement operations,

(b) lists of fields extracted from village settlement-records for the purpose of being filed with petitions of plaint in Settlement Courts:

Provided that nothing in this clause shall apply to copies of judicial proceedings, or to copies of village settlement-records (other than lists of fields) extracted as aforesaid, which may be filed in any Court or office;

(5) to direct that the fee chargeable on appeals from orders under section 47 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (Act V of 1908) shall be limited to the amounts chargeable under article 11 of the Second Schedule;

(6) to remit the fees chargeable on security-bonds for the keeping of the peace by, or good behaviour of, persons other than the executants:

(7) to remit the fee payable under article 1, clause (c), of the Second Schedule on an application or petition presented to a Chief Commissioner, when the application or petition is accompanied by a petition to the Government of India and contains merely a request that that petition may be forwarded to the Government of India;

(8) to remit the fees chargeable under articles 6, 7 and 9 of the First Schedule on copies furnished by Civil or Criminal Courts or Revenue Courts or Offices for the private use of persons applying for them :

Provided that nothing in this clause shall apply to copies when filed, exhibited or recorded in any Court of Justice or received by any public officer :

(9) to remit the fees chargeable, under paragraph 4 of clause (a) and paragraph 2 of clause (b) of article 1 of the Second Schedule, on applications for orders for the payment of deposits in cases in which the deposit does not exceed Rs. 25 in amount:

Provided that the application is made within three months of the date on which the deposit first became payable to the party making the applications;

(10) to remit, with reference to clause xi of section 19 of the Act, the fees chargeable on applications for leave to occupy under direct engagement with the Government land of which the revenue is settled, but not permanently, when made by persons who do not at the time of application hold the land;

(11) to remit the fees chargeable on applications for loans under the Land Improvement Loans Act, 1883 (XIX of 1883), or the Agriculturists' Loans Act, 1884 (XII of 1884);

(12) to remit the fee chargeable on an application made by a person to the Collector under sub-section (2) of section 42 of the Indian Stamp Act, 1899 (II of 1899), for the return to that person, or to the Registration Officer who impounded it, of a document impounded and sent to the Collector by a Registration Officer;

(13) to remit the fees chargeable on the following documents, namely:—

(a) copy of a charge framed under section 210 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (Act V of 1898), or of a translation thereof, when the copy is given to an accused person,

(b) copy of the evidence of supplementary witnesses after commitment when the copy is given under section 219 of the said Code to an accused person,

(c) copy or translation of a judgment in a case other than a summons case, and copy of the heads of the Judge's charge to the jury, when the copy or translation is given under section 371 of the said Code to an accused person,

(d) copy or translation of the judgment in a summons case, when the accused person to whom the copy or translation is given under section 371 of the said Code is in jail,

(e) copy of an order of maintenance, when the copy is given under section 490 of the said Code to the person in whose favour the order is made, or to his guardian, if any, or to the person to whom the allowance is to be paid,

(f) copy furnished to any person affected by a judgment or order passed by a Criminal Court, of the Judge's charge to the jury or of any order, deposition or other part of the record, when the copy is not a copy which may be granted under any of the preceding sub-clauses without the payment of a fee, but is a copy which, on its being applied for under section 548 of the said Code, the Judge or Magistrate, for some special reason to be recorded by him on the copy, thinks fit to furnish without such payment,

(g) copies of all documents furnished under the orders of any Court or Magistrate to any Government Advocate or Pleader or other person specially empowered in that behalf for the purpose of conducting any trial or investigation on the part of the Government before any Criminal Court,

(h) copies of all documents which any such Advocate, Pleader or other person is required to take in connection with any such trial or investigation, for the use of any Court or Magistrate, or may consider necessary for the purpose of advising the Government in connection with any criminal proceedings,

(i) copies of judgments or depositions required by officers of the Police Department in the course of their duties;

(14) to remit the fee chargeable on an application to a Collector with respect either to liability to assessment, or to the amount or rate of an assessment or for a refund of income-tax under the Indian Income-tax Act, 1918 (VII of 1918).

(15) to remit the fee chargeable on an application presented by any person for the return of a document filed by him in any Court or public office;

No. 1101Edn.—The 30th May 1921.—The following corrigenda to Resolution No. 1011Edn., dated the 7th May 1921, on the subject of the establishment of a Board of Secondary and Intermediate Education for the Dacca University area, published in pages 801-806 of the Supplement to the

Calcutta Gazette of the 11th May 1921, are published for general information :—

In paragraph 10 of the resolution defining the constitution of the Board, the inclusion of Rai Lalit Mohan Chatterji Bahadur (No. 1) as a representative of the Dacca University is a misprint

Mrs. Raj Kumari Das, Principal, Eden High School (No. 14), is not a representative of the non-Muhammadan community of Dacca, but is a representative of the High English Schools in Dacca.

The last two lines of paragraph 10 of the Resolution should be read as follows :—

"The Chairman who is a member of the Board and the Secretary will be whole-time salaried officers. All the members are honorary. The Secretary is not a member of the Board."

L. S. S. O'MALLEY,
Secretary to the Government of Bengal.

The Calcutta Gazette

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 1, 1921.

PART IA.

Orders and Notifications by the Government of India.

The following resolution, issued by the Government of India in the Home Department, published in the Supplement to the Gazette of India, dated the 21st May 1921, is republished for general information.

J. DONALD,
Chief Secretary
to the Government of Bengal (offg.).

No. 1137.

RESOLUTION.

ESTABLISHMENTS.

Simla, the 16th May 1921.

IN connection with the recommendation made by the Public Services Commission in the concluding sentence of paragraph 14 of Annexure X to their Report, the Government of India have had under consideration the question of pensions to be granted to Barristers, Vakils and Advocates of High Courts, and Pleaders of Chief Courts who, under the orders announced in paragraph 11 of the Home Department Resolution No. 2559, dated the 1st December 1920, may be directly appointed to judicial posts ordinarily held by members of the Indian Civil Service. With the approval of the Secretary of State, they are now pleased to direct that the pensions of these officers shall be regulated under articles 465-A, 474, 474-A, and 475-A of the Civil Service Regulations. In the case of superannuation pensions, officers with not less than ten years' actual qualifying service will also be allowed as a special case the concession of adding to their qualifying service the actual period not exceeding ten years by which their age at recruitment exceeds 25 years. This concession will in almost every case enable officers recruited at the age of 35 years to earn a full pension, and those recruited at the age of 40 to earn the 25 years' pension by the time they reach the ordinary age of superannuation, and the maximum pension if they are allowed to serve until they are 60 years of age. The ordinary rules which will apply to other forms of pension coupled with the special concession mentioned above for superannuation pensions will, the Government of India hope, be sufficiently attractive, specially as these officers will invariably be able to obtain, in the case of invalid and superannuation pensions, benefits from the additional pensions admissible under article 475-A of the Civil Service Regulations.

The necessary additions and corrections to the Civil Service Regulations will be issued in due course.

ORDER.—Ordered that a copy of this Resolution be forwarded to all local Governments and Administrations for information and guidance, and to the Finance Department for information and the issue of necessary additions and corrections to the Civil Service Regulations.

Ordered also that it be published in the Supplement to the Gazette of India for general information.

C. W. GWYNNE,
for Secretary to the Government of India (offg.).

The following notification, issued by the Government of India, in the Public Works Department, published in the Gazette of India, dated the 21st May 1921, is republished for general information.

J. DONALD,
Chief Secretary
to the Government of Bengal (offg.).

NOTIFICATION.

The following notification is substituted for the Government of India, Public Works Department, Notification No. 13, dated the 1st April 1921, published on page 543 of Part I of the Gazette of India on the 9th April 1921 :—

G. C. MOOKERJEE,
Secretary, State Medical Faculty, Bengal.

GROSVENOR HOUSE, the 30th May 1921.

BENGAL COUNCIL OF MEDICAL REGISTRATION.

NOTICE.

IT has been brought to the notice of this Council that medical certificates are sometimes obtained by personation and that sufficient precaution is not always taken by registered practitioners to guard against this fraudulent practice. The Council therefore desire to bring this matter to the notice of all registered practitioners and to advise them, in their own interest, to exercise all possible care and circumspection in granting medical certificates. Such certificates should, ordinarily, only be issued to individuals who are either personally known to the practitioner or of whose identity he has satisfied himself.

By order of the Council,

G. C. MOOKERJEE, Registrar.

ELECTION CASE NO. 1 OF 1921.

Rai Yatindra Nath Chowdhury ... Petitioner versus

Surendra Nath Roy ... Respondent.
For the petitioner ... Mr. S. K. Sen, Bar.-at-law.
For the respondent ... Sir Ashutosh Chowdhury and Mr. M. Zorab, Bars.-at-law.

Report under sections 43 and 44 of the Bengal Electoral Rules.

Origin of the case and appointment of a tribunal to try it.—Rai Yatindra Nath Chowdhury and Babu Surendra Nath Roy were the rival candidates for election to the Bengal Legislative Council from the 24-Parganas Municipal South (non-Muhammadan) constituency. This constituency was divided by the returning officer into a number of polling areas, and one of these areas was the Municipality of Behala. Rai Yatindra Nath Chowdhury secured 1,267 votes more than his rival candidate in the whole area of the constituency excluding the Municipality of Behala. But in Behala Municipality Babu Surendra Nath Roy secured as many as 1,629 votes against 93 for Rai Yatindra Nath Chowdhury and thereby obtained 269 votes more than Rai Yatindra Nath for the whole constituency. Babu Surendra Nath Roy was accordingly declared to have been duly elected as a member of the Bengal Legislative Council from the 24-Parganas Municipal South (non-Muhammadan) constituency This election of Babu Surendra Nath Roy was called in question by Rai Yatindra Nath Chowdhury, and Rai Yatindra Nath Chowdhury accordingly presented a petition to His Excellency the Governor under section 30 of the Bengal Electoral Rules, and His Excellency the Governor appointed us under section 54 (2) (a) of the said rules by Government notifications Nos. 375 A.R. and 1265 A., dated the 18th January 1921 and 23rd February 1921, respectively, for enquiring into this petition of Rai Yatindra Nath Chowdhury.

Case of the petitioner.—The petitioner, Rai Yatindra Nath Chowdhury, has made a very large number of allegations in his petition. But the grounds on which the election of Babu Surendra Nath Roy has been sought to be set aside, when stripped of the details and particulars, are—

(1) that there were "corrupt practices" committed by the agents of Babu Surendra Nath Roy as also by some other men on his behalf in the shape of "undue influence" and "personation" and

(2) that there was non-compliance with some of the Bengal Electoral Rules and Bengal Electoral Regulations specially of section 12 (4) of the former and articles XXII, XXVIII and XXIX of the latter, and that the result of the election has been materially affected by such non-compliance.

Case of the respondent.—Babu Surendra Nath Roy filed a long written statement, in which he has traversed all the allegations made in the petition filed by the petitioner. In his written statement the respondent denied practically all the allegations made in the petition for the purpose of setting aside the election, and in addition the respondent raised the plea that we have got no powers to entertain the petition.

Issues framed in the case.—On the pleadings made by the petitioner and the respondent the following issues were framed by us:—

(1) Has this tribunal jurisdiction to entertain the petition?

(2) Has the election of Babu Surendra Nath Roy been procured or induced and the result of the election been materially affected by corrupt practices, viz., undue influence and personation as specifically alleged in the petition?

(3) Have Babu Surendra Nath Roy or his agents committed any "undue influence" or "personation" (as specified in Part I, Schedule IV of the Bengal Electoral Rules) as specifically alleged in the petition?

(4) Has there been any non-compliance with the provision of section 12 (4) of the Bengal Electoral Rules and Bengal Electoral Regulations Nos. XXII, XXVIII and XXIX as specifically alleged in the petition?

(5) If there has been any such non-compliance has the result of the election been materially affected thereby? and

(6) Has there been any improper rejection of votes at the Behala Vernacular School polling station?

Decision—Issue No. 1.—This issue has not in our opinion got anything in it beyond a little academic interest, and the conduct of the respondent, at whose instance this issue was raised, in the course of the trial, would show that the respondent also did not really mean to urge it seriously. Not an iota of evidence was adduced before us on this issue and no mention even was made of it in the arguments that were advanced before us. All that we need say on this issue is that we have no power to try it. Rai Yatindra Nath Chowdhury presented a petition to His Excellency the Governor and it was after such presentation that we were appointed Commissioners to enquire into it. In these circumstances it cannot, in our opinion, be reasonably contended for a moment that we have no powers or jurisdiction to entertain the petition on the ground that the presentation was in any way defective. The first issue is therefore decided in favour of the petitioner and against the respondent.

Issues Nos. 2 and 3.—These two issues, involving as both of them do the question of corrupt practices, may in our opinion be conveniently tried together. According to the petitioner's case there was corrupt practice inasmuch as there was undue influence and also personation—undue influence as there was threat of injury, and personation as a man who was the son of one Nepali Kurmi was detected by the presiding officer when trying to record his vote as Nepali. We propose to deal with the alleged undue influence and personation separately.

As we have stated before, according to the petitioner there was undue influence inasmuch as there was threat of injury given to several voters by a number of men on behalf of Surendra Nath Roy. To establish this part of his case the petitioner has examined about 10 or 11 men altogether. The first one of these witnesses is Priya Nath Chatterji. According to this witness one Dhiren Banerji, a tax collector of the Behala Municipality of which Babu Surendra Nath Roy is the Chairman, threatened him (Priya Nath) that if Priya Nath would not vote for Surendra Nath Roy his privy service would be stopped for ever. But Priya Nath in his cross-examination had to admit that this threat was given to him by Dhiren in the beginning of December last, when Dhiren went to collect municipal tax from him for the quarters October to December 1920 and January to March 1921. If the story of the witness is to be believed Dhiren Banerji went to him to demand some tax at a time when the tax had not become even due—a story which we are unable to place much reliance upon. The second witness whom the petitioner examined on the question of threat of injury was one Mohendra Jana. According to this witness the municipal tax collector had come to him and told him that if he would vote for Surendra Nath Roy his tax would be reduced. But this story as given by Mohendra Jana does not seem to be very consistent with that as given by the next witness on the point, viz., Hari Charan Laskar. According to Hari Charan Laskar, Dhiren Banerji did not ask him whom he would vote for and could not tell him (Hari Charan Laskar) if the voting would have any connection whatsoever with the increase or decrease of taxation. Hari Charan Laskar in his examination said that although he had intended to vote for Rai Yatindra Nath Chowdhury, he as a matter of fact voted for Surendra Nath Roy as he heard one Kristadhan saying in a loud voice "keep a note who votes for whom" But Hari Charan had to admit that there were a number of persons present at the time when Kristadhan was making this observation. No one of these men who were present at the time according to Hari Charan Laskar was however examined before us in this trial. Hari Charan had to admit also in cross-examination that althoug the observation made by Kristadhan made him change his mind as to whom he should vote for he did not take the trouble of asking any one why that observation was made by Kristadhan. Bhudhar Matilal is the next witness who was examined by the petitioner on the question of threat of injury. The story which Bhudhar gave before us was that one Jiban Hari Banerji, another municipal tax collector, said to him that those of the voters who would vote for Surendra Nath Roy would have their tax reduced, while those who would vote against him would have their tax enhanced. But Bhudhar Matilal in his cross-examination had to admit that he had some time before unsuccessfully tried to be a Municipal Commissioner of the Behala Municipality, and he admitted also after a good deal of prevarication that he had been one of the signatories in a petition against Babu Surendra Nath Roy. The next witness who was examined by the petitioner on the question of threat was one Santosh Kumar Nath. Santosh did not in his examination depose to any direct threat of injury given to him, but he tried to prove that one Sidhi Nath Chatterji, the Vice-Chairman of the Behala Municipality, had asked one Sarat Nath to vote for Surendra Nath Roy, telling him that Sidhi had the powers to enhance or reduce the municipal rates. But as regards the testimony of this witness, Santosh Kumar Nath, we should observe that Sarat who is admitted to be available has not been examined before us and that it was known to the witness that the assessment of municipal taxes in the Behala Municipality is made neither by the Chairman nor the Vice-Chairman but by an Assessor appointed by Government. Moni Lal Mukherji was the next witness examined by the petitioner. According to Moni Lal he found the Municipal Commissioner Babu Kristadhan Mukherji who was present at the Behala Vernacular School,. one of the polling stations, ordering a thin young man who was present there at the time to note the faces of the voters who were brought in by the witness, and that Hari Charan Laskar was one of the voters whom the witness was bringing into the polling booth. But Moni Lal admitted in cross-examination that he was one of the workers of the petitioner Rai Yatindra Nath Chowdhury. The next two witnesses examined by the petitioner were Khetra Mohan Karmokar and Anukul Chandra Hajra, who deposed before us that Jugal Krisna Mandal and Kumud Krisna Mandal, two zamindars of Budge-Budge, who were canvassing for Surendra Nath Roy, asked the witnesses to vote for Surendra Babu, telling them at the same time that if they would not do so they would be put to troubles. Of these two witnesses Khetra Mohan Karmokar admitted in cross-examination that he was an impecunious man and that he was heavily indebted. In his cross-examination he mentioned the names of the persons who according to him were present at the time when Jugal and Kumud gave him the threat. But none of these persons were brought before us to depose on the point and to corroborate the testimony of Khetra Mohan Karmokar. The next witness on the point was one Sambhu Chandra Mandal. According to this witness a zamindar Sailen Sarkar asked him to vote for Surendra Nath Roy, threatening him that in case he would not do so he would be put to difficulties. But Sambhu in his cross-examination admitted that this threat was given to him in the presence of a number of people who have not been examined in the case and that he did not speak to any one about this treat except to one Basanta Pandit some time after the alleged occurrence. The next witness examined on the point is one Hari Pado Mitra. According to Hari Pado one Jugal Krisna Banerji threatened him that if he would not vote for Surendra Nath Roy he (Hari) would be put to difficulties. But the witness admitted that he had no property within the Behala Municipality where the respondent is alleged to be the all-powerful Chairman. Hari Pado moreover could not describe the threat given to him except in a vague and indefinite way. But in the petition filed in the case it was distinctly stated that the threat given to Hari Pado was that his rates would be enhanced. The last witness on the point was one Nanda Kumar Bose. According to Nanda Kumar tax-collector Benode B. Halder threatened one Bepin Banerji with the issue of a distress warrant in case he would not vote for Surendra Babu. But Bepin Behari, the man to whom the threat was alleged to have been given, has not been examined before us.

This is all the evidence which the petitioner has adduced before us to substantiate his story that there was threat of injury to the voters and consequently undue influence as defined in section 2, Schedule IV, Part I of the Bengal Electoral Rules. Having regard to the nature of the evidence as described above we have no hesitation in holding that the evidence is extremely meagre and unsatisfactory and cannot be said to have established the petitioner's story of threat of injury. We have, when discussing the evidence of each of the witnesses individually, given our reasons why their testimony cannot be accepted as reliable. But there are some general reasons also for which we are unable to accept the story which they ask us to believe. According to the petitioner's case Surendra Nath Roy by his agents and other persons interested on his behalf put threats of injury to some voters and thereby secured a number of votes. If Surendra Nath Roy had really an intention of that nature the voters he would naturally approach would be men who were neither on his side nor inimically disposed towards him, but persons who would be more or less neutral. But in the present case all the men of the Behala Municipality who were produced before us to give evidence on the point had, as we have shown before, some sort of dispute or enmity with Surendra Nath Roy. Our finding therefore is that the petitioner has failed to substantiate his story of undue influence.

As stated before there was, according to the petitioner, corrupt practice inasmuch as there was "personation." The petitioner's story about personation is that at the Behala Municipal Office, which was one of the polling stations, a man appeared and wanted to record his vote representing himself to be Nepali Kurmi, although he was not Nepali Kurmi himself but his son. According to the petitioner this man had been passed by the respondent's agent as Nepali Kurmi, and if the man was not allowed to record his vote it was only because the presiding officer detected the mistake and disallowed him. On this point, viz., "personation," the evidence, in our opinion, is almost nil. It is true that a man who was not Nepali Kurmi attempted to record his vote as Nepali. But there is nothing before us which would justify us in holding that the agent of Surendra Nath Roy had anything to do with it more than the agent of the petitioner. If the evidence of the presiding officer Babu Sasi Bhusan Bhattacharji is believed—and we have no reason why it should not be believed—all that took place at the time was that when the man representing himself to be Nepali Kurmi came up the agents of both the candidates remained silent. In these circumstances we do not think it can be held that there was any procuring or abetting or attempting to procure on the part of the respondent or of his agent or of any other person with the connivance of the respondent or his agent. And if there was no such procuring, abetting or attempting to procure the charge of personation as defined in section 3, Part I, Schedule IV of the Bengal Electoral Rules could not possibly stand. That there was personation as defined in section 2, Part II, Schedule IV of the Bengal Electoral Rules can admit of no doubt. The evidence of more than one witness including the presiding officer Babu Sasi Bhusan Bhattacharji himself clearly shows that Nepali Kurmi's son did apply for a voting paper and wanted to vote for his father Nepali.

But this personation, as defined in section 2, Part II, Schedule IV of the Bengal Electoral Rules, will not be of any avail to the petitioner unless it can be shown that the election of the returned candidate has been procured or induced by that personation or the result of the election has been materially affected thereby. In the present case, although there was such personation in that Nepali Kurmi's son wanted to vote for Nepali, it cannot for a moment be contended that this attempt on the part of Nepali Kurmi's son affected the election in any way whatsoever. As we have stated before the presiding officer detected the mistake and Nepali Kurmi's son was not allowed to record any vote—a fact which is admitted also by the petitioner in the concluding portion of paragraph 16 (1) of his petition. Our findings, therefore, are that there was no corrupt practice committed as specified in Part I of Schedule IV of the Bengal Electoral Rules, and although there was personation as defined in Part II of the said schedule the election of the returning candidate was not in any way affected thereby. Issues Nos. 2 and 3 are, therefore, decided in favour of the respondent and against the petitioner.

Issue No. 6.—The point that was raised in this issue was that there was an improper rejection of votes at the Behala Vernacular School, one of the polling stations within the Behala Municipality. No serious attempt, however, was made by the petitioner to establish this point. One Bagala Charan Mukherji, P. W. 17, gave some evidence to show that some 15 or 20 voters were turned out by Surendra Nath Roy and were therefore not allowed to vote, but according to Bagala Charan this incident happened not at the Behala Vernacular School polling station but at the polling station at the Borisa Charitable Dispensary. Babu Hari Mohan Chatterji, the election agent of the petitioner at the Borisa Charitable Dispensary, however, says that he did not notice any irregularity of any kind at this particular polling station. Hon'ble S. K. Sinha, the presiding officer at the Behala Vernacular School polling station, has emphatically denied that there was any objection taken before him by any one that any voter had been prevented from coming into the polling booth or had not been allowed to record his vote. We, therefore, hold that it has not been established before us that there was an improper rejection of votes at the Behala Vernacular School polling station, and issue No. 6 is accordingly decided against the petitioner.

Issue No. 4.—Before we proceed to discuss this issue we think that it will be better if we would describe here a little the arrangements that were made for recording votes in the Behala Municipality. The Behala Municipal area was divided into six polling stations and these six polling stations were—the Behala Vernacular School, the Behala Brahmo Samaj, the Behala Municipal Office, the Borisa High School, the Borisa Charitable Dispensary and Behala Kamarghat. There were three presiding officers appointed for these six polling stations, and Hon'ble S. K. Sinha, Assistant Magistrate of Alipore, was put in charge of the polling stations at the Behala Vernacular School and Borisa High School, while the polling stations at the Brahma Samaj and Behala Kamarghat were put in charge of Deputy Collector Babu Debendra Nath Bose, and the remaining two polling stations, viz., Behala Municipal Office and Borisa Charitable Dispensary were put in charge of another Deputy Collector Babu Sashi Bhushan Bhattacharji. According to the petitioner's case at all these polling stations with the exceptions of those presided over by Babu Sashi Bhusan Bhattacharji there was no secrecy of voting observed, that the illiterate voters were asked in loud voice whom they wanted to vote for, that these illiterate voters replied in equally loud voice, that the marking of the ballot papers was in the majority of cases done in such a way that it could be seen by other people, and that at the polling stations presided over by Hon'ble S. K. Sinha the voters in almost in all cases, literate or illiterate, were asked by the polling officer whom they wanted to vote for, that the polling officer himself put the cross-mark on the ballot papers and after folding up the ballot papers put them himself into the ballot box. The petitioner also stated that at the Behala Brahmo Samaj polling station presided over by Babu Debendra Nath Bose, there was present in the inner enclosure one Sidhi Nath Chatterji, the Vice-Chairman of the Behala Municipality, and one Kristadhan Mukherji, a Commissioner of the same Municipality, was present in the inner enclosure of the Behala Vernacular School polling station which was presided over by the Hon'ble S. K. Sinha. According to the petitioner's case these persons, Sidhi Nath Chatterji and Kristadhan Mukherji, had no business to be present inside the polling booth, and the presiding officers by allowing them to remain there acted in contravention of the provision as laid down in article XXII of the Bengal Electoral Regulations. That there were some irregularities committed at the polling stations presided over by Babu Debendra Nath Bose and the Hon'ble S. K. Sinha can admit of no doubt. Deben Babu has admitted that the marking of the ballot paper was done in such a way that it could be seen by other people if they wanted to see, and the Hon'ble S. K. Sinha was frank enough to admit that in almost all cases without any discrimination as to whether they were literate or illiterate he asked the voters whom they wanted to vote for and when the voters gave out the name of the candidate they wanted to vote for, the polling officer himself marked the ballot papers and did all the rest, viz., folding up the ballot papers and putting them into the ballot box himself. As regards the presence of Babu Sidhi Nath Chatterji at the Behala Brahmo Samaj polling station and of Babu Krishtadhan Mukherji at the polling station at the Behala Vernacular School, we are inclined to think that the petitioner has succeeded in establishing this part of his case. Deben Babu himself has admitted the presence of Sidhi Nath at the Behala Brahmo Samaj, and Kristadhan Mukherji's presence at the other polling station has been satisfactorily established by more than one witness examined before us. These two men Sidhi Nath and Kristadhan were neither candidates nor clerks nor agents appointed in writing by either the petitioner or the respondent. Debendra Babu, the presiding officer at the Behala Brahmo Samaj, has taken upon himself the responsibility for allowing Sidhi Nath to remain at the polling booth by saying that he allowed him to stay there for the purpose of identifying the voters. If Debendra Babu allowed Sidhi Nath to remain inside the polling station for the purpose of identifying voters—a power which the presiding officer could legitimately exercise under the provisions of the article XXII of the Bengal Electoral Regulations—we do not think the presence of Sidhi Nath Chatterji was in contravention of any of the rules or regulations. But no such thing can be said in the case of Kristadhan Mukherji. As we have said above his presence at the Behala Vernacular School has been established beyond doubt, and the presiding officer at that polling station could not say that he had allowed the man to remain there for any legitimate purpose. The findings that we arrive at on issue No. 4 therefore are—

(1) The provisions of section 12 (4) of the Bengal Electoral Rules were not strictly complied with inasmuch as no strict secrecy of voting was observed and there was a certain amount of openness in the recording of votes at the polling stations presided over by the Hon'ble S. K. Sinha and Babu Debendra Nath Bose.

(2) Some of the provisions of article XXII of the Bengal Electoral Regulations were violated at the Behala Vernacular School polling station inasmuch as one Kristadhan Mukherji, a Commissioner of the Behala Municipality was allowed to stay in the inner enclosure of the polling station where he had no authority to remain.

(3) The provisions of articles XXVIII and XXIX of the Bengal Electoral Regulations were contravened at the polling station presided over by the Hon'ble S. K. Sinha inasmuch as the polling officer himself put the cross mark on the ballot paper for almost all the voters irrespective of the fact whether they were literate or illiterate and the polling officer himself folded up the ballot papers and himself put them into the ballot box.

Issue No 4 is therefore decided substantially in favour of the petitioner.

Issue No. 5.—But the non-compliance with the provisions of sections 12 (4) of the Bengal Electoral Rules and of articles XXII, XXVIII and XXIX of the Bengal Electoral Regulations will not be of much avail to the petitioner unless it can be shown that the result of the election has been materially affected by such non-compliance. The petitioner has tried in two ways to show that the non-compliance with the provisions of the rules and regulations has materially affected the result of the election, and we propose now to discuss these two ways one after another. According to Rai Yatindra Nath Chowdhury there were some 200 or 300 voters within the Behala Municipality who promised to vote for him on condition that the voting would be secret. And the contention on behalf of the petitioner has been that inasmuch as the voting was not secret but open most of those voters who had promised to vote for him on that condition did not dare to vote for the petitioner and all those votes were consequently lost to him. There is a considerable amount of force in this argument so far as it goes but there are practically no materials before us which would justify us in holding that if the petitioner secured only 93 votes in the Behala polling area that was for no other reason than that there was a certain amount of openness in voting. The petitioner Rai Yatindra Nath Chowdhury is the principal witness on this part of the petitioner's case and we were much impressed by the way in which the petitioner gave his evidence in Court. But the evidence of Rai Yatindra Nath Chowdhury when taken at its full value does not carry us very far in determining the question whether the want of strict secrecy in voting had much to do with the poor support which the petitioner got from the voters within the Behala Municipality. Rai Yatindra Nath in the evidence that he gave before us stated that after the votes had been counted by the returning officer he (the petitioner) met some of the men who had promised to vote for him and asked them why they had not voted in his favour. But with the exception of one or two who do not prove much these men were not produced before us to give their evidence on the point. Rai Yatindra Nath told us that he had made some attempts to produce these men in Court. But the only attempt which he appears to have made was to have given directions to his officers and principally to his manager Nitai Chandra Bhaduri to go to the men and ask them to come and depose in his favour. But it is a significant fact that this manager Nitai Chandra Bhaduri was not examined before us. We are therefore unable to hold that the non-production of any of these men, who, according to Rai Yatindra Nath Chowdhury, had promised to vote for him on condition that the voting would be secret, in the witness box before us, has been sufficiently explained. And in the absence of the evidence of any of these men we are unable to connect the want of secrecy of voting at the polling stations and the poor support which the petitioner obtained from the voters of the Behala Municipal area as cause and effect. There was a certain interval between the time when the petitioner obtained the conditional promise from those voters and the date of actual voting, and as undoubtedly the canvassers and supporters of Surendra Nath Roy were also at work during this interval it was not at all improbable that they succeeded in making those voters change their mind again. The first way, therefore, in which the petitioner wanted to show that the non-compliance with the rules and regulations materially affected the result of the election, in our judgment, fails.

There was another way in which it was sought to be established that the result of the election had been materially affected by the non-compliance with the rules and regulations. It was urged that the votes which were recorded at the polling stations presided over by the Hon'ble S. K. Sinha, should not have been counted at all inasmuch as there had admittedly been violation of some of the rules and regulations at those two polling stations, and that if the votes that were recorded at those two polling stations go, the small majority of 269 votes by which Babu Surendra Nath Ray was found to have been elected would altogether disappear. The number of votes that were recorded at these two polling stations was considerably more than 269. But the question for our consideration is whether we can regard those votes as nullity. Article XXX of the Bengal Electoral Regulations is the only enactment under which votes can be rejected as invalid. But there is nothing in this article which lays down that votes are to be held as invalid where secrecy has not been strictly observed; and none of the irregularities which admittedly took place at these two polling stations are to be found anywhere in this article XXX. It was contended before us on behalf of the petitioner that on the question of rejecting votes as invalid we are not to confine ourselves within the provisions made in this article. But this is a contention which we are unable to accept. When the rules and regulations give full instructions on each conceivable point that may arise in the course of an election, and when they give detailed instructions on every step that is to be followed in the whole procedure, we do not think that it was the intention of the Legislature that we, while sitting as the Commissioners of an Election Court, should go beyond those specific instructions that have been enacted on any particular point. In this view of the matter we are to a considerable extent supported by what their Lordships did in the well-known election case Woodward versus Sarsons (L. R. 10, C. P. 733). Their Lordships in that case, while rejecting as invalid the 294 ballot papers which had been marked by the polling officer in such a way that the voters could have been identified, refused to reject as invalid the 20 ballot papers of polling station No. 125 on the ground that although there had been a breach by the presiding officer of some directions as given in the rules framed under the Ballot Act, there was no breach for which by any enactment the ballot papers could be rejected. We therefore hold that the ballot papers at the polling stations presided over by the Hon'ble S. K. Sinha cannot be lawfully rejected by us, and if they cannot be so rejected it would be difficult to see how the admitted irregularities committed by the polling officer at these two polling stations can be said to have materially affected the result of the election. Both the contentions that were urged before us in order to bring the irregularities and non-compliance with the rules and regulations under section 42 (1) (c) therefore fail, and our finding is that although there was non-compliance with some of the provisions of rule 12 (4) of the Bengal Electoral Rules and articles XXII, XXVIII and XXIX of the Bengal Electoral Regulations the result of the election was not materially affected by that non-compliance. Issue No. 5 is accordingly decided against the petitioner.

Abstract of the findings.—To put them together the findings that we have arrived at in this trial are:—

(1) No corrupt practice has been established either under Part I or Part II of Schedule IV of the Bengal Electoral Rules except that there was personation by the son of one Nepali Kurmi as defined in Part II thereof, which, however, did not affect the result of the election in any way.

(2) Secrecy of voting was not strictly observed at the polling stations presided over by the Hon'ble S. K. Sinha and Babu Debendra Nath Bose and specially at the former.

(3) There was some violation of the provisions in articles XXII, XXVIII and XXIX of the Bengal Electoral Regulations.

(4) But the result of the election was not materially affected by these irregularities and breaches.

Result.—The petitioner, Rai Yatindra Nath Chowdhury, has therefore in our opinion failed to substantiate the grounds on which he sought to set aside the election of the respondent, Babu Surendra Nath Roy, and Babu Surendra Nath Roy was in our judgment duly elected. And we therefore recommend that the petition presented by Rai Yatindra Nath Chaudhury be dismissed.

The only question that remains now for our consideration is the question of costs. In consideration of the fact that there were really some irregularities at some of the polling stations and that there were some breaches of the provisions as laid down in the rules and regulations, we are of opinion that the petitioner had some reasonable grounds for filing the petition and trying to have the election of the respondent set aside. And in this view of the matter we would direct that each party bear his own costs.

S. C. MALLIK, President.
NILMANI MUKHERJI,
NIROD CHANDRA CHATTERJI, Commissioners.

ALIPORE,
The 13th May 1921.

L. S. S. O'MALLEY,
Secretary to the Government of Bengal.

NOTIFICATION.

Minister in charge : The Hon'ble Sir S. N. Banarji, Kt.

No. 1504Medl.—The 30th May 1921.—In exercise of the powers conferred by clause (k) of section 138 of the Bengal Local Self-Government Act of 1885 (Bengal Act III of 1885), the Government of Bengal (Ministry of Local Self-Government) are pleased to make the following rules for the control and administration under the said Act of hospitals and dispensaries following systems of medicines other than Allopathic :—

OPENING AND CLOSING OF DISPENSARIES

1. A dispensary may be opened or aided by a District Board with the sanction of the District Board at a meeting and on provision of the necessary funds in the annual budget. It may be closed by the same authority, and with the same sanction.

2. Whenever a new dispensary is opened by a District Board or when a grant-in-aid is made to a private dispensary from the District Fund, the fact should be reported by the District Board to the Civil Surgeon of the district and the Surgeon-General with the Government of Bengal, with information on the following points:—

(a) The name of the dispensary.

(b) Whether there is arrangement in the dispensary for the treatment of in-door patients, and if so, the number of beds for male and female patients.

(c) The system of treatment followed in the dispensary, i.e., whether Ayurvedic (Kaviraji), Unani (hakimi), homœopathic or any other system.

(d) Date of opening of the dispensary or the date of granting of the aid.

(e) Estimated annual cost of the maintenance of the dispensary.

(f) The name of the person or authority with whom the ultimate responsibility for the maintenance of the dispensary rests; if with a private body or private individual, the amount of aid granted by the District Board should be stated.

MANAGEMENT AND SUPERVISION.

3. The management of a dispensary shall be vested in a Managing Committee appointed by the District Board or the private body or private individual with whom the ultimate responsibility for its maintenance rests, subject to the veto of the Government. The members shall be notified by the Government in the Calcutta Gazette.

N B.—A Civil Surgeon or a Subdivisional Medical Officer shall not be a member of the Managing Committee.

4. The members shall elect from among themselves one Chairman and one Secretary.

5. No employee of the dispensary shall be eligible for appointment as a member of the Managing Committee.

6. Every member of a Managing Committee shall vacate his office at the end of three years from the date of his appointment as such member or earlier when the term of office of the members of the District Board by which the Committee is appointed expires:

Provided that the term of office of the members of the Committee shall be held to include any period which may elapse between its expiration and the date of the first meeting of a new Committee appointed to take its place.

7. A member of a Committee appointed under rule 3 may at any time be removed from office by the District Board or by the private body or private individual by whom the Committee was appointed.

8. If any member is unable to complete his full term of office or avails himself of leave granted by the Committee, the vacancy caused by his resignation or removal or death or absence on leave, shall be filled up by the appointment of another person, and the person so appointed shall hold office for the unexpired remainder of the term for which such member would otherwise have continued in office or during his absence on leave, as the case may be.

9. The Managing Committee shall hold meetings at such intervals as may be necessary not less than once a quarter, to enable them to exercise an efficient scrutiny over the accounts and to enquire into all matters affecting the welfare of the institution.

10. One-third of the total number of members shall form a quorum at any meeting.

11. The Managing Committee shall examine and pass the monthly accounts and shall keep a minute book in which their proceedings shall be recorded. The accounts shall, however, be passed regularly each month by the Chairman of the Managing Committee, or in his absence by the Secretary.

12. In the case of private aided dispensaries the Managing Committee shall be responsible for the management of the funds of the dispensary. It shall be their duty to see that the guaranteed and promised subscriptions are regularly collected. After defraying the current expenses of the institution, the balance at the end of the month, if any, of the donations, subscriptions and interest realised by the Committee shall be deposited by them in the Post Office Savings Bank.

13. When the amount at credit of the dispensary exceeds Rs. 200, the Comptroller-General shall ordinarily be asked to invest the whole or part of it in Government securities, which shall be held in the custody of the Accountant-General, Bengal. The securities must not be sold and the invested funds must not be appropriated or used in any way without the sanction of Government.

Nothing in this rule or in the preceding rule shall prevent the Managing Committee from accepting as a contribution to the funds of the institution shares or a deposit in a Co-operative Central Bank or money offered with the express instruction that it shall be invested in such shares or shall be so deposited. Neither shall it be necessary to convert shares or deposits so received into Government securities. Contributions in the form of partly paid up shares with a liability attaching to them should be carefully scrutinized and should not be accepted without the previous orders of Government.

14. The Managing Committee shall submit to the Medical Department, through the Civil Surgeon of the district, an annual return in the following form:—

Annual Return of patients treated in the Dispensary during the year.

	NUMBER OF BEDS.			TOTAL NUMBER TREATED.			DAILY AVERAGE.			Remarks.

15. Every dispensary is subject to inspection by the Commissioner of the Division, by the Civil authorities of the district, by the Civil Surgeon, by the administrative officers of the Medical Department, the Chairman and Vice-Chairman of the District Board and any other person who may be generally or specially appointed by Government, or the District Board for the purpose. No charge will be made for such inspection.

PREPARATION OF BUDGET AND METHOD OF KEEPING ACCOUNTS.

16. Preparation of dispensary budget.—The Managing Committee shall annually prepare a budget estimate of the probable income and expenditure of the dispensary for the ensuing financial year arranged according to the headings given in annual Statement H (B. C. M. D. Form No. 22), and submit it to the District Board on a date fixed by the District Board. No expenditure shall be incurred in excess of the amounts sanctioned, unless previous sanction has been obtained to either a reappropriation of grants or an additional grant obtained from the District Board.

17. Method of keeping accounts where funds are under direct control of a District Board.—As regards these dispensaries the interest on the investments will be accounted for by the District Board direct. But all donations and subscriptions will be collected by the Managing Committee, and paid into the Savings Bank at the Post Office. The account shall be in the name of the Chairman or Secretary of the Committee. The whole amount collected shall be sent intact to the Savings Bank. Amounts required for expenditure may be withdrawn according to requirements, but there shall be in support of each payment a duly vouched bill passed by either the Chairman or Secretary, and the total expenditure under any head in the budget shall not be exceeded without the sanction of the District Board.

18. The Managing Committee shall maintain a subscription register in B. C. M. D. Form No. 6, in which the initials or signature of the donor must be taken. The collections of the month shall be totalled from this register or the Savings Bank Pass-Book and the entered on the receipt side of the cash-book (B. C. M. D. Form No. Interest allowed by the Post Office shall be shown against "Miscellaneous

19. All disbursements in respect of these dispensaries shall be either made from the imprest in the hands of the Medical Officer in charge or from the money withdrawn according to requirements from the Savings Bank or by the District Board concerned on bills duly passed by the Managing Committee by issue of cheques upon the treasury. The Medical Officer shall from time to time present bills in recoupment of his imprest supported by payee's receipts. Payments met by withdrawal from the Savings Bank or by cheque from the District Board shall be entered on the payment side of the cash-book (B. C. M. D. Form No. 8) in the appropriate column.

Payments met out of the imprest shall be recorded in an imprest Register (B. C. M. D. Form No. 60). Charges to be ultimately recouped by the District Board shall be entered in the appropriate column under the heading "Payable by District Board," and charges to be recouped by withdrawal from Savings Bank shall be entered in the appropriate column under the heading "Payable from Savings Bank." Whenever the imprest runs low and always at the end of the month, two recoupment bills will be prepared—one for payment by the District Board and one for withdrawal from the Savings Bank. The sub-vouchers appertaining to the former shall be submitted with the bill to the District Board. The totals under each column of the Imprest Register will be entered in the corresponding column of the cash-book when the recoupment bills are cashed.

20. The Managing Committee shall, by the 4th of each month, submit a copy of the cash-book for the previous month, with all vouchers, to the District Board for verification and incorporation in their accounts.

21. The amount of monthly subscriptions guaranteed by the local people when starting the dispensary shall be paid to the District Board every month. The payment shall be entered in column 16 of the payment side of the cash-book and shall also be entered on the receipt side against the head "Guaranteed subscription paid to District Board," a corresponding deduction being made under the head "Receipts."

GENERAL.

22. Record of work and of accounts to be kept by Managing Committee.—The Managing Committee of every hospital or dispensary shall cause to be kept at the institution—

(a) a record of the work done, showing day by day the number of patients treated, the affections for which they were treated, and, in important cases, some account of the symptoms, the treatment, progress, and the result,

(b) a record of the accounts of the institution.

These shall be written up daily by the Medical Officer in charge, and shall be open at all times to the inspection of inspecting officers.

The Medical Officer shall write up all other books and records prescribed under these rules.

23. Visitors' book.—A visitors' book shall be kept in every hospital and dispensary in which will be recorded the remarks of visitors.

24. Responsibilities of Medical Officer.—The Medical Officer in charge of a hospital or dispensary is responsible for the proper treatment of the sick, and this duty shall not on any account be delegated to a subordinate; he is also responsible for all matters connected with the comfort and well-being of the patients and for the proper working of the establishment of the institution.

25. Hours of attendance.—The Managing Committee shall prescribe the hours of attendance (which shall not be less than four hours in the morning and two hours in the afternoon) within which the Medical Officer must be present at the hospital or dispensary. He must also give attention to urgent cases at other hours.

The hours of attendance shall be clearly stated in a notice posted in some conspicuous part of the institution.

26. Advice and medicines to be free.—Any person attending at a charitable dispensary is entitled to receive advice and medicines free of charge; but the Medical Officer should impress upon any person who is not poor the duty of subscribing to the dispensary or paying for the medicines supplied to him, and should bring to the notice of the Committee any cases in which the privilege is abused.

27. Issue of medicines.—No medicines shall be issued from the dispensary stock to any one who does not receive treatment at the dispensary either as an in-door or as an out-door patient.

28. Scale of fees for accommodation of paying patients.—Where special accommodation has been provided for paying patients, fees may be levied according to a scale previously sanctioned in that behalf by the Managing Committee.

29. Private practice.—The Medical Officer in charge of a hospital or dispensary has the privilege of engaging in private practice, provided it does not interfere with his attendance at the hospital or dispensary during the hours prescribed in rule 25, or in any other way with his duties.

30. Prohibition of interest in private dispensary or druggist's shop.—No Medical Officer in charge of a hospital or dispensary, or any compounder, dresser, or other servant of such institution, shall have any interest in a private dispensary or druggist's shop. In places where there is no approved druggist's shop or private dispensary, a Medical Officer may, with the consent of the Managing Committee, keep a private supply of medicine for the use of his private patients.

31. Storage of medicines, instruments and poisons.—Medicines and instruments shall be kept under lock and key, except small quantities of the articles in daily use during the attendance of patients.

32. Poisons should be stocked in special bottles and kept under separate lock and key which should remain in the custody of the Medical Officer in charge of the hospital or dispensary: the doses in which these drugs are usually administered internally should be legibly written on a conspicuous label. A list of poisons should be hung up in the almirah specially reserved for such drugs.

33. Appointment and discharge of compounders, dressers and menial servants.—Menial servants will be appointed and discharged by the Medical Officer in charge subject to the approval of the Managing Committee of the institution. Compounders and dressers will be appointed and be liable to removal by the Managing Committee, subject to the approval of the District Board.

34. Prohibition of private employment of servants.—Whole-time servants must not be employed in the private service of the Medical Officer, or of any member of the Managing Committee.

35. Disposal of non-infected clothing and property of deceased patients.—In the case of patients to whom section 54 of Act III of 1913 does not apply it shall be the duty of the hospital authorities to send all articles of clothing which are infected and other moveable property belonging to the deceased in-door patients through the police to the local Munsif or District Judge for disposal under the provisions of Bengal Regulation V of 1799. In the case of European or other patients to whom section 54 of Act III of 1913 applies, there is no obligation on the hospital authorities to report the death to the Judge or to send to him the property of the deceased. It may be taken away by the relations or friends of the deceased. if there are any present. If not, the hospital authorities may keep any moveable property left by the deceased until the friends or relations of the deceased can take them away. If no application is made within six months the articles may be sent to the District Judge with a report of the death of the deceased. In making over such property or allowing such property to be taken away, the hospital authorities will exercise due care and caution, and will advise the parties that they are not legally entitled to possession of these until they have complied with the provisions of law on the subject of the effects of deceased persons, and that they are permitted to remove the property at their own risk.

A receipt for the goods should be taken in a register to be kept for the purpose or on a separate paper which should be filed.

BOOKS AND FORMS.

36. Books and forms to be kept up by the Medical Officer.—The following books and forms are required to be kept up by the Medical Officer at hospitals and dispensaries brought under these rules:—

(1) Diary and register of in-door patients (B. C. M. D. Form 1).
(2) Register of out-patients (B. C. M. D. Form 2).
(3) Ticket for out-door patients (B. C. M. D. Form 10).
(4) Monthly bill in detail of establishment, diet and contingencies. These are to be prepared by the Medical Officer in charge, and sent for examination, countersignature, and payment to the Secretary of the Managing Committee. In all cases in which there is expenditure for establishment, diet or any other charge to be paid by the Government, the bills of such expenditure are to be kept separate from the private accounts of the charity.
(5) A bill-book for copies of all the dispensary bills (blank book).
(6) A daily account or cash-book showing actual receipts and expenditure in detail (blank books). This is to be kept by the Medical Officer, and the account totalled up at the end of each month.
(7) A stock ledger of medicines (B. C. M. D. Form 47).
(8) Annual indent for forms (B. C. M. D. Form 16).
(9) A visitors' book. For this a simple blank book will suffice.
(10) A blank book for copies of all letters and circulars received, of which the originals cannot be retained.
(11) A blank book for copying all letters despatched.
(12) A book-cover for filing all circulars and other letters.

37. Books and forms to be kept up by the Managing Committee.—The following books and forms are required to be kept up by the Managing Committee of a dispensary:—

(1) An Imprest Register for class III-B—Dispensary (B. C. M. D. Form 60).
(2) A cash-book of class III-B—Dispensary Fund (B. C. M. D. Form 8) to be kept by the Dispensary Committee or Manager.
(3) A subscription register for dispensary (B. C. M. D. Form 6).
(4) Receipt (counterfoil book) for subscriptions (B. C. M. D. Form 4).
(5) A dispensary property book (blank book).
(6) A Committee book for recording the proceedings of each meeting of the managing body (blank book).

ENGLISH DEPARTMENT—CIVIL.

The 31st May 1921.

No. 3022G.—The following rule having been framed by the High Court of Judicature at Fort William in Bengal in the exercise of the powers vested in it by section 79 of the Provincial Insolvency Act, 1920 (V of 1920), with the sanction of the Governor General in Council, is published for general information:—

Rule.

1.—Cancel Rule 50, Chapter II, at pages 73-77, Volume I, of the Court's General Rules and Circular Orders, Civil, and substitute therefor the following:—

The Provincial Insolvency Act, 1920 (V of 1920).

Framed under section 79, Act V of 1920

50 (1) The following rules may be cited as "The Provincial Insolvency Rules." The forms prescribed by these rules, with such variations as circumstances may require, shall be used for the matters to which they severally relate.

(The forms are reproduced as Civil Process Forms Nos. 137 to 150 in Volume II).

(2) Every insolvency petition shall be entered in the Register of Insolvency Petitions to be maintained in all Courts exercising Insolvency Jurisdiction, and shall be given a serial number in that Register, and all subsequent proceedings in the same matter shall bear the same number.

(3) All insolvency proceedings may be inspected at such times, and subject to such restrictions as the District Judge may prescribe, by the Receiver, the debtor, and any creditor who has proved, or any legal representative on their behalf.

Notices.

(4) Whenever publication of any notice or other matter is required by the Act or by these Rules to be made in an official Gazette, a memorandum referring to and giving the date on which such advertisement appeared shall be filed with the record and noted in the order-sheet.

(5) Notice of an order fixing the date of the hearing of a petition under Section 19 (2) shall be published in the local official Gazette and advertised in such newspapers as the Court may direct. A copy of the notice shall also be forwarded by registered letter to each creditor to the address given in the petition. The same procedure shall be followed in respect of notices of the date for the consideration of a proposal for composition or scheme of arrangement under section 38 (1).

(6) Notice of an order of adjudication under section 30 may, in addition to the publication in the local official Gazette required by the Act, be published in such newspapers as the Court may direct. When the debtor is a Government servant, a copy of the order shall be sent to the head of the office in which he is employed. The same procedure shall be followed in regard to notices of orders annulling an adjudication under section 37 (2).

(7) The notice to be given by the Court under section 50 shall be served on the creditor or his pleader, or shall be sent through the post by registered letter.

(8) The notice to be issued by the Receiver under section 61 before the declaration of a final dividend to the persons whose claims to be creditors have been notified, but not proved, shall be sent through the post by registered letter.

(9) Notices of the date of hearing of applications for discharge under section 41 (1) shall be published in the local official Gazette and in such newspapers as the Judge may direct, and copies shall be sent by registered post to all creditors whether they have proved or not.

(10) A certificate of an officer of the Court or of the Official Receiver, or an affidavit by a Receiver that any of the notices referred to in the preceding rules has been duly posted accompanied by the Post Office receipt shall be sufficient evidence of such notice having been duly sent to the person to whom the same was addressed.

(11) In addition to the prescribed methods of publication, any notice may be published otherwise in such manner as the Court may direct, for instance, by affixing copies in the Court-house or by beat of drum in the village in which the insolvent resides.

Receivers.

(12) Every appointment of a Receiver shall be by order in writing signed by the Court. Copies of this order sealed with the seal of the Court should be served on the debtor, and forwarded to the person appointed.

(13) (1) A Court when fixing the remuneration of a Receiver should, as a rule, direct it to be in the nature of a commission or percentage of which one part should be payable on the amount realised, after deducting any sums paid to secured creditors out of the proceeds of their securities, and the other part on the amount distributed in dividends.

(2) When a Receiver realizes the security of a secured creditor, the Court may direct additional remuneration to be paid to him with reference to the amount of work which he has done and the benefit resulting to the creditors.

(14) The Receiver shall keep a cash-book and such books and other papers as to give a correct view of his administration of the estate, and shall submit his accounts at such times and in such forms as the Court may direct. Such accounts shall be audited by such person or persons as the Court may direct. The costs of the audit shall be fixed by the Court, and shall be paid out of the estate.

(15) Any creditor who has proved his debt may apply to the Court for a copy of the Receiver's Accounts (or any part thereof) relating to the estate, as shown by the cash-book up to date, and shall be entitled to such copy on payment of the charges laid down in the rules of this Court regarding the grant of copies.

(16) In any case in which a meeting of creditors is necessary and in any case in which the debtor proposes a composition or scheme under section 38, the Receiver shall give seven days' notice to the debtor and to every creditor of the time and place appointed for such meeting. Such notices shall be served by registered post.

Proof of Debts.

(17) A creditor's proofs should be in Civil Process Form No. 146, in Volume II, with such variations, as circumstances may require.

(18) In any case in which it shall appear from the debtor's statement that there are numerous claims for wages by workmen and others employed by the debtor, it shall be sufficient if one proof for all such claims is made either by the debtor or by some other persons on behalf of all such creditors. Such proof should be in Civil Process Form No. 147 in Volume II.

Procedure where the Debtor is a Firm.

(19) Where any notice, declaration, petition, or other document requiring attestation is signed by a firm of creditors or debtors in the firm name, the partner signing for the firm shall also add his own signature, e.g., "Brown & Co. by James Green, a partner in the said firm."

(20) Any notice or petition for which personal service is necessary, shall be deemed to be duly served on all the members of a firm if it is served at the principal place of business of the firm within the jurisdiction of the Court, on any one of the partners, or upon any person having at the time of service the control or management of the partnership business there.

(21) The provision of the last preceding rule shall, so far as the nature of the case will admit, apply in the case of any person carrying on business within the jurisdiction in a name or style other than his own.

(22) Where a firm of debtors file an insolvency petition the same shall contain the names in full of the individual partners, and if such petition is signed in the firm name the petition shall be accompanied by an affidavit made by the partner who signs the petition showing that all the partners concur in the filing of the same.

(23) An adjudication order made against a firm shall operate as if it were an adjudication order made against each of the persons who at the date of the order is a partner in that firm.

(24) In cases of partnership the debtors shall submit a schedule of their partnership affairs, and each debtor shall submit a schedule of his separate affairs.

(25) The joint creditors, and each set of separate creditors, may severally accept compositions or schemes of arrangement. So far as circumstances will allow, a proposal accepted by joint creditors may be approved in the prescribed manner, notwithstanding that the proposals or proposal of some or one of the debtors made to their or his separate creditors may not be accepted.

(26) Where proposals for compositions or schemes are made by a firm, and by the partners therein individually, the proposals made to the joint creditors shall be considered and voted upon by them apart from every set of separate creditors; and the proposal made to each separate set of creditors shall be considered and voted upon by such separate set of creditors apart from all other creditors. Such proposals may vary in character and amount. Where a composition or scheme is approved, the adjudication order shall be annulled only so far as it relates to the estate, the creditors of which have confirmed the composition or scheme.

(27) If any two or more of the members of a partnership constitute a separate and independent firm, the creditors of such last-mentioned firm shall be deemed to be a separate set of creditors, and to be on the same footing as the separate creditors of any individual member of the firm. And when any surplus shall arise upon the administration of the assets of such separate or independent firm, the same shall be carried over to the separate estates of the partners in such separate and independent firm according to their respective rights therein.

Sale of Immoveable Property of Insolvent.

(28) If no Receiver is appointed and the Court, in exercise of its powers under section 58 of the Act, sells any immoveable property of the insolvent, the deed of sale of the said property shall be prepared by the purchaser at his own cost, and shall be signed by the Presiding Officer of the Court. The cost of registration (if any) will also be borne by the purchaser.

Dividends.

(29) The amount of the dividend may, at the request and risk of a creditor, be transmitted to him by post.

Summary Administration.

(30) When an estate is ordered to be administered in a summary manner under section 74 of the Act, the provisions of the Act and Rules shall, subject to any special direction of the Court, be modified as follows, namely :—

(i) There shall be no advertisement of any proceedings in the Local Official Gazette or in any newspaper.

(ii) The petition and all subsequent proceedings shall be endorsed "Summary Case."

(iii) The notice of the hearing of the petition to the creditors shall be in Civil Process Form No. 150 in Volume II.

(iv) The Court shall examine the debtor as to his affairs, but shall not be bound to call a meeting of creditors, but the creditors shall be entitled to be heard and to cross-examine the debtor.

(v) The appointment of a Receiver will often not be necessary, and the Court may act under section 58 of the Act in order to reduce the cost of the proceedings.

Costs.

(31) All proceedings under the Act down to and including the making of an order of adjudication shall be at the cost of the party prosecuting the same, but when an order of adjudication has been made, the reasonable costs of the petitioning creditor shall be payable out of the estate.

(32) No costs incurred by a debtor of, or incidental to, an application to approve of a composition or scheme, shall be allowed out of the estate, if the Court refuses to approve the composition or scheme.

NOTIFICATION

Test Examination of Private candidates for the Matriculation Examination of 1922.

A TEXT Examination of private candidates, who have not attended any school, recognised or unrecognised, for at least one year previous to the ensuing examination, will be held at the office of the Inspector of Schools, Presidency Division, Calcutta, from Monday, the 5th December 1921. Such candidates only as reside in any of the districts of the Presidency Division, including Calcutta, will be admitted to the examination. The term "private candidate" includes school masters.

2 Private candidates are those who have not attended any school for at least one year previous to the Matriculation Examination. They should produce proof that they have not attended any school for such period. They should also produce certificates of conduct and progress in studies from the authorities of the last school where they read and also a certificate from other reliable authorities regarding conduct and progress in studies after leaving school. The transfer certificates granted to them by the authorities of the schools in which they studied last or the Registrar's receipt for the fee paid in the case of those candidates who previously appeared at the Entrance or the Matriculation Examination must be submitted in original along with the application for permission to appear at the Text Examination. A statement of the antecedents of the candidate should accompany his application He should state whether he has read in any unrecognised school, and if so, in what school and in what year. A student who failed to pass the annual examination for promotion to the first class at the end of the year 1920, and then left school will, in no circumstances, be allowed to appear at the Test Examination of 1921.

3. Bona-fide teachers employed in any of the schools in the Presidency Division may be admitted to the examination. They must produce certificates of service and character from their employers or from the Deputy Inspector of Schools of the district concerned.

4. No one shall be admitted to the Matriculation Examination unless he has completed the age of sixteen years on the first day of the month in which the Matriculation Examination is held.

5. Each candidate should submit to the Inspector of Schools, Presidency Division, and not to the undersigned personally, not later than the 1st November 1921, his application for admission to the Text Examination, with the following particulars:—

(1) age, (2) residence, (3) father's name, (4) whether he appeared at any previous Entrance or Matriculation Examination, (5) second language besides English, (6) vernacular language, and (7) which two of the following optional subjects he has taken up:—

(a) Additional Mathematics.

(b) Additional paper in a classical language.

(c) History.

(d) Geography.

(e) Elementary Mechanics.

6. The admission-fee for the examination is Rs. 6 for each candidate. This must be remitted with the application on or before the prescribed date, after which a fine of Rs. 2 will be imposed for each week's delay. In no circumstances will the admission-fee be refunded.

7. No private student will be admitted to the Test Examination unless he is satisfactorily identified.

8. Candidates who are sent up by this office must appear at the Calcutta examination centre.

9 Those who reside at a distance from Calcutta may, with special permission, present themselves at the Test Examination held by the head-master of the nearest zilla or Government high school within the Presidency Division on condition that they appear at the centre selected by the candidates from that institution. The headmasters of such schools are hereby authorised to sign the applications. which must afterwards be countersigned by the undersigned. The fees and fines paid by these candidates as per paragraph 6 above should be utilized in meeting the cost of the examination.

10. *The date of the Matriculation Examination in 1922 will be notified hereafter.

11. Applications and fees for admission to the examination must reach the office of the Registrar on or before the date to be fixed by the University.

Minister in charge: The Hon'ble Mr. P. C. Mitter, C.I.E.

No. 1171Edn.—The 13th June 1921.—The following draft rules which the Government of Bengal (Ministry of Education) propose to make in exercise of the power conferred by clause (j) of sub-section (2) of section 101 of the Bengal Village Self-Government Act, 1919 (Bengal Act V of 1919), are published, as required by sub-section (1) of the said section, for the information of persons likely to be affected thereby.

2. The draft will be taken into consideration on or after 1st August 1921 and any objection or suggestion received by the undersigned before that date will be duly considered.

Draft rules under section 101 (2)(j) of the Bengal Village Self-Government Act, 1919, regulating the powers and duties of union boards in regard to primary schools under section 32 of the said Act.

Definition.—In these rules "union board school" means "union board primary school."

1. Every union board shall—

(a) prepare and maintain a map of its area shewing—

(i) the uninhabited areas,

(ii) the means of communication,

(iii) the mauza boundaries, and

(iv) the existing schools of whatever class,

(b) formulate a definite plan for affording facilities for the primary education of the largest possible number of children in the union area,

(c) draw up estimates, capital and recurring, for the carrying out of this plan, and submit them with the plan to the district board for approval,

(d) repair the buildings of union board schools within the union area.

2. Subject to any general or special order that may be made by the district or local board in this behalf every union board shall have the power within the union area of—

(a) opening and closing union board schools,
(b) transferring existing union board schools within the union,
(c) maintaining and managing all union board schools,
(d) fixing the school fees payable by the pupils of union board schools,
(e) fixing holidays for union board schools with due regard to local conditions and to the agricultural and industrial requirements of the people,
(f) sanctioning casual leave to teachers of union board schools,
(g) expending such funds as may be placed at the disposal of the union board, and supplementing them from the union fund,
(h) making recommendations to the district board regarding any matter connected with primary schools in the union board area.

3. The status of the union board school shall not be altered without the sanction of the district or local board.

4. The curriculum prescribed by the district board shall be followed in union board schools. The union board shall have full discretion in the adoption of optional subjects included in the curriculum.

5. The rules prescribed by the district board regarding the admission and withdrawal of pupils shall be observed in union board schools.

6. Strict religious neutrality shall be maintained in all union board schools save in those maintained for any particular community.

7. Subject to the approval of the local board the appointment of teachers in union board schools shall be made by the union board, provided they have such qualifications as may be prescribed by the district board. All proposals to appoint teachers not possessing such qualifications shall require the sanction of the local board.

8. Every union board school shall be open to inspection by the Commissioner, District Officer, Subdivisional Officer, inspecting officers of the Education Department, and members of the district board and of the local board within which the union area lies.

SENATE HOUSE, the 3rd June 1921.

NOTIFICATION.

Test Examination of private candidates for the Matriculation Examination of 1922.

A TEXT Examination of private candidates, who have not attended any school, recognised or unrecognised, for at least one year previous to the ensuing examination, will be held at the office of the Inspector of Schools, Presidency Division, Calcutta, from Monday, the 5th December 1921. Such candidates only as reside in any of the districts of the Presidency Division, including Calcutta, will be admitted to the examination. The term "private candidate" includes school masters.

2. Private candidates are those who have not attended any school for at least one year previous to the Matriculation Examination. They should produce proof that they have not attended any school for such period. They should also produce certificates of conduct and progress in studies from the authorities of the last school where they read and also a certificate from other reliable authorities regarding conduct and progress in studies after leaving school. The transfer certificates granted to them by the authorities of the schools in which they studied last or the Registrar's receipt for the fee paid in the case of those candidates who previously appeared at the Entrance or the Matriculation Examination must be submitted in original along with the application for permission to appear at the Text Examination. A statement of the antecedents of the candidate should accompany his application He should state whether he has read in any unrecognised school, and if so, in what school and in what year. A student who failed to pass the annual examination for promotion to the first class at the end of the year 1920, and then left school will, in no circumstances, be allowed to appear at the Test Examination of 1921.

3. Bonâ-fide teachers employed in any of the schools in the Presidency Division may be admitted to the examination. They must produce certificates of service and character from their employers or from the Deputy Inspector of Schools of the district concerned.

4. No one shall be admitted to the Matriculation Examination unless he has completed the age of sixteen years on the first day of the month in which the Matriculation Examination is held.

5. Each candidate should submit to the Inspector of Schools, Presidency Division, and not to the undersigned personally, not later than the 1st November 1921, his application for admission to the Text Examination, with the following particulars :—

(1) age, (2) residence, (3) father's name, (4) whether he appeared at any previous Entrance or Matriculation Examination, (5) second language besides English, (6) vernacular language, and (7) which two of the following optional subjects he has taken up :—

(a) Additional Mathematics.
(b) Additional paper in a classical language.
(c) History.
(d) Geography.
(e) Elementary Mechanics.

6. The admission-fee for the examination is Rs. 6 for each candidate. This must be remitted with the application on or before the prescribed date, after which a fine of Rs. 2 will be imposed for each week's delay. In no circumstances will the admission-fee be refunded.

7. No private student will be admitted to the Test Examination unless he is satisfactorily identified.

8. Candidates who are sent up by this office must appear at the Calcutta examination centre.

9. Those who reside at a distance from Calcutta may, with special permission, present themselves at the Test Examination held by the headmaster of the nearest zilla or Government high school within the Presidency Division on condition that they appear at the centre selected by the candidates from that institution. The headmasters of such schools are hereby authorised to sign the applications, which must afterwards be countersigned by the undersigned. The fees and fines paid by these candidates as per paragraph 6 above should be utilized in meeting the cost of the examination.

10. The date of the Matriculation Examination in 1922 will be notified hereafter.

11. Applications and fees for admission to the examination must reach the office of the Registrar on or before the date to be fixed by the University.

Intermediate and B.A. Examinations in 1921.

Deputy Inspectors, Sub-Inspectors and bona-fide teachers of English schools in the Presidency Division, who have been employed as such for at least three years preceding the examination, will be admitted to the above examinations on production of certificates of character and length of service (with dates) from their employers. Laboratory assistants and demonstrators and librarians of affiliated colleges will be treated as teachers. Their applications must reach this office on or before the 3rd December 1921.

1. In accordance with section 9, Chapter XV, of the revised Regulations dealing with the registration of University students, all candidates who intend to appear at any of the ensuing examinations of the University of Calcutta otherwise than as students of affiliated institutions, and who have applied for or have obtained the special permission of the Senate for the purpose, are required to apply to the Registrar of the Calcutta University for the registration of their names as University students. No person will be deemed a "University student" unless and until his name has been duly registered, and none but "University students" will be eligible for admission to any University examination other than the Matriculation. A registration fee of Rs. 2 must accompany every application.

2. Candidates for the B. A. Examination must send to the Inspector of Schools, Presidency Division, and not to the undersigned personally, their F. A., I. A., or I. Sc. certificates, and candidates for the Intermediate Examination their Entrance and Matriculation certificates, together with a letter, in original, from the Senate of the Calcutta University, permitting them to appear at the examination.

3. Candidates should carefully read the printed form of application and supply all the information required by the University, including the Registrar's receipt in the case of those school masters who were admitted to a previous examination of the same class.

4. The dates of the Intermediate and B. A. Examinations in 1922 will be notified hereafter.

5 Applications, with the countersignature of the undersigned and fees for admission to the above examinations, must reach the office of the Registrar on or before the dates to be fixed by the University, and must be sent to that office by the candidates direct.

LOCAL SELF-GOVERNMENT DEPARTMENT.

NOTIFICATION.

Minister in charge : The Hon'ble Sir S. N. Banarji, Kt.

Tippera.

No. 2932L.S.-G.—The 18th June 1921.—The following draft rules, which have been framed by the Commissioners of the Chandpur Municipality under section 241 of the Bengal Municipal Act, 1884 (Bengal Act III of 1884), and which the Government of Bengal (Ministry of Local Self-Government) propose to sanction under clause (2) of section 241, are published for the information of persons affected thereby.

2. The draft rules will be taken into consideration on the 1st August 1921 and any objection or suggestion received by the undersigned through the Magistrate before that date will be duly considered :—

Draft rules under Section 241(f) of the Bengal Municipal Act, 1884, for the regulation of the erection of houses, not being huts, within the limits of the Chandpur Municipality.

DEFINITION.

1. In these rules, the term "house" has the same meaning as in clause (4) of section 6 of the Bengal Municipal Act, 1884 (Bengal Act III of 1884), except that it does not include a "hut."

FREE PASSAGE OR WAY IN FRONT OF HOUSES.

2. The rows of houses on each side of a road, including the eaves, walls and verandas, if any, shall be constructed at a distance of at least six feet from the nearest edge of the road, and the drains shall be constructed within the space thus allowed, and this space shall be used as a free passage or way, including drains.

3. No roof of any house shall be built so as to overhang any drain or public path; nor shall any other portion of the house project beyond the line of the adjoining houses.

SPACE TO BE LEFT ABOUT THE HOUSES FOR CERTAIN PURPOSES.

4. A space of at least 20 inches shall be left between the eaves or cornices of any two houses in each holding, and between the eaves or cornices of houses of adjoining holdings, to secure free circulation of air and facilitate scavengering, and for the prevention of fire.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE AND INDUSTRIES.

CALCUTTA, THE 20TH JUNE 1921.

RESOLUTION—No. 2221Agri.

AT the meeting of the Legislative Council held on the 22nd February 1921, the following resolution moved by Babu Nibaran Chandra Das Gupta was passed :—

"This Council recommends to Government that they be pleased to appoint forthwith a commission composed of official and non-official members under some scientific experts, such as Sir J. C. Bose or Sir P. C. Ray, to devise ways and means for removing the scourge of the water-hyacinth and to combat it successfully, before any legislative action is taken, as recommended by the District Boards' conference".

The Hon'ble Minister in charge of the Department of Agriculture and Public Works in accepting the resolution on behalf of Government expressed the hope that a committee of the kind suggested might be able to collect much useful information and to make practical proposals for eradicating the pest.

2. In pursuance of the above resolution the Government of Bengal, in the Ministry of Agriculture and Public Works, are pleased to appoint a committee composed of the following gentlemen to enquire into the spread of the water-hyacinth in Bengal, and to suggest measures for its eradication :—

1. Sir Jagadish Chandra Bose, Kt., C.S.I., C.I.E., D. SC., President.
2. Maharaja Kshaunish Chandra Ray Bahadur, M.L.C.
3. Mr. G. Evans, M.A., C.I.E., Director of Agriculture, Bengal.
4. Rai Sailendra Nath Banerjee Bahadur, Executive Engineer.
5. Dr. Muhammad Ibrahim Sufi, Assistant Director of Public Health.
6. Babu Nibaran Chandra Das Gupta, M.L.C.
7. Khan Bahadur Maulvi Hemayetuddin Ahmad.

The Director of Agriculture will act as Secretary to the Committee.

ORDERED that the resolution be published in the Calcutta Gazette and copies thereof forwarded to the president and members of the committee.

ORDERED also that a copy of the resolution be forwarded to the Local Self-Government, Public Works and Irrigation Departments of this Government for information.

By order of the Government of Bengal (Ministry of Agriculture and Public Works),

J. A. L. SWAN,

Secretary to the Government of Bengal.

No. 1680-F.

NOTIFICATION.

ACCOUNTS AND FINANCE
Public Debt

Simla, the 6th June 1921.

Subscriptions for (a) FIVE YEAR 6 PER CENT. BONDS, 1926, FREE OF INCOME-TAX, and (b) TEN YEAR 6 PER CENT. BONDS, 1931, FREE OF INCOME-TAX, will be received without limit of amount from 20th June to 30th July inclusive. Subscriptions to both issues in the form of 5½ per cent. War Bonds, 1921, will be received up to the 29th October 1921 and in the form of 5½ per cent. War Bonds, 1922, up to the 15th September 1921.

2. DATE OF REPAYMENT.—The Government of India undertake to repay the Five Year 6 per cent. Bonds, 1926, at par on 15th September 1926, and the Ten Year 6 per cent. Bonds, 1931, at par on the 15th September 1931.

3. ISSUE PRICE.—The issue price for both the issues will be Rs. 100 for every Rs. 100 of the Bonds applied for.

4. INTEREST.—Payable half-yearly at the rate of 6 per cent. per annum on 15th March and 15th September.

Advance interest from date of purchase to 14th September 1921 will be paid at the time of issue of securities.

Interest on the Bonds will be income-tax free throughout their currency, but will be taken into account in determining the rate at which the tax will be levied on other income, and will be liable to super-tax.

5. ISSUE OF FIVE YEAR BONDS, 1926, AND TEN YEAR BONDS, 1931, IN EXCHANGE FOR WAR BONDS.—5½ per cent. War Bonds, 1921, will be accepted at par as the equivalent of cash in subscription to the Bonds up to the 29th

October 1921 and 5½ per cent. War Bonds, 1922, will be accepted at par as the equivalent of cash in subscription to the Bonds up to the 15th September 1921.

(1) Tenderers of War Bonds, 1921, or 1922 up to the 15th September 1921 will be paid accrued or accumulated interest at the time of issue of securities at 5½ per cent. up to the day preceding the date of tender, and anticipatory interest at 6 per cent. on the new Bonds from the date of tender to 14th September 1921.

(2) Tenderers of War Bonds, 1921, after 15th September 1921 will be paid all accrued interest up to the 14th September 1921 where it has not already been drawn and the new Bond will be issued bearing interest from 15th September 1921.

Interest will cease from 15th September 1921 on War Bonds, 1921, not tendered for conversion.

Form of securities.

6. The Bonds will be issued in the form of—

(a) Stock, the purchasers of which will be given Stock Certificates, or (b) Promissory Notes.

If no preference is stated by the purchaser, the securities will be issued in the form of Promissory Notes.

Purchase of Bonds in the form of Promissory Notes at Banks and Government Offices.

7. The Bonds in the form of Promissory Notes in denominations of Rs. 100 or multiples thereof can be purchased on payment of the amount due—

(a) Without formal application, at the local head offices or at any Indian branch of the Imperial Bank of India.
(b) On application, at the office of the Controller of the Currency, Calcutta, Deputy Controller of the Currency, Bombay, or of the Accountant-General, Madras, United Provinces, Punjab and Burma, or at any Government treasury or sub-treasury.

Applications may be in the form attached hereto (Form A), or in any other form which states clearly the amount and description of the securities required, the full name and address of the purchaser, and the treasury or sub-treasury at which he desires that interest shall be paid.

Purchase of Bonds in the form of Stock at Government Offices and Banks.

8. Stock can be purchased in denominations of Rs. 100 or multiples thereof on payment of the amount due, from the Public Debt Office, Calcutta, through any of the following offices—

(a) Office of the Controller of the Currency, Calcutta, Deputy Controller of the Currency, Bombay, or of the Accountant-General, Madras, United Provinces, Punjab and Burma;
(b) The local head offices or any Indian branch of the Imperial Bank of India;
(c) Any Government treasury or sub-treasury.

Applications may be in the form attached hereto (Form A), or in any other form which states clearly the amount and description of secruities required, the full name and address of the applicant, and the treasury or sub-treasury at which he desires that interest shall be paid.

Purchase of Bonds at Post Offices.

9. The Bonds in the form of Stock or Promissory Notes can be purchased in denominations of Rs. 100 or multiples thereof, subject to a maximum of Rs. 10,000 in all, from 20th June to 30th July inclusive, on payment of the amount due and on application at any post office conducting savings bank business. Applications may be in the form attached hereto (Form B) or in any other form which states clearly the amount and description of securities required, the full name and address of the applicant, and the treasury or sub-treasury at which he desires that interest shall be paid.

Securities purchased through the Post Office may, if so desired, be left in the custody of the Accountant-General, Posts and Telegraphs.

Safe custody receipts for War Bonds, 1921 and 1922, deposited with the Accountant-General, Posts and Telegraphs, will be received as the equivalent of cash, from 20th June to 15th September or 29th October according as the War Bond belongs to the 5½ per cent. War Bonds, 1922 or 1921, at any post office conducting savings bank business.

Method of payment (a) By cash or cheque.

10. Payment may be made either in cash or by cheque. In the case of purchase of securities at the local head offices of the Imperial Bank of India at Calcutta, Bombay or Madras, the cheques should be drawn in favour of the Secretary and Treasurer. In the case of purchases at the branch of the Imperial Bank, the cheques should be drawn in favour of the local agent. In the case of purchases made at a Government Office or a Post Office, the cheque should be drawn in favour of the officer to whom the application is presented.

(b) By tender of War Bonds.

Payment may also be made by tender of War Bonds. If the value of the War Bonds tendered does not correspond exactly to the price payable for the amount of Bonds applied for, by reason of the fact that the amount of the War Bonds is not a multiple of Rs. 100, it will be at the option of the tenderer either to pay in cash the further amount required to make up an exact multiple of Rs. 100 in Bonds or to have the broken amount refunded to him in cash.

Applicants who tender War Bonds in payment must transfer such Bonds to Government, (a) in the case of Promissory Notes by endorsing these with the words "Pay to the Governor General in Council" over their signature, and (b) in the case of Stock, by signing the form of transfer deed on the back of the Stock Certificate before a witness. In the case of Bearer Bonds no writing is necessary.

(c) By tender of Indian Treasury Bills

Payment at the local head offices of the Imperial Bank of India at Calcutta, Bombay and Madras as well as at the branches of that Bank at Cawnpore, Lahore, Delhi, Rangoon and Karachi may also be made in Indian Treasury Bills which will be accepted as cash at their face value less a discount calculated at the rate of 4 per cent. per annum on the unexpired portion of the currency of the Bill.

(d) By withdrawal of Savings Banks deposits

Payment at post offices may also be made by the withdrawal of sums at the credit of the applicant in the Post Office savings banks.

Brokerage

11. Brokerage will be paid to recognized bankers and brokers on applications for the Bonds bearing their stamp. The rate will be $\frac{1}{16}$th per cent. when payment is made in the form of Treasury Bills and $\frac{1}{8}$th per cent. in other cases.

Purchase of Bonds in London.

12. Application for stock or promissory notes will also be received at the London Office, of the Imperial Bank of India, 2 Princes Street, E. C. 2, on payment in sterling of the nominal value of the Bonds applied for, at the rate for telegraphic transfers on Calcutta on the date of payment. Full details regarding the procedure which will be followed in London regarding the payment of anticipatory interest and receipt of applications for conversion of 1921 and 1922 War Bonds will be notified later.

By order of the Governor General in Council,

E. M. COOK,

Secretary to the Government of India.

JUDICIAL.

Simla, the 8th June 1921.

No. 1073.—The Hon'ble Justice Sir J. G. Woodroffe, Kt., Barrister-at-Law, a Judge of the High Court of Judicature at Fort William in Bengal, is granted privilege leave for one month, with effect from the 28th July 1921.

No. 1075.—The Hon'ble Mr. Justice P. L. Buckland, Barrister-at-Law, a Judge of the High Court of Judicature at Fort William in Bengal, is granted privilege leave for one month, with effect from the 28th July 1921.

No. 1082.—The following statement of the Reasons for the Revision of the Rules of the Appellate Side of the High Court of Calcutta, is published for general information at the request of the Honourable the Chief Justice and Judges of the High Court :—

Statement of Reasons for the Revision of the Rules of the High Court, Appellate Side, relating to the preparation of paper-books, and of action taken by the High Court in connection therewith.

It is desirable to explain for the benefit of those who are unacquainted with the subject, what "Paper-books" are and the necessity for them.

As most people are aware, the cases in which no appeal is allowed by the law of India are comparatively few. In cases of small value, appeals are allowed to the District Courts or to the Courts of Subordinate Judges, as the case may be, and a further appeal known as a Second Appeal is permitted to the High Court on points of law. In suits of greater value, the appeal lies to the High Court direct, such appeals being known as First Appeals, and where the value of the suit is greater still, there is a further appeal to His Majesty in Council, generally known as an appeal to the Privy Council. Though this memorandum deals only with the rules of the Appellate Side of the High Court, that is to say, with rules relating to appeals in cases tried by the Mofussil Courts, it may be stated that as regards suits tried on the Original Side of the High Court an appeal lies to two or more Judges of the Court and from them, in cases of appropriate value, to the Privy Council.

In the Court of first instance the record consists of the pleadings, affidavits, etc., prepared by the parties or their pleaders, the depositions of witnesses recorded by the trial Judge in his own hand, the documents, which may be of every kind and description, filed in the course of the trial, the orders made from time to time by the Judge and recorded by him on the order sheet, and finally the judgment (also a manuscript or possibly a typed document), signed by the Judge. For the purpose of First Appeals (in Second Appeals only the pleadings, the judgments and the memoranda of appeal are ordinarily printed) this mass of papers, generally voluminous, always inconvenient to handle, has to be placed in some suitable form before the Judges of the appellate tribunal, omitting such papers as are not essential to the hearing of the appeal. In the High Court, both Judges require to be provided with copies of all necessary papers, while in the Privy Council, the number of Judges is usually three at the least. In addition to the Judges hearing the appeal, the Counsel or Pleaders of the parties require to be furnished with copies of the record for the purpose of arguing the case and further copies are required for purposes of record. It is, therefore, clear that the initial record is wholly insufficient for the proper conduct of the proceedings. It has, accordingly, been the practice, now for very many years past, to collect and print, in book-form, copies of so much of the record as may be required. Where documents are in the vernacular, they are translated, and copies of the translations are included in the record. These books have come to be known by the name of "paper-books," and it is with preparation of these "paper-books" that the revised rules to which this statement relates are concerned.

In the case of appeals to the Calcutta High Court, the paper-books in appeals other than First Appeals have always been prepared under the direct supervision of the office of the Court, but as regards First Appeals, until the recent revision of the Appellate Side Rules, the paper-books were usually prepared by the Vakils for the appellants. The latter were responsible for the elimination of unnecessary matter from the paper-book, the translation of all vernacular documents to be included therein, the editing and arrangement of papers, the selection of a suitable press, the passing of the material through the press, the correction of the proofs, and the final production of the paper-book in proper form.

Complaints made by the Privy Council

For twenty years or more the Privy Council at intervals have complained, sometimes in scathing terms, of the paper-books supplied to them. These complaints having passed unheeded and no general improvement having occurred, their Lordships in 1916 addressed a formal communication on the subject to the Secretary of State, of which a copy was duly forwarded to the High Court with a covering letter from the Government of India.

Excessive delays

Their Lordships drew attention in the first instance to the delay in the conduct of Indian appeals and particularly to the time which often elapsed between the date of the decree appealed from and the arrival of the printed record in England. They stated that in appeals received in England in 1915 the average delay in the latter respect was two years eight months. They viewed "such a state of things as a public scandal" and were of opinion that "its existence often converted the right of appeal to the Sovereign into an instrument of oppression."

Coming from such a source, these were strong words but they were hardly stronger than the comments to be found in some of their Lordships' published judgments, accessible to all the world in the current Law Reports.

Attention was drawn in one case to a delay of seven years and in another to a delay of ten years, subsequent to the date of the decree of the High Court. In a third case, their Lordships said:—

"Delay in litigation means to every one concerned, in whatever country he may be, needless expense, anxiety and disappointment, and to the poor and honest suitor it is an oppression hard to be borne."

(Haradas vs The Secretary of State for India in Council, 26, C L J 590 at page 604)

In a fourth case this passage occurs:—

"It is now seventy years since Lord Macaulay pointed out that the delay in Indian litigation constituted a reproach to our administration and their Lordships feel with regret that this reproach has not been taken away. A period of fifteen years is needlessly long for the determination of any suit and more than that period has elapsed since the plaints in these proceedings were issued."

Such observations arrest attention. The subject had to be examined, and no thinking person, at all cognisant of the evils of excessive delays in litigation, would say that, if a remedy could be devised, things should be left as they were.

These cases above referred to led to a proposal that the law should be altered so as to empower a High Court to refuse leave to appeal to the Privy Council in cases where no substantial point of law was involved even though the High Court reversed the decision of the Lower Court. But the High Court repelled the proposal on the ground that it would give greater weight to the High Court's decision on facts than to that of the Court which saw the witnesses and heard the evidence.

No more was heard of this proposal and it is noticed only for the purpose of showing how far the search for a remedy was carried.

Something was done by amending the Civil Procedure Code and the Limitation Act to abbreviate some of the stages through which suits and appeals are wont to pass. But such legislation did not touch the principal source of delay in appeals to His Majesty, namely, the time occupied in the preparation of the paper-books.

Delay, however, was not the only ground on which the Privy Council founded their complaints regarding paper-books. Their Lordships, it was stated, are also of opinion that "sufficient control is not exercised by the Courts (i.e., the High Courts) (1) in eliminating from the record unnecessary documents and (2) in providing that the documents which are included are printed in proper order." Reference was made to the fact that paper-books frequently contained hundreds of pages of unnecessary matter and as to arrangement it was said :—

Printing unnecessary matter and bad arrangement.

"Often documents and depositions do not follow one another in any logical or even in any chronological order; they are often merely chaotic; and exhibits are introduced either at random or simply as they were put in at the trial."

It was, therefore, apparent that in the view of the Privy Council the state of things which existed constituted an intolerable public scandal and called for an effective remedy. As the Government of India said in their covering letter (dated October, 1916), "drastic and radical measures" were necessary to terminate "a long existing evil."

Though under the system in force at the time in the Calcutta High Court, the paper-books in First appeals to the Court had already been prepared, if in any case an appeal was subsequently taken to the Privy Council it was necessary to prepare a new paper-book.

The system was obviously in fault and the Government of India were not slow to put a finger on the weak spot. "In the majority of cases," they said, "all the material parts of a record in a Privy Council appeal are printed twice over, once for the High Court and again for the Privy Council." It was, accordingly, suggested that if all High Court appeals were printed in the form required by the Privy Council rules and a sufficient number of copies were struck off at the time, there would be no necessity for reprinting at all. It would then only be necessary to print the High Court's judgment, and all the materials for a Privy Council record would be ready and could be despatched within, at all events, three months from the date of the grant of the certificate by the Court.

The Judges replied to the Government of India in February 1917. The suggestion made by the Government was discussed but rather with reference to details of cost than with a view to a change of system. The admission which the Judges were compelled to make in the course of their letter was for that reason perhaps the more striking :—

> "A reason for present delay," they wrote, "is the haphazard manner in which paper-books from which appeals to the Privy Council arose, are prepared by the Vakils, with the result that the Sworn Examiners have, in a large number of cases, practically to prepare a new paper-book and to refer to the original documents."

Even at that date, it may be added, one of the Judges was disposed to go further than the rest of the Court and to lay it down as a principle that in every case the Privy Council should have before them the paper-book used in the High Court with such additions as might be necessary. The correctness of that principle cann ot be disputed.

It may be worth while noting that in May 1917, the High Court made certain amendments in the rules of the Appellate Side in order to expedite matters so far as they could be expedited without legislation or a complete change of system. No exception was taken to these amendments.

Amendments dated 17th May 1917.

The Government of India had, of course, consulted all the High Courts in India. Having done so, they reported to the Secretary of State, and in April 1920, copies were received of correspondence which had passed.

In brief, the Privy Council accepted the recommendation ultimately made by the Government of India "that the record in all appeals to the Appellate Court in India of Rs. 10,000 (appealable amount) in value, where the record is ordinarily printed for the Appellate Court, should, unless the Court otherwise directs, be printed in Privy Council form. Their Lordships desired that the High Courts should be asked to frame a rule giving effect to this proposal.

In order to avoid reprinting in case of appeal to the Privy Council a sufficient number of copies were to be struck off to meet the requirements of both the Appellate Court and the Privy Council.

Their Lordships also directed that paper-books should be prepared under the direct supervision of officers of the High Court, in accordance with the practice in the Calcutta High Court in the case of Second Appeals.

Stress was laid on the necessity for accuracy in these terms:—

"If the paper-book prepared for the use of the Appellate Court is to form part of the record in an appeal to the Privy Council, it is a matter of the utmost importance that it should be accurately prepared, more especially as the original documents, which are before the High Court for reference if required, are not transmitted to England."

Lastly, their Lordships intimated that they had received with disapproval the information that records were generally retranslated. They considered that the practice was wasteful both of time and money, and that it should be discontinued wherever it existed.

An order in Council was issued on the 9th February 1920, rescinding the regulations in force for Appeals to His Majesty and making new regulations, two of which (Nos. 3 and 4) contemplate that the Registrar should exercise control over the documents to be included in a paper-book.

The Secretary of State in a despatch dated 29th January 1920, intimated to the Government of India that most of their proposals would be covered by the Order in Council (a draft of which had previously been sent out) and that he approved of the remainder of the proposals. He trusted that the Government would " be able to have effect given to all at a very early date."

The Government of India's forwarding letter concluded with a request that the Hon'ble the Chief Justice and Judges might be moved to take early steps to introduce certain rules of procedure including:—

> " (ii) that the system of preparation and transmission of the record to England detailed in Part IV of the letter from the Registrar of the Privy Council dated the 27th November 1919, enclosed with the Secretary of State's despatch of the 29th January 1920, should be adopted, the system of retranslating records for the Privy Council being discontinued wherever it exists."

It is unnecessary to emphasize again the importance of the subject-matter of these communications and the extent of the evil for which a remedy was required. It was also, unfortunately, common knowledge that most of the complaints which the Privy Council had made in individual cases related to appeals from the Calcutta High Court, this being the only Court in India where the paper-books were not originally prepared in the Court. The Judges of the Calcutta Court, therefore, felt that a special and imperative duty was imposed on them to put their house in order.

The Judges were confronted not only with the necessity for radical reform but also with the position that in future paper-books in appeals of over Rs. 10,000 in value were to be prepared in Privy Council form in the office of the High Court. The objections to the old system under which the paper-books were prepared by Vakils applied (as the Judges were too well aware) quite as much in the case of appeals under Rs. 10,000 in value as in the case of appeals over that value. Statistics showed that of the Regular Appeals to the High Court filed during 1917, 1918 and 1919, 43 per cent. were valued at Rs. 10,000 and more. Allowing for consolidation of appeals to the Privy Council in cases valued at less than Rs. 10,000, the Court expected that in compliance with the instructions of the Privy Council, they would have to undertake the preparation of about 50 or 55 per cent. of the paper-books in Regular Appeals. It is quite true that the Privy Council did not concern themselves with appeals valued at less than Rs. 10,000, but the line of demarcation is difficult to lay down. In appeals valued under Rs. 10,000 an appeal might lie to the Privy Council if the decree or final order involved, directly or indirectly, some claim or question to or respecting property of the value of Rs. 10,000 or upwards. It was also necessary to bear in mind that, speaking generally, all Regular or First Appeals must at any rate exceed Rs. 5,000 in value inasmuch as suits of which the value is Rs. 5,000 or less only come to the High Court in Second Appeal. Paper-books in Second Appeals have always been prepared in the office of the Court. The conclusion was obvious that there could not be two systems for the preparation of paper-books, one in First Appeals of Rs. 10,000 or more in value and in Second Appeals, and another for First Appeals exceeding Rs. 5,000 but less than Rs. 10,000 in value. Two systems and two sets of rules, when the work is identical, would be an anomaly giving rise to needless complication.

It is of interest, in this connection, to state that according to the statistics of the last three years the average number of First Appeals to the High Court formed only 8·8 per cent. of the total number of appeals. The figures are as follows:—

		First Appeals.	Second Appeals.	Miscellaneous Appeals.
1918	... ...	342	2,836	325
1919	... ...	316	2,810	379
1920	... ...	280	2,941	431
	Total ...	938	8,587	1,135
Average	... ...	313	2,862	378
Percentage	... ...	8·8	80·6	10·6

It should also be mentioned that one of the difficulties of the old system lay in the handling of records and the divided responsibility for the safety of valuable documents, many of them old and easily injured. The ultimate responsibility of the Court for the custody of its records cannot be overlooked.

The cardinal principle was accepted generally, though subject to the preparation of detailed rules by a Committee of the Judges. The Committee, not forgetting the Vakils and their interests, recommended that if the change of system were adopted, "an endeavour should be made, so far as may be practicable, to employ the best of the Vakils now engaged in this work to assist the Court in the translation of documents and the preparation of paper-books." With that rider, they reported to the Full Court by whom the report was duly accepted.

In logical sequence, the existing rules were amended and the Government of India were addressed firstly, in a letter, dated 27th August 1920, for the purpose of obtaining the approval of the Governor-General in Council to such of the new rules as were considered by law to require his approval, and secondly, in a letter, dated the 30th August 1920, for the purpose of obtaining the sanction of the Government of India to the engagement and employment of the necessary additional staff.

In that letter, the Registrar wrote that, in order to deal with the anticipated increase in the volume of work in this section (the paper-book section), it was proposed—

(1) to employ a number of Vakils as temporary Translators who would be paid by piecework from the translation fees deposited by the parties;

(2) to employ a staff of Editors, with special qualifications, who would be permanent assistants of the Court;

(3) to enlarge the staff of proof-readers who would also be permanent assistants of the Court.

Detailed proposals were then made, and it was stated that the Acting Chief Justice (establishments being in the sole charge of the Chief Justice) was "convinced that the adoption of the proposals outlined will result in a considerable improvement in this branch of the work of the Court."

The Government of India replied by telegram on the 11th November 1920, sanctioning the scheme provisionally subject to certain conditions.

The revised rules, therefore, came into force on the re-opening of the Court after the vacation of 1920.

At this point, the Vakils' Association (which it must, in fairness, be stated had had no previous opportunity of stating its views) addressed a letter dated 26th November 1920, to the Registrar taking certain exceptions to the revised rules. Inter alia, exception was taken to Chapter V, Rule 13 "which," it was stated, "deprives Vakils altogether of the right of preparing their clients' paper-books in their offices, which not only provided suitable occupation to a large number of Vakils, but was generally to the advantage of the litigants." "The Association," it was added, "is prepared to concede that there was room for improving the conditions under which paper-books were prepared in Vakils' offices, but to take away the right altogether is quite another matter."

It is said that the Vakils have enjoyed the privilege for 40 years or more. But it seems clear that the system is inherently defective; moreover, it is not in vogue in any other High Court in India. The mere admission by the Vakils that the system was capable of improvement cannot be accepted as an adequate statement of the conditions which existed. The Judges have had experience of paper-books so abounding in misprints and other errors, and so 'chaotically' arranged that there might well be a danger of justice miscarrying.

Moreover, even if the preparation of the paper-books had been left in the hands of the Vakils. it would have been necessary, in order to give effect to the wishes of the Privy Council, to devise some complicated system of supervision by the officers of the Court. It can hardly be doubted that Vakils would have found such supervision extremely irritating.

Sympathy is due to the younger Vakils if, as is stated, the introduction of the new system deprives them of a source of profit. At the same time, this can hardly be regarded as the point of view from which the question should be approached, more specially as the work of preparing and editing paper-books can scarcely be regarded as the final objective of a course of legal training. The paper-books probably suffered in the past from so much of the work being delegated to young and inexperienced men. It is confidently anticipated that in the long run the new system will benefit litigants and generally further the administration of justice. That is a sufficient justification for the change; other considerations are secondary and must give way to the paramount purpose of all rules of this kind. It has also to be borne in mind that a considerable number of Vakils will receive employment in the Court's office in connection with the preparation of paper-books.

Reforms in procedure can seldom be carried out without temporary injury to some of those who are following the practice of the law at the time of their introduction, however beneficial they may be to their successors. No one has a vested interest in procedure and it is common knowledge how strongly excessive delays in litigation were denounced in England and how extensive were the reforms in procedure which were there carried out during the nineteenth century.

In reply to their letter of 26th November, the Vakils were informed that a further representation from the Association would be considered by the Court. They, accordingly, submitted the observations contained in their letter of 27th December last. That letter which is of great length conveyed a number of sound, able and valuable criticisms which deserved and received the most careful attention at the hands of the Judges. The rules were thoroughly overhauled and revised, and changes of great importance were made (see amendments notified on 2nd March 1921). The principal amendments are enumerated in the Registrar's letter to the Vakils' Association, dated the 28th February 1921, a copy of which is appended (Annexure I).

In regard to the criticisms directed against the revised rules on the ground that they increase the costs of litigation in First Appeals, no doubt page for page paper-books under the new system will cost more than paper-books under the old system. But against this must be set the saving which, it may justifiably be assumed, will be secured by the exclusion of useless matter and more generally by the introduction of system and method into the work. Properly prepared paper-books may also be expected to diminish the time occupied in hearing appeals. Any abbreviation of the total period occupied by a suit or appeal, from start to finish, will itself be an economy. The paper-book is seldom, if ever, the main source of expense in a contested case, and as the Privy Council point out, in the long run delay presses more hardly on the poor suitor than on the rich suitor.

In regard to the inclusion of unnecessary matter in paper-books, reference may be made to a recent letter received from the Registrar of the Privy Council a copy of which is appended (Annexure II).

It being at least conceded that the old system was capable of improvement, it must be evident that no improvement could have been effected in that system itself without some increase of expenditure. Better printing and better proof-reading mean greater cost. It is notorious that the price of paper and the wages of the compositors, etc., have risen everywhere by leaps and bounds. Even before any change of system had been mooted, a representation had been received signed by sixty-six Vakils, asking for an increase of the printing costs allowed by the Court.

It is understood that as regards First Appeals to the Court, objection is taken (1) to the increase in the cost of printing and (2) to the increase in the cost of editing; and that as regards Second Appeals, the rules have been criticised, inasmuch as it is alleged that, although the paper-books are not now printed but typed, nevertheless, on the basis of estimates already received, there has been a substantial increase in the cost of the preparation of the paper-books. It is understood that as regards the increase in the charges for translation, no objection is raised by the Vakils.

The question of expense is, of course, one on which the Court will keep a close watch and the steps which the Court have taken and propose to take in this matter are indicated briefly in the following paragraphs.

As regards the cost of printing, in order, if possible, to introduce a lower scale of charges, the Court on the 31st January, 1921, invited eight of the leading private Presses in Calcutta to submit tenders for printing paper-books. The rates quoted by three of these firms were considerably in excess of those quoted by the Government of India Press; while the remaining firms which were addressed refused to undertake the work at all. The Court have since been in communication with some of the smaller private printing firms in Calcutta and have received quotations which are approximately 33⅓ per cent. lower than the rates quoted by the Government Press. By way of experiment, the Court have arranged to entrust the printing of a limited number of paper-books to some of these Presses. When these paper-books have been printed, the Court will be in a position to judge whether any further work might, without objection, be entrusted to these Presses in preference to the Government of India Press. If it is found that a group of these smaller private printing firms can do the work expeditiously and satisfactorily as regards cost and production—a matter with regard to which further experience is necessary—it is believed that the objections with regard to the cost of printing can be met.

As regards the cost of editing, it must be remembered that more competent editing of the paper-books may secure that, in spite of the additional cost of paper and printing, the total cost of the preparation of paper-books will on the average be reduced. The editing charge now leviable under the Appellate Side Rules amounts to Re. 1 a page in the case of printed paper-books and annas 8 a page in the case of typed paper-books. From the editing charges must be met the salaries of the staff, other than the Translators and the Copyists, directly concerned with the preparation of paper-books. These charges should also be sufficient to cover the cost of the stationery used in the Paper-book Department. The Judges will endeavour to reduce the cost of working this Department to the minimum consistent with the maintenance of efficiency, and they anticipate that they will shortly be in a position, on the basis of the work actually passing through the Department, to form a fairly accurate estimate of the permanent recurring expenditure necessary for its maintenance. Should it appear that the total estimated receipts on account of editing charges are likely to be in excess of the recurring expenditure on account of the Paper-book Department, the Court will reduce their scale of charges accordingly.

With regard to Second Appeals, a good deal of misapprehension has arisen owing to the fact that since the beginning of August last, full charges have been levied from the appellants on account of the preparation of paper-books in cases of Second Appeal, including the cost of printing or typing the the judgments and the memoranda of appeal.

It is difficult to trace the origin of the practice in accordance with which a considerable share of the expenditure involved in preparing paper-books in Second Appeals was met from public funds, the fact being that copies of the judgments, remand orders and grounds of appeal were printed by the Government Press at public expense The practice has obtained for more than forty years : its existence had been lost sight of until the revision of the rules was undertaken and, on investigation, the Court could not find any direct authority for the charge of this sum to Government. The Judges, therefore, felt themselves bound to report to the Government of India accordingly, but the modification of the former practice in this respect is in no way consequential on the recent revision of the Appellate Side Rules. Three tabular statements (Annexure III) are attached showing the costs under the old rules and the revised rules respectively of the preparation of paper-books relating to three typical Second Appeals with regard to which the allegation has been made that in spite of paper-books now being typed, there has nevertheless been a substantial increase in the cost of the preparation of the paper-books. Inasmuch as there was no authority under the old rules for excluding from the total cost of the paper-book the costs of printing the judgments and the memoranda of appeal, the correct basis of comparison is between the 5th and the 7th columns. If these two columns be compared, it will be seen that with reference to all these appeals, there has been a very considerable decrease in expenditure on account of the preparation of the paper-books. Even if the charges in columns 1 and 3 be compared, it will be seen that the increase of cost in two of the cases is inconsiderable and in one of the cases, viz., No. 1122 of 1920, there has actually been a decrease of cost. In order to decrease the expenditure involved in the preparation of paper-books in Second Appeals, the Judges, in February last, decided to accept typed paper-books in Second Appeals. It is, of course, very desirable that the cost of litigation should be reduced to a minimum, more especially in the case of Second Appeals in which the poorer litigants are largely concerned. But the question whether aid can be given from the public revenues can only be decided by those who are responsible for the expenditure of those revenues.

ANNEXURE I

No. G.-972, dated the 28th February 1921.

From—N. G. A. EDGLEY, ESQ., Registrar, Appellate Side, High Court, Calcutta,

To—The Honorary Secretary, Vakils' Association, High Court, Calcutta.

I am directed to refer to the Court's letter No. 9870-G., dated the 14th December 1920, and to say that your Association's representation, dated the 26th November 1920, and the 27th December 1920, on the subject of the revised Appellate Side Rules, have been carefully considered by the Hon'ble the Chief Justice and the Judges. In this connection, I am to enclose for the information of your Association a list of amendments to the rules published in the Calcutta Gazette of the 15th September 1920. These amendments have been finally approved by the Hon'ble the Chief Justice and the Judges and they will come into operation immediately. Special attention is invited to the terms of the notification (copy enclosed) under which the amendments will appear in the Calcutta Gazette of the 2nd March 1921.

2. It will be seen from the list of amendments that the Hon'ble the Chief Justice and the Judges, while maintaining the principle that all paper-books in Civil Appeals should be prepared in the office of the Court, have in many matters made certain important modifications of the rules for the benefit of parties to appeals to this Court. The amendments are numerous, but I am to refer in particular to the following points in which the revised rules have been amended :—

(1) In Chapter V, Rule 12, it has been provided that the time taken by the Stamp Reporter in preparing his report may be excluded from the prescribed period of limitation; and further, in the case of a memorandum of appeal or application which is in order in all respects, that the date of delivery to the Stamp Reporter shall be deemed to be the date of presentation to the Deputy Registrar.

(2) The period within which the initial deposit should be paid as required by Rule 28, Chapter V, has been extended.

(3) The time Table prescribed in Chapter V, Rule 41, has been revised.

(4) With reference to Rule 57 of Chapter V, it has been provided that notices should be issued to the Vakils concerned as soon as decrees or orders are ready for perusal.

(5) The period allowed under Chapter VI, Rule 20, has been extended.

(6) It has been provided that marginal notes need only be printed in paper-books in the event of an appeal to the Privy Council.

(7) Typed paper-books will be prepared in First Appeals below Rs. 5,000 in value in which it appears that, if Parts I and III of the paper-book were printed the total number of pages contained in the paper-book would be 20 or less.

(8) A considerable reduction has been made in the cost of printing paper-books in Appeals, other than Second Appeals, but the printing rates quoted have been sanctioned for a period of six months only and are liable to revision if the cost of printing in the Government of India Press increases during that period.

(9) Provision has been made for the preparation of typed paper-books in all cases of Second Appeals, other than those which are now pending with the Press.

(10) Further facilities have been allowed for depositing the costs for the preparation of printed paper-books.

(11) The hours have been extended during which applications for copies, information and inspection may be made.

(12) The rules regarding Vakils' Clerks have been modified in certain respects, e.g., it has been provided that a Vakil may, in certain circumstances, authorise the recognised clerk of another Vakil to transact business on his behalf.

(13) The prohibition against taking pen or ink into the Inspection Room has been withdrawn.

3. I am to add that the orders contained in paragraph 2 of the Court's letter No. 9870-G., dated the 14th December 1920, are withdrawn and that cases will now be put on the list as usual for final disposal in case of default in compliance with the provisions of the Appellate Side Rules as now modified.

4. The new Rules amended up to date, will be available in book form shortly.

5. In conclusion, I am to say that all the points raised in the representations submitted by your Association have received the most careful consideration of the Hon'ble the Chief Justice and the Judges, and the amendments have been framed with a view to the removal of all inconveniences to the Vakils and the parties. If, however, the working of the rules as now modified, discloses the necessity of any further amendments, the Hon'ble the Chief Justice and the Judges will be willing to receive a further representation on the subject after the expiry of six months.

ANNEXURE II.

Extract from letter, dated 16th February 1921, from the Registrar, Privy Council.

* * * * * * * *

"During the hearing of two consolidated Indian Appeals from your Court a few days ago (Bengal Appeals Nos. 34 and 37 of 1919), the Board drew attention to the amount of unnecessary matter that had been included in the record, and they suggested that I should communicate with you upon the subject. The pages to which their Lordships took exception were 379-510, 547-588 and 838-888.

"I think you will agree that the inclusion of 40 pages of what are apparently workmen's paysheets cannot be justified on any ground, and you will probably agree that as regards the chalans and dakhilas (pages 379-510) it would have been sufficient if one or two specimens had been printed, and if necessary the others might have been sent over in manuscript. If the cases had been old ones in which the record had been printed before the recent correspondence between this Department, the Indian Government and yourself respecting records generally, I should not perhaps have thought it worth while troubling you, but the order admitting these appeals was only made on the 25th August 1919, and the records were received here on the 8th April 1920, so I think the attention of the responsible official in your Department might be drawn to the fact that there is still too much license allowed to practitioners in expanding the records to unnecessary length.

"Referring to my letter of the 25th February 1920, enclosing a memorandum prepared in this Department for guidance in arranging records perhaps at your convenience you will let me know your views as to the scheme suggested, specially with regard to arranging exhibits. Up to the present it is noticed that Calcutta records are not arranged on the lines suggested, but it may be that sufficient time has not yet elapsed for any records printed since the date of my letter to reach us."

* As regards Second Appeals, the old printing rate was always the actual cost of printing, which varied from time to time (see page 162 of the Appellate Side Rules, 1920). Since last August, this rate has been about Re. 1-12-0 a page, whereas before August estimates were prepared on a Re. 1-6-0 basis.

† In this case, after the completion of the Paper-book, it was found that an additional sum of Rs. 3-6-4 in addition to the estimated cost was due from the appellant.

NOTIFICATION.

PUBLIC.

Simla, the 8th June 1921.

No. 1552.—In consequence of the passing of the Government of India Act His Majesty has been pleased to cause a Revised Instrument of Instructions to the Governor-General of India to be issued under the Royal Sign Manual and in compliance with the instructions contained in paragraph X thereof the Revised Instructions are hereby published for general information :—

GEORGE, R. I.—

Revised Instrument of Instructions to the Governor-General of India.

Instructions to Our Governor-General of India given at Our Court at Buckingham Palace this 15th day of March 1921.

WHEREAS by the Government of India Act it is enacted that the Governor-General of India is appointed by Warrant under Our Royal Sign Manual, and We have by Warrant constituted and appointed a Governor-General to exercise the said office subject to such instructions and directions as he, or Our Governor-General for the time being, shall from time to time receive or have received under Our Royal Sign Manual or under the hand of one of Our Principal Secretaries of State ;

AND WHEREAS certain instructions were issued under Our Royal Sign Manual to Our said Governor-General bearing date the nineteenth day of November 1918 ;

AND WHEREAS by the coming into operation of the Government of India Act, 1919, it has become necessary to revoke the said Instructions and to make further and other provisions in their stead ;

NOW, THEREFORE, We do by these Our instructions under Our Royal Sign Manual hereby revoke the aforesaid instructions and declare Our pleasure to be as follows :—

I. Our Governor-General for the time being (hereinafter called Our said Governor-General) shall with all due solemnity cause our Warrant under Our Royal Sign Manual appointing him to be read and published in the presence of the Chief Justice for the time being or, in his absence, of the Senior Judge of one of the High Courts established in British India, and of so many of the Members of the Executive Council of Our said Governor-General as may conveniently be assembled.

Our said Governor-General shall take the Oath of Allegiance and the Oath for the due execution of the Office of Our Governor-General of India, and for the due and impartial administration of Justice in the forms hereto appended · which Oaths the said Chief Justice for the time being or. in his absence, the Senior Judge of one of Our said High Courts shall, and he is hereby required to, tender and administer unto him.

II. And We do authorise and require Our said Governor-General from time to time by himself or by any other person to be authorised by him in that behalf, to administer to every person who shall be appointed by Us by Warrant under Our Royal Sign Manual to be a Governor of one of Our presidencies, or provinces in India, and to every person who shall be appointed to be a Lieutenant-Governor or a Chief Commissioner, the Oaths of Allegiance and of Office in the said forms.

III. And We do authorise and require Our said Governor-General from time to time, by himself or by any other person to be authorised by him in that behalf, to administer to every person who shall be appointed by Us by Warrant under Our Royal Sign Manual or by the Secretary of State in Council of India to be a Member of the Governor-General's Executive Council or a Member of a Governor's Executive Council, and to every person who shall be appointed to be a Member of a Lieutenant-Governor's Executive Council, and to every person whom any of Our said Governors shall appoint to be a Minister, the Oaths of Allegiance and of Office in the said forms together with the Oaths of Secrecy hereto appended.

IV. And We do further direct that every person who under these instructions shall be required to take an Oath, may make an affirmation in place of an Oath if he has any objection to making an Oath.

V. And We do hereby authorise and empower Our said Governor-General in Our name and on Our behalf to grant to any offender convicted in the exercise of its criminal jurisdiction by any Court of Justice within Our said Territories a pardon either free or subject to such lawful conditions as to him may seem fit.

VI. And inasmuch as the policy of Our Parliament is set forth in the Preamble to the said Government of India Act, 1919, We do hereby require Our said Governor-General to be vigilant that this policy is constantly furthered alike by his Government and by the local Governments of all Our presidencies and provinces.

VII. In particular it is Our will and pleasure that the powers of superintendence, direction and control over the said local Governments vested in Our said Governor-General and in Our Governor-General in Council shall, unless grave reason to the contrary appears, be exercised with a view to furthering the policy of the local Governments of all Our Governors provinces, when such policy finds favour with a majority of the Members of the Legislative Council of the province.

VIII. Similarly, it is Our will and pleasure that Our said Governor-General shall use all endeavour consistent with the fulfilment of his responsibilities to Us and to Our Parliament for the welfare of Our Indian subjects, that the administration of the matters committed to the direct charge of Our Governor-General in Council may be conducted in harmony with the wishes of Our said subjects as expressed by their representatives in the Indian Legislature, so far as the same shall appear to him to be just and reasonable.

IX. For above all things it is Our will and pleasure that the plans laid by Our Parliament for the progressive realisation of responsible Government in British India as an integral part of Our Empire may come to fruition, to the end that British India may attain its due place among Our Dominions. Therefore We do charge Our said Governor-General by the means aforesaid and by all other means which may to him seem fit to guide the course of Our subjects in India whose governance We have committed to his charge so that, subject on the one hand always to the determination of Our Parliament, and, on the other hand, to the co-operation of those on whom new opportunities of service have been conferred, progress toward, such realisation may ever advance to the benefit of all Our subjects in India.

X. And We do hereby charge Our said Governor-General to communicate these Our Instructions to the Members of his Executive Council, and to publish the same in such manner as he may think fit.

APPENDIX.

FORM OF OATH OF ALLEGIANCE.

I, , do swear that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to His Majesty, King George the Fifth, Emperor of India, His Heirs and Successors, according to Law.

So help me God.

FORM OF OATH OF OFFICE.

I, , do swear that I will well and truly serve our Sovereign, King George the Fifth, Emperor of India, in the Office of , and that I will do right to all manner of people after the Laws and usages of India, without fear or favour, affection or ill-will.

So help me God.

FORM OF OATH OF SECRECY FOR MEMBERS OF EXECUTIVE COUNCILS AND MINISTERS.

I, , do swear that I will not directly or indirectly communicate or reveal to any person or persons any matter which shall be brought under my consideration, or shall become known to me as a Member of the Executive Council / Minister in , except as may be required for the due discharge of my duties as such Member, Minister, or as may be specially permitted by the Governor General / Governor / Lieutenant-Governor.

So help me God.

NOTIFICATION.

Minister in charge: The Hon'ble Sir S. N. Banarji, Kt.

No. 1716Medl.—The 30th June 1921.—It is hereby notified for general information that the Government of Bengal (Ministry of Local Self-Government) are pleased to issue the following revised rules for the management, admission and training of students in the Government Medical Schools in Bengal, in supersession of the rules published under notification No. 47T.-Medl., dated the 6th May 1920 :—

Rules for the management of the Government Medical Schools in Bengal.

Section I.—General.

1. Control.—The control and management of the Government Medical Schools in Bengal are vested in the Superintendents of schools under the general supervision of the Surgeon-General with the Government of Bengal.

2. Names of Government Medical Schools.—There are at present three Government Medical Schools in the Presidency, viz. :—

(1) The Campbell Medical School at Calcutta.
(2) The Dacca Medical School at Dacca.
(3) The Ronaldshay Medical School at Burdwan.

3. Both men and women are trained in the Campbell and Dacca Medical schools for the "Licentiate Examinations" of the State Medical Faculty, Bengal. In the Ronaldshay Medical School, only men are so trained. Students passing the final examination of the Faculty receive the diploma of "Licenciate of the State Medical Faculty, Bengal."

4. Length of Course.—The Course of study for the Licence of the State Medical Faculty in the Schools extends over four years.

5. Sessions.—The summer session shall commence on the 1st July and the winter session on the 1st November. Students shall join by the opening day of the summer session. As a special case a student may be permitted to join within a week of the commencement of this session, provided that (1) he is able to satisfy the Superintendent that the delay was unavoidable, and (2) that he pays a late fee of Re. 1.

6. Number of Students.—The number of students in each school shall ordinarily be as follows :—

Campbell Medical School	500
Dacca Medical School	400
Ronaldshay Medical School	200

To guard against excessive depletion from casualties of all kinds, 5 per cent. over the numbers above specified may be taken on the rolls at the beginning of the summer session.

Section II.—Admission.

7 Certificates.—Male candidates for admission to the schools shall produce the following certificates :—

(1) Certificate of having passed the Matriculation Examination or any higher examination in Arts or Science of a recognized University—The School Final Examination for Indian Schools and the High School or Scholarship Examination for European Schools or any examination which is accepted by the Local Government as equivalent thereto will be accepted as equal to the Matriculation Examination.

(2) Certificate of character—From a Deputy Magistrate or a gentleman of equal position, or from the Principal or Head Master of the college or school in which the candidate last studied.

(3) Certificate of age—Candidates shall be over 16 years of age before commencing their studies.

8. Women candidates for admission shall produce the following certificates :—

(1) Certificate of general education : either—

(a) Certificate of having passed the Middle English Scholarship Examination ; or

(b) Certificate of satisfactory completion of the full course in a Middle English School ; or

(c) Certificate of having passed the primary examination held at the end of standard VI under the vernacular scheme of education and of being qualified in English up to that stage ; or

(d) Certificate from an Inspector of Schools of having passed the annual class examination held at the end of standard VI in a recognized High School or Middle English School in all the subjects of the prescribed curriculum including English.

(2) Certificate of character and residence—From a Deputy Magistrate or a gentleman of equal position, or from the Principal or Head Master of the school in which the candidate last studied, or from some other authority satisfactory to the Superintendent.

(3) Certificate of age—Candidates shall be over 17 years before commencing their studies.

N.B.—Women students are not admitted in the Ronaldshay Medical School at Burdwan.

9. If there are more candidates than vacancies, preference shall ordinarily be given (1) to those who are natives of the Presidency, and (2) to those who possess better educational qualifications.

10. Application for admission.—An application for admission into the Medical School shall be submitted in Form A appended to these rules, together with the certificates laid down in rule 7 or 8; and shall reach the Superintendent's office at the Campbell Medical School on or before the 10th June in each year, at the Dacca Medical School and the Ronaldshay Medical School (Burdwan) on or before the 25th June or within ten days of the publication of the results of the Matriculation Examination.

11. All candidates shall appear before the Superintendent, on the date notified, for examination as to their mental and physical fitness for the study of medicine ; this shall ordinarily be during the third week of June at the Campbell Medical School and the 30th June at the Dacca and Ronaldshay Medical Schools.

12. All women students of the Campbell Medical School shall reside in the Lady Elliot Hostel ; only under very exceptional circumstances shall permission be given for residence elsewhere. Any woman student who is requested by the Superintendent of the Medical School to leave the hostel shall automatically cease to be a student of the Campbell Medical School.

13. Women students of the Dacca Medical School are required to reside in the Government boarding house attached to the school : they shall be permitted to reside elsewhere under exceptional circumstances only.

Section III.—Transfer of students to other Medical Schools.

14. Transfers.—Transfers are allowed only at the beginning of the session, and then only under very special and exceptional circumstances. A student applying for transfer shall submit his application to the Superintendent of the school to which he is attached, stating the reasons in full, by the 1st June.

15. The Superintendent, after first satisfying himself (1) that the applicant's conduct in the school has been good, and (2) that he has sucessfully passed the school test examination in the previous session, shall forward the application to the Superintendent of the school which the student is desirous of joining, with his recommendation. On receipt of sanction from the latter, he shall grant the certificate of transfer to the applicant, directing him to join not later than the 1st July.

Section IV.—Fees.

16. Admission.—Every male student before admission shall pay an entrance fee of Rs. 6 and the first quarterly instalment Rs. 18-12 of tuition fee. He shall also pay the annual sports and athletic club-fee of Rs. 2. In the Ronaldshay Medical school, the sports and athletic club-fee will not be charged till the hostel is built.

17. Muhammadan students are required to pay full fees, but a certain number of Muhammadans will obtain on application certain scholarships from the Mohsin Fund, the value and number of which will depend on the amount of the grant available from that fund.

18. Tuition Fee.—The tuition fee of Rs. 75 a year shall be paid in quarterly instalments of Rs. 18-12 in advance on or before the 15th of the first month of the quarter for which it is due. Should the 15th fall on a Sunday or school holiday, the fee shall be payable on the re-opening day. In the case of Durga Puja and Summer vacations the fees shall be paid in full before departure. Otherwise a late fee of Re. 1 shall be paid in the case of payments not made up to the 20th, and a late fee of Rs. 2 in the case of payments not made up to the end of the month. Failure to pay all fees due in full by the last day of the month shall automatically entail removal of the student's name from the rolls until the commencement of the next summer session.

N.B.—Students admitted before July 1919 will continue to pay their tuition fee at the old rate of Rs. 4 a month subject to the conditions set forth in this rule.

19. Exemption.—Students holding scholarships awarded under these rules by the Government of Bengal and free students shall be exempted from the payment of the tuition fee, but shall pay the entrance fee and the sports and athletic club fee.

20. Readmission.—A fee of Rs. 6 shall be payable on readmission by a student (1) who has been rusticated; (2) who has left the school without the permission of the Superintendent; or (3) whose name has been removed for non-payment of fees; provided that in the two latter cases his conduct and attendance while in the school have been good. In no case shall such a student be eligible for a scholarship or free-studentship after readmission until he has passed the next school test examination.

21. No readmission fee shall be payable on readmission by a student who left the school with the permission of the Superintendent.

22. A readmission fee of Rs. 6 shall be payable on each occasion by a first-year student who has failed in the March or subsequent school test examination and whose name has been automatically removed from the rolls—vide rule 69—and subsequently obtains permission to have his name retained. He shall not be eligible for a scholarship, free-studentship, or prize until he has passed the school test examination.

23. Refund.—No fees paid and credited in the school books shall be refunded under any circumstances, except in the case of a student who has been awarded a scholarship or free-studentship, with retrospective effect.

Section V.—Scholarships and Free-Studentships.

24. Men Students.—The following scholarships and free-studentships are open to male students at the schools, provided that they are natives of the Presidency :—

Name of School.		First-year class	Second-year class	Third-year class.	Fourth-year class
		Rs.	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.
Campbell Medical School	Scholarships—9 of ...	8 each	8 each	8 each	8 each
	Free-studentship—	9	9	9	9
Dacca Medical School.	Scholarships—6 of ...	8 each	8 each	8 each	8 each
	Free-studentship—	6	6	6	6
Ronaldshay Medical School (Burdwan).	Scholarships—4 of ...	8 each	8 each	8 each	8 each
	Free-studentship—	4	4	4	4

25. Method of Award.—Scholarships shall be awarded to first-year students on admission in order of merit on the basis of the certificates of general education as laid down for admission (rule 7). Scholarships shall be awarded thereafter to first, second, third, and fourth-year students, respectively, in order of merit, on the results of the half-yearly school test examinations at each school.

26. One special scholarship of Rs. 15 shall be awarded each year to a poor student of the first-year class by the Surgeon-General with the Government of Bengal. Preference shall be given to a member of a depressed class. Subject to the scholarship-holder's good conduct, satisfactory progress and poverty, the scholarship is tenable for four years.

27. Free-studentships shall be awarded at the discretion of the Superintendent to deserving students requiring financial assistance. Any balance shall be awarded in the order of merit on the results of the half-yearly school test examinations.

28. Free-studentships are tenable in the first-year class from July to April following and in other classes from May to April. Failure in any school test examination shall involve forfeiture of the free-studentship during the subsequent session.

29. A student who has been awarded a scholarship on the results of the school test examinations shall forfeit his scholarship if he fails on two successive occasions at the respective examinations of the State Medical Faculty.

30. Women Students.—Twenty Government scholarships of the value of Rs. 20 each per month are available for women students at the Campbell Medical School, and thirteen of Rs. 20 each per month at the Dacca Medical School. A student who is granted a Government scholarship shall give a written undertaking, signed by her father or guardian, that on receiving a diploma she will serve Government or a local authority for a period not exceeding four years, if required to do so by the Surgeon-General with the Government of Bengal.

31. Scholarships are also given by district boards, municipalities, Countess of Dufferin Fund, and other approved associations or individuals—vide Appendix B.

32. Holders of scholarships awarded by other local Governments or local bodies or the Dufferin Fund shall not be eligible for scholarships awarded by the Government of Bengal, nor shall they be allowed free tuition. [This rule does not prevent the holders of the Muir, P. K. Mullick, Sarala and Walter Thompson scholarships (vide Appendix B) from obtaining Bengal Government scholarships and free-studentships, provided they are inhabitants of Bengal.]

33. Medals and Prizes.—A list of the prizes and medals available at the Campbell, Dacca and Ronaldshay Medical Schools and the conditions on which they are awarded are given in Appendix C.

Section VI.—Discipline and punishments.

34. Discipline.—For the maintenance of discipline the punishments set forth in the rules immediately below shall be enforced at the discretion of the Superintendent of the school, according to the nature of the offence.

35. Punishments.—The punishments shall be verbal reprimand, written reprimand in the order-book, extra duty, fine, stoppage of leave, deprivation of scholarship or free-studentship, rustication for the remainder of the school year, dismissal and expulsion from the school.

36. Expulsion from the school shall be enforced for offences of a serious nature, such as (1) disgraceful or dishonourable conduct, (2) persistent or wilful infringement of the school rules, and (3) gross insubordination or disrespect to the constituted authorities of the school.

37. When a student is expelled, a full report of the case, with as much information as may be available for identification, shall be submitted to the Surgeon-General with the Government of Bengal, who shall take measures to prevent the student's admission into any other Medical School.

38. The Superintendent can refuse readmission to or dismiss any student on account of incompetence or misconduct (vide rule 20).

39. Students rusticated may be readmitted after their period of punishment is over, on payment of a readmission fee of Rs. 6 (vide rule 20).

40. Scholarships and free-studentships shall be liable to forfeiture at the discretion of the Superintendent for misconduct, want of progress, or irregular attendance.

41. Fines shall be paid by the 15th of the month following that in which they are incurred. The penalty for late payment shall be the same as for late payment fees (vide rule 18).

Section VII.—Leave of absence.

42. Definition.—The leave admissible to students shall include the regular vacations and casual leave; all leave other than vacation leave shall be shown as casual leave, whether granted on medical certificate or for other reasons.

43. Vacations.—The regular vacations shall be notified in school orders and are as follows:—

	Days.
(a) The Summer vacation	60
(b) The Puja vacation	22
(c) The X'mas vacation	12

44. Students employed in the wards shall be divided into two batches for vacation leave. One batch shall proceed on leave first, and on its return the other batch shall proceed on leave.

45. A student who either absents himself immediately before the commencement of, or overstays, the authorised vacation leave, without a medical certificate or permission of the Superintendent of the school, shall thereby incur a fine of eight annas for each day of absence and shall forfeit any scholarship or free-studentship (if he is a holder thereof) for the remainder of the session.

46. Casual Leave.—Casual leave may be granted to a student by a teacher under whom he works up to a maximum of seven days at a time, or by the Superintendent of not more than 30 days at a time. Not more than 30 days' continuous casual leave is admissible, except on medical certificate.

47. Application.—Application to the Superintendent for casual leave or extension of leave shall be submitted in writing through the teacher under whom the student works. Such application shall ordinarily be submitted not later than the day previous to that on which leave is desired.

48. Leave Register.—No student shall depart on sanctioned leave without signing his name in the casual leave register with the date of departure. On return he shall enter the date also with his signature. Failure to comply with this rule shall entail the absence being treated as absence without leave (vide rule 49).

49. Absence without leave.—No student shall absent himself from School or Hospital attendance without leave, except in case of sudden indisposition. Any student who disobeys this rule will thereby incur a fine of 2 annas per diem for every day's absence unless he can furnish a medical certificate as provided in Rule 53.

50. Absence without leave for more than 30 days shall automatically entail removal of the student's name from the school rolls.

51. Any students who in the opinion of the Superintendent have combined to absent themselves without leave with the intention of defying or defeating discipline shall be liable so expulsion under rule 36

52. Inadmissibility.—No leave except on medical certificate shall be granted to a student—

(1) when he is on special duty in the ward;
(2) when there is any matter pending in connection with which he has been directed to appear before the teacher or the Superintendent;
(3) when he is under stoppage of leave;
(4) when he is on duty during the regular vacation; or
(5) immediately before the commencement of or in extension of vacation leave.

53. Medical certificate.—A medical certificate in support of an application for leave or for an extension of leave shall be obtained from a member of the Hospital staff, from a Government Medical Officer, or from a Registered Medical Practitioner; when its receipt in the school office is delayed beyond one week from the first day of absence the absentee shall be considered as absent without leave and shall automatically incur the penalties provided in Rule 49.

Section VIII.—Course of Study and attendance.

54. The curriculum is arranged to meet the requirements of the schedule attached to the statutes of the State Medical Faculty of Bengal for the examination for licence as follows:—

First year.	Second year.	Third year.	Fourth year.

4. A bronze medal, named the "Rivers Thompson Medal," shall be awarded annually to the first-year student who obtains highest aggregate marks at the March school text examination in Anatomy, Materia Medica, Physiology, Chemistry and Physics, provided that his conduct has been uniformly good.

5. Six silver medals of the value of Rs. 13-4 each shall be annually awarded to the fourth-year students who obtain the highest marks in each of the subjects, Surgery, Medicine, Midwifery, Medical Jurisprudence, Pathology and Hygiene at the March school test examination.

6. Three silver medals of the value of Rs. 13-4 each shall be annually awarded to the second year students who obtain the highest marks in each of the subjects, Anatomy, Physiology and Materia Medica at the school test examination in March.

7. One silver medal of the value of Rs. 13-4 shall be annually awarded to the first-year student who obtains the highest marks in Chemistry and Physics at the school test examination in March.

8. The Maharajah Scindia of Gwalior Prize of Rs. 6 shall be awarded annually for general proficiency to the fourth-year student who obtains the highest aggregate marks at the school test examination in March.

9. One silver medal—"The Tarak Nath Ganguly Prize"—value of Rs. 13-4, shall be awarded annually to a third-year student who obtains the highest number of marks in Medical Jurisprudence in the March test examination.

10. The Countess of Ronaldshay Gold Medal of the value of Rs. 25 shall be awarded annually by Srimati Sushila Sundari Dasi to a fourth-year student for proficiency in Clinical Surgery and ward work.

11. Two pocket instrument cases of the value of Rs. 20 each shall be annually awarded to the second-year students who have acted as prosectors during the year.

12. Two copies of the late Dr. Zahir-ud-din's book on "Surgery" in Bengali are presented annually in memory of the author by his son to the two second-year students (one man and one woman) who obtain the highest marks in Anatomy at the school test examination in March.

13. Two certificates of honour shall be annually awarded in each subject of examination to the next two most meritorious students of the first, second, and fourth-year classes, respectively, after the students who secure medals under paragraphs 5, 6 and 7 above.

MEDALS AND PRIZES OPEN TO WOMEN STUDENTS OF THE CAMPBELL MEDICAL SCHOOL.

14. The Viceroy's Prize Medal (silver) shall be annually awarded to the woman student who obtains the highest marks in the following subjects at the school test examination in March and passes the Final Examination for the licence of the State Medical Faculty of Bengal:—

(1) Surgery (including Operative Surgery);
(2) Midwifery;
(3) Medicine;
(4) Medical Jurisprudence:

Provided that to render a candidate eligible she must have obtained—

(1) a minimum of 60 per cent. marks in each of the above subjects in which she was examined; and

(2) a minimum average of all subjects combined of 70 per cent. of the total number of marks obtainable.

15. The Kadambini Prize Medal (silver) of the value of Rs. 17-8 shall be awarded annually to the fourth-year woman student who passes the Final Examination for the licence of the State Medical Faculty from the Campbell Medical School and secures the highest aggregate marks among the women candidates at the March school test examination, without any distinction of caste or religion, provided she is a native of India. No one with any trace of foreign or mixed descent (whether European, Eurasian, African, American, or other Asiatic than Indian) will be eligible for it.

NOTE.—Medals, prizes and certificates of honour will only be awarded to students who pass in all the subjects of the examination at the same time, and students failing at a school test or promotion examination of any class will not be eligible to compete for any of the above awards from that class. They will however, be eligible for the same in the higher classes

DACCA MEDICAL SCHOOL.

Medals.

1. A gold medal of the value of Rs. 35 shall be annually awarded for general proficiency to a fourth-year student of the Dacca Medical School who obtains the highest aggregate marks in all the subjects at the school test examination in March, provided that his conduct has been uniformly good.

2. A silver medal of the value of Rs 13 shall be awarded annually to the third-year student who obtains the highest aggregate marks in all the subjects at the school test examination in March, provided that his conduct has been uniformly good.

3. A silver medal of the value of Rs. 13 shall be annually awarded to the second-year student who obtains the highest aggregate marks at the school test examination in March, provided that his conduct has been uniformly good.

4. A silver medal of the value of Rs. 13 shall be annually awarded to the first-year student who obtains the highest aggregate marks in all subjects at the school test examination in March, provided that his conduct has been uniformly good.

5. Six silver medals of the value of Rs. 13 each shall be annually awarded to the fourth-year students who obtain the highest marks in each of the following subjects: viz., (1) Surgery, (2) Medicine, (3) Midwifery, (4) Medical Jurisprudence, (5) Pathology, (6) Hygiene at the school test examination in March.

6. Three silver medals of the value of Rs. 13 each shall be annually awarded to the second-year students who obtain the highest marks in each of the following subjects: viz., (1) Anatomy, (2) Physiology, (3) Materia Medica at the school test examination in March.

7. One silver medal of the value of Rs. 13 shall be annually awarded to the first-year student who obtains the highest aggregate marks in Chemistry and Physics at the school test examination in March, provided that his conduct has been uniformly good.

8. A silver medal is presented annually by Rai Sahib Guru Nath Sen to the fourth-year student who has obtained the highest aggregate marks in the school test examinations during the fourth-year course.

8(a). The Ronaldshay Gold Medal of the value of Rs. 35 shall be presented annually by Babu Gournetai Shaha Sankhanidhi to the fourth-year student who obtains the highest aggregate marks in the Final Licentiate Examination of the State Medical Faculty, Bengal, held in May every year.

Prizes.

9. Two pocket instrument cases of the value of Rs. 20 each shall be annually awarded to the second-year students who have acted as prosectors during the year.

10. Two certificates of honour may be annually awarded in each subject of examination to the next two most meritorious students of the first, second and fourth-year classes respectively after the students who secure medals under paragraphs 5, 6 and 7.

MEDALS AND PRIZES OPEN TO WOMEN STUDENTS OF THE DACCA MEDICAL SCHOOL.

Medals.

1. One sliver medal of the value of Rs. 13 shall be annually awarded to a first-year woman student who obtains the highest aggregate marks in the school test examination of the first-year class in March among the women students, provided she obtains not less than 66 per cent. aggregate marks.

2. One silver medal of the value of Rs. 13 shall be awarded to the second-year woman student who obtains the highest aggregate marks in the school test examination of the second-year class in March among the women students, provided she obtains not less than 66 per cent. aggregate marks.

3. One silver medal shall be annually awarded to the third-year woman student who obtains the highest aggregate marks in the school test examination in March among the women students, provided she obtains 66 per cent aggregate marks

4. One silver medal shall be annually awarded to the fourth-year woman student who obtains the highest aggregate marks in the school test examination in March among the women students, provided she obtains 66 per cent. aggregate marks.

5. One silver medal of the value of Rs. 13 shall be awarded to a fourth-year woman student who obtains the highest aggregate marks in the school test examination in March in Midwifery and Gynæcology among the women students, provided she obtains not less than 75 per cent aggregate marks.

Prizes.

Two special prizes of Rs. 10 each shall be awarded annually to women students for good conduct, progress and regularity of attendance in class. Preference will be given to students living in the Government boarding house for women students attached to the Dacca Medical School.

MEDALS AND PRIZES OPEN TO STUDENTS OF RONALDSHAY MEDICAL SCHOOL (BURDWAN).

Medals.

1. Six silver medals of the value of Rs. 13 each shall be annually awarded to the fourth-year student who obtains the highest marks in each of the following subjects, viz., (1) Surgery, (2) Medicine, (3) Midwifery, (4) Medical Jurisprudence, (5) Pathology and (6) Hygiene.

2. Three silver medals of the value of Rs. 13 each shall be annually awarded to the second-year students who obtain the highest marks in each of the following subjects, viz., (1) Anatomy, (2) Physiology and (3) Materia Medica at the school test examination in March.

3. One silver medal of the value of Rs. 13 shall be annually awarded to the first-year student who obtains the highest aggregate marks in Chemistry and Physics at the school test examination in March.

4. One gold medal of the value Rs. 35 shall be annually awarded to the fourth-year student who obtains the highest aggregate marks in all the subjects at the school test examination in March, provided he passes successfully the final examination of the State Medical Faculty in the same session.

5. A gold medal of the value of Rs. 35 shall be awarded to the second-year student who obtains the highest aggregate marks in all the subjects at the school test examination in March, provided he successfully passes the intermediate examination of the State Medical Faculty in the same session.

Prizes.

6. Two pocket instrument cases of the value of Rs. 20 each shall be annually awarded to the second-year students who have acted as prosectors during the year.

7. Two certificates of honour may be annually awarded in each subject of examination to the next two meritorious students of the first, second and fourth-year classes respectively after the students who secure medals under paragraphs 1, 2 and 3.

APPENDIX D.

SYLLABUS OF THE SUBJECTS FOR STUDY.

CHEMISTRY.

Lectures.

Chemical and physical changes. Indestructibility of matter. Elements and compounds. Mechanical mixtures. Chemical symbols and formulæ. Laws of chemical combination. Atomic theory. Simple methods of preparation and principal properties of the following :—

Oxygen, Hydrogen, Nitrogen, Carbon, Chlorine, Bromine, Iodine, Flourine, Sulphur, Phosphorus, Ammonia, Nitrous oxide, Nitric oxide, Nitric perokide, Nitric acid, Carbon monoxide, Carbon dioxide, Hydrochloric acid, Hydrobromic acid. Hydriodic acid, Hydrofluoric acid, Sulphur dioxide, Sulphuric acid, Sulphuretted hydrogen, Oxides and Sulphides of Arsenic, Boric acid, Hydrocyanic acid.

A study of the following: Water, Air, Marsh gas, Bases, Acids and Salts.

General properties of the following metals and the preparation and properties of their undermentioned compounds :—

Potassium : its Hydroxide, Carbonate, Nitrate, Chlorate, Iodide, Bromide, Permanganate and Cyanide.

Sodium : its Hydroxide, Carbonate, Bicarbonate, Chloride and Sulphate.

Calcium : its Oxide, Hydroxide, Carbonate and Chloride.

Magnesium : its Oxide, Chloride and Sulphate.

Zinc : its Oxide, Chloride and Sulphate.

Mercury : its Oxides and Chloride.

Lead : its Oxides, Nitrate.

Iron : Its Oxides, Chlorides and Sulphates.

Preparation and properties of the following organic compounds :—

Alcohol, Ether, Chloroform, Chloral hydrate, Acetic acid, Oxalic acid, Carbolic acid.

A study of the following: Starch, Dextrin, Cane sugar, Grape sugar, Fermentation, Soaps and Saponification.
Simple qualitative examination of urine and urinary calculi.

N B—The whole subject of Chemistry will be treated in an elementary way.

PHYSICS.

Lectures.

(a) States of matter.—General properties of solids, liquids and gases.

(b) Hydrostatics.—Floating bodies, Specific gravity, Hydrometers, Osmosis.

(c) Pneumatics.—Atmospheric pressure, Barometers, Boyle's Law, Air pumps, Syphon.

(d) Heat.—Sources and effects of heat, Temperatures, Measurement of temperature. Thermometers: maximum and minimum thermometers, the clinical thermometer, Radiation, conduction, convection. Latent heat

(e) Light.—Sources of light. Reflection, refraction and dispersion of light. Plane and concave mirrors. Simple lenses and prisms. The solar spectrum. The eye as an optical instrument. Long and short sight. The microscope.

(f) Sound.—Production and propagation of sound. Reflection of sound. Velocity of sound. Musical sounds. Intensity. Pitch and quality. Tuning forks.

(g) Electricity and Magnetism.—Elementary properties of magnets. Electrification by friction and induction. The electrophorus. Gold leaf electroscope. The Leyden Jar. Electric conductors. Dynamic electricity. Voltaic cell. Electro-magnet. Simple galvanometer. Induced currents. Medical batteries.

N B.—The subject of Physics will be treated in an elementary way.

Practical Course in Chemistry and Physics.

Use of simple instruments: such as syphon, thermometer, barometer, microscope, induction coil, magnets, batteries, burettes, pipettes. Chemical analysis of urine: tests for sugar, albumen and bile.

MATERIA MEDICA AND PHARMACY.

Lectures.

1. (a) Definition of various technical terms used in describing the action and preparation of medical agents and drugs.

(b) The uses and methods of preparation of the more commonly used official pharmaceutical preparations.

(c) Knowledge of apothecary's scales and weights; also the various measures, signs and symbols.

2. The sources, preparations, composition, doses, physiological action, therapeutic uses, and incompatibilities (physical, chemical and physiological) of the more commonly used drugs and their preparations according to the British Pharmacopœia and the Indian and Colonial addenda.

Practical Course.

1. Recognition of crude drugs and their more important preparations.
2. Reading and writing of prescriptions in English, labelling and marking doses and writing of directions, etc.
3. Practical Pharmacy and exercises in Dispensing.

PHYSIOLOGY.

Lectures.

I. Histology.—The animal cell. Epithelial tissues, Connective tissue (Dentine and development of Bone excluded), Muscular tissue, Nervous tissue.

II. Contractile Tissues.—Simple contraction. Tetanus. Fatigue. Principal changes associated with contraction. Differences in function between voluntary and involuntary muscles. Rigor mortis.

III. Dietetics and Digestive System.—Foodstuffs Classification of. principles of dietetics. Structure of the Œsophagus, Stomach, Small and Large Intestines, Salivary glands, Pancreas and Liver. Composition of Saliva and its functions. Composition and functions of the Gastric juice, Pancreatic juice, Bile and Succus entericus. Function of the Large Intestines. Absorption of foodstuffs. Functions of Liver. Mechanism of Deglutition. Peristalsis. Defæcation.

IV. Respiratory System.—Structure of Trachea, Bronchi and Lungs, Mechanism of respiration. Exchange of gases during respiration. Tidal air. Complemental air. Supplemental air. Residual air. Vital capacity. Apnœa. Asphyxia and its stages. Effects of Respiration on Circulation.

V. Circulatory System.—

(a) Blood.—Composition of red and white corpuscles. Varieties of white cells: their functions. Coagulation of blood.

(c) Blood Vessels.—Histology of Arteries. Veins and Capilleries, Mechanism of blood flow. Pulse: its normal characters. Interpretation of pulse tracing. Blood pressure, Vascular tone.

VI. Lymphatic System.—Structure of Lymphatic Glands and Vessels. Composition of Lymph. Mechanism of Lymph flow.

VII. Urinary System.—Structure and functions of Kidney.

Urine.—Physical characters and chemical composition. Common abnormal ingredients and their detection. Mechanism of Micturition.

VIII. Cutaneous System.—Structure of Skin. Function of Skin Sweat Glands: their structure. Composition of Sweat.

IX. Animal Heat.—Its regulation in warm-blooded animals.

X. The Ductless Glands.—Structure and function of Thyroid. Spleen, Supra-renal and Pituitary bodies.

XI. Nerves and Central Nervous System.—

(a) Classification of Nerves.

(b) The Central Nervous System—

(i) Brain.—Structure and functions of Cerebral Cortex Rolandic area. The Cortical centres.

(ii) The Cerebellum.—Functions of Cerebellum.

(iii) The Madulla.—Vasomotor, Respiratory and Cardiac centres.

(iv) The Spinal Cord.—Structure of the Spinal cord. Tracts of ascending and descending degeneration. Functions of the spinal cord. Spinal nerve roots.

(c) Vasomotor Nerves.

XII. Special Senses.—

(b) Hearing.—Anatomy and structure of middle and internal ear. Conduction of sound waves. Mechanism of hearing.

(c) Taste and Smell.—Varieties of papillæ of the tongue and their structure. Nerves of taste. Olfactory nerves.

(d) Cutaneous and Motor Sense.—Varieties of the end organs. Varieties of cutaneous sense. Musclé sense.

XIII. Reproductive System.—The male reproductive organs. The female reproductive organs. Fertilization of ovum. The mammary glands.

Practical Course.

(a) Identification of histological specimens of Epithelium, Connective tissues, Muscular tissue. Medullated nerves. Specimens of Spleen, Kidney, Liver, Thyroid, Human blood, Frog's blood, Lung, Stomach.

(b) Staining and mounting of sections of tissues mentioned above.

(c) Use of the Hæmoglobinometer and Sphygmograph and Sphygmomanometer.

(d) Preparation and staining of blood films Recognition of leucocytes.

(e) Estimation of Glucose. Tests for Glucose, Albumen, Bile.

GENERAL PATHOLOGY.

Lectures.

I. A knowledge of—

(a) Process of inflammation and repair.

(b) Process of fever.

(d) Disorders of blood and circulation.

(e) Disorders of nutrition and auto-intoxication.

(f) Degeneration and retrogressive changes.

(g) The progressive tissue changes including Neoplasms.

II. Elementary Bacteriology and Parasitology.—To embrace the study and morphology of the following :—

Pyogenic Cocci. Bacillus Coli-communis Bacillus Pestis. Bacillus Tetani. Bacillus Tuberculosis. Vibro Choleræ. Hæmatozeon malariæ Amœba coli. Parasite of Kala-azar. Ascaris Lumbricoides. Oxyuris vermicularis. Ankylostomum Duodenale. Filaria Sanguinis Hominis. Tænia Solium. Acarus Scabiei. Pediculi.

III. Morbid and Histology.—The more important structural changes produced in organs and tissues by the more common diseases.

Practical Course.

(a) Identification of pathological specimens from microscopical sections the commoner affected organs and tissues.

(b) Preparation of blood films.

(d) Preparation and staining of sputum for tubercle bacillus.

Lectures.

I. Unnatural and sudden deaths.—Giving of medical evidence, medico-legal reports, and certificates.

II. Deaths.—Chief forms of unnatural deaths : accident, suicide, homicide, poisoning. Signs of death. Post-mortem lividity. Rigor mortis. Putrefaction. Mummification. Time elapsed since death. Post-mortem examination in medico-legal cases.

III. Identity of the living and dead.—Age in its medico-legal aspect. The teeth, ossification; union of important epiphyses. Sexual characteristics of the skeleton.

IV. Wounds and mechanical injuries.—Definition and varieties. Distinction between ante and post-mortem. Suicidal and homicidal wounds. Results following wounds. Causes of death from wounds. Injuries of special regions. Examination of weapons and identification of materials adjacent to weapons.

V. Deaths from asphyxia.—Hanging, strangulation, suffocation, and drowning.

VI. Deaths from burns, scalds, heat, cold, electric discharge and starvation.

VII. Signs of virginity, rape, and sodomy.

VIII. Signs of Pregnancy.—Quickening. Period of human gestation. Prolonged gestation. Superfœtation. Viable age. Signs of delivery: recent and remote.

IX. Criminal abortion and infanticide.—Signs of live birth. Signs of death from violence and criminal neglect or omission.

X. Poisons, Actions of.—Diagnosis and treatment of cases of common poisoning. Post-mortem appearances in cases of poisoning. Preservation and transmission of vicera for analysis from suspected poisoning cases.

XI. Toxicology.—Mineral acid. Alkaline corrosives. Corrosive sublimate. Carbolic acid. Oxalic acid. Phosphorus. Arsenic and its compounds. Lead. Alcohol. Chloral Hydrate. Carbon monoxide. Carbon dioxide. Kerosine oil. Opium. Cannabis Indica. Datura. Belladonna. Cocaine. Strychnine and Nux vomica. Aconite. Oleander. Snake poison.

HYGIENE VACCINATION.

Lectures.

I. Air, Composition of.—Vitiation and impurities, suspended and gaseous. Examination of air. Ventilation: natural and artificial methods. Diseases due to overcrowding.

II. Water.—Sources, collection, and storage. Uses. Impurities and Origin. Purification, wholesale and domestic. Water-borne diseases.

III. Climate and soil.—Varieties. Rainfall. Subsoil water. Building sites. Drainage.

IV. Food and Diets.—Classification and varieties of subsistence diets. Disease due to over and under-feeding. Preserved and tinned foods. Fermented beverages. Milk and its relation to infectious diseases.

V. Personal Hygiene.—Cleanliness, clothing, exercise, rest and sleep.

VI. Conservancy.—Methods in villages, jails, towns and cities. Septic tanks. Dry earth latrines. Water-closets. Disposal of sewage. Sewage farms. Disposal of dead.

VII. Communicable Diseases and their Prophylaxis.—Endemic and epidemic; Plague, Cholera, Enteric, Tuberculosis, Malaria, Kala-azar. Elephantiasis, Rabies. Anti-rabic inoculation. Rôle of flies and suctorial insects in spreading diseases Rôle played by human carriers on spread of disease.

VIII. Disinfection.

IX. Small-pox and Vaccination.—Prevalence, inoculation, dangers of vaccination. Practical details of vaccination and methods of same. Sources of vaccine lymph; preparation of skin, aseptic precautions. Phenomena of successful vaccination.
